From the Pastor

We did our job. The company that prints the bulletin did their job. After that no one knows what happened other than we never received the bulletins to pass out to you. I think you'll admit this is a rare occurrence, thankfully. It's just not a perfect world, and that's an expression I find myself using more often now!

Our condolences go to the family of Donald Wesselman, whose funeral was Friday morning, 14 January. We also extend our sympathies to the family of Vic Deters, and his funeral is Monday morning, 17 January. Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord.

It is very important that you be signed up for the Pre Cana Conference if you plan on getting married this year. It is one of our requirements at St. Francis for getting married here, and we have only the one conference in the year. It's an all Sunday evolution on Sunday the 30th of January. Call the rectory for more information.

As more people use the Sr. Ethelbert Center, they will see 3 statues above the front entrance. The statues are St. Joseph, the Blessed Mother, and the infant Jesus. Many of the reasons for using the Sr. Ethelbert Center have to do with family celebration, like Christmas parties, baptismal dinners, bridal preparation or a place for the gentlemen to get ready, religious instruction, adult formation, etc. I think it's apropos that we have the statues of the Holy Family over the entrance. These Fontanini statues are gifts to the parish from Kevin and Kim Willenborg, who live in Peoria. Kim's maiden name is Hinkle; she is the daughter of Ted and Rosalee. I had their wedding here on a Friday evening in June of 1986, and then I left the parish the next day for my new assignment at St. Francis Solanus Parish in Quincy, IL. We are grateful to Kevin and Kim for their generous donation to the parish.

The church looks rather bare and empty now, doesn't it? The Art and Environment Committee came in Tuesday evening and removed all the decorations. That is quite a job. We thank you for all you do for the parish, especially enriching our worship experience because of the atmosphere in the church. You always do an excellent job.

Parish Council Nominations Each year, three persons are elected to serve on the Parish Council for a three-year term. Laura Deters, Mary Flach and Carl Waldhoff have served the parish for three years, and now their terms have expired. We will be voting for three new members the third weekend of February.

All parishioners 18 years and older are invited to nominate parishioners who they feel are most qualified to share in the pastoral care and leadership of our parish. You can nominate people by sending names to Fr. Joe, emailing them or dropping them off at the parish office, or by placing them in the collection basket. You may also nominate yourself! Simply write the name/s on a slip of paper along with their spouse's name or phone number to avoid confusion because some people in the parish share the same name. Deadline to turn in nominations is January 30th.

Church in Latin America Next week we will take up the collection for the Church in Latin America. For many in Latin America and the Caribbean, a rising secular culture, difficult rural terrain, and a shortage of ministers all present obstacles to practicing the faith. Your support for the collection provides lay leadership training, catechesis, priestly and religious formation, and other programs to share our Catholic faith with those who long to hear the Good News of Christ.

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Relationships are hard to clarify. Determining whether people in our lives are simply acquaintances and associates or a deeper level of friend is a journey that takes time. Identifying and celebrating those people who really care about us is a lifelong adventure that involves both moments of intense elation and heartache. Some relationships are more easily definable than others. Two people who are in love must decide whether the love they share has the freedom and depth necessary for lifelong commitments. Other relationships may look like friendship but may harbor grave dysfunction and toxicity. Discernment is needed on all fronts. Our relationship with God also needs definition and discernment. God has taken creation as His spouse and human beings as His children. God delights in us and all that He has made. The wedding feast at Cana demonstrates God's investment in all of this, especially our happiness. Life is a time for celebration and great rejoicing!
