From the Pastor

Thank you, Fr. Bob Sieg, for coming here to St. Francis Parish and to St. Rose of Lima Parish last weekend. It was good to see you again. Fr. Bob Sieg and I were ordained together back in 1975 in Chicago, but he is younger than I. I'm sure he knows that he is welcome here any time.

Last Sunday was our Pre-Cana Conference. 26 couples spent the day in the Sr. Ethelbert Center and listened to presentations from 5 couples: Dan and Deb Blankenship, Rich and Brenda Niebrugge, Derek and Linda Powell, Jacob and Kate Pruemer, and Tom and Cindy Vahling. This was the first time for two couples: Derek and Linda and Tom and Cindy. Jacob and Kate Pruemer are the organizers for the event, and they are very grateful to the members of the team for their cooperation and helping them with the program. I thank the team for all their work in planning and giving their talks and their time making the day possible.

I opened the day with prayer, and at the end of the day I spoke on the Sacrament of Matrimony. Then we met in church for a blessing of the engaged. Also during the day I ran over to the hospital to visit our Director of Music, Dan Williams, who has been in the ICU area.

Please continue to keep Dan Williams and his wife, Sandy, in your prayers. Dan has lost a significant amount of weight, and we don't know why. They appreciate your prayers, care and concern.

I was going to visit Quincy this week, but the weather changed those plans. I will go over in a couple weeks, 16-17 February.

At all the Masses this weekend, the priest will bless the throats of the people during the final Blessing of the Mass. The feast day of St. Blasé is 3 February. The blessing of St. Blasé, with the two candles near the throat, enjoys a rather long tradition in the church.

On Sunday, 20 February, the RCIA group is going on a pilgrimage to Terre Haute, IN to visit the college of St. Mary of the Woods and to learn about St. Mother Theodore Guerin. I will join them. After I visited the campus a couple years ago, I thought it would be a wonderful day trip for a busload of senior citizens. Before I could get those plans in place, Covid hit. Those plans came to a screeching halt. Perhaps it's time to resurrect them.

The story of St. Josephine Bakhita (1869-1947) is a story that many people taken into slavery have experienced. Born in the Darfur region of Sudan, she was kidnapped at the age of 8 and sold into slavery many times. As she passed from owner to owner, she experienced the moral and physical humiliations associated with slavery. It was only at the age of 13 that her suffering was alleviated after she was bought for the Italian Consul in Sudan. It was here that she was fortunate to receive kindness, respect, and peace from her new master.

She was later handed over to the Canossian Sisters when she made the case that slavery had been outlawed in Italy for years. She was baptized and confirmed in the Catholic Church in 1890, where she took the name Josephine. She later entered the Institute of St. Magdalene of Canossa in 1893 and made her profession three years later.

St. Josephine Bakhita's next 50 years were spent serving people through cooking, sewing, embroidery, and house-keeping. She was a source of encouragement and her constant smile won people's hearts, as did her humility and simplicity. Today she is known as the patron saint of victims of modern slavery and human trafficking.

Job Opening: Fr. Joe mentioned a couple of weeks ago in his letter that Jane Miller is retiring at the end of February and if anyone is interested to drop a resume or application by the parish office. Sharing the Gospel

Jesus was powerful enough to control the fish in the sea! Peter caught no fish by himself one night. With Jesus' help, Peter caught more fish than his boat could carry. When Peter saw what Jesus did, he was afraid. How would you feel?

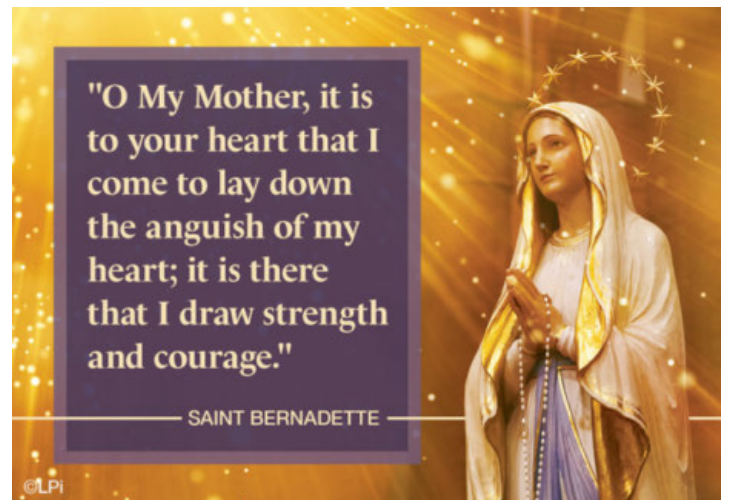

Prayer

Dear God, your power is so amazing!

Mission for the Week

With your parents, try turning on a lamp while it isn't plugged in. It doesn't work, does it? That's how we need to be plugged in to God, to do his work. Without him, what we try will never work.

5th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Depart from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man,” these words, uttered by Simon Peter, can be found on any one of our lips. What real significance do I have in the big picture of God’s Divine plan? Even though we try our best to hide it, we all suffer from a lack of faith. We get tired, confused, and often lack any sincere desire to put anything into our relationship with God. It’s easier to simply reap whatever benefits the world has to offer and call it a day. Floating along on the superficial currents of life doesn’t require much effort and seems to get us through the day. Confronting our own infidelity, apathy, weakness of spirit, and doubt in God’s providence, how can we even remotely be considered a worthy vessel of God’s presence or credible voice for His message?

This is the irony of faith. God doesn’t seek the perfect vessels. He likes the broken ones. There is something to be said about living honestly and sincerely, and wrestling with sin, imperfection, and weakness rather than skipping through the peripheries of life with pretention, arrogance, and mendacity. If we believe ourselves to be our own “god” and serve only ourselves, we close the door to ever being used by the real and only True God. But, if we at least acknowledge that there is One greater than ourselves, then even in our deepest poverty and lowliness, God can enter.

Lessons are best learned from those who suffer. Only someone who has been lonely and lost can attest to the beauty of both Divine and human friendship. Only those who have really lost their way know what happens when they are found. Only those who are afraid know what it is to be calmed by God. The Gospel is messy because life is messy. There are no black and white solutions to problems and challenges that are hazy and gray. When our hesitancy to encounter God gets replaced by friendship with God, we become more aware of our dignity and the fact that we are loved just as we are. We cannot be afraid to share our struggles, reservations, fears, and sinfulness with others. Our genuineness and sincerity will speak of the God who blesses us in our weakness.

ASSISI FOR AFRICA - We have caught children sleeping in the waiting room of our Franciscan seminary. Where had they slept during the night? We found them wrapped in bags underneath a bench of a store that sells bread. Or they may have to sleep on the patio of a restaurant, or in a garbage truck, or on the sidewalk near a night watchman. Two or three have come to live with our boys, and they seem to be happy. But they have no education so we have to start with reading and writing and the alphabet.

This week we will be meeting with Europeans who want to work with us to free the small children from working in the mines (Save the Children). We will see what they say and we will measure it in the light of what we have learned to do. If all goes well we will work together with the hope of receiving educational material for the children.

Thanks to you all who help us to create a world of love, especially for those who have nowhere to sleep.

Fr. Damien

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

When we encounter or even ponder God’s magnificence, power, and awesomeness, we easily begin to feel our own smallness and perceived insignificance. After all, who can compete with eternal greatness, seraphim, or the ability to catch great numbers of fish? We unfortunately think that God’s presence somehow overrides us, reduces our importance, and only seeks to judge our inadequacies and doubts. Things begin to change a bit when we realize that what we may have seen as overwhelming and frightening is really only unconditional, unmerited love. Love has tremendous majesty and power. When we listen to this power and stop seeing it as threatening or dooming, our fear dissipates and Divine friendship takes root. Remaining close to what we once preferred at a distance, we can journey to places we never thought possible and do things we never thought we could do. Strengthened by Divine friendship and encouraged by its life-giving power, we can say “here I am, send me!” when God asks, “whom shall I send?” Sin and fear no longer are of concern to the one who remains close to God in a bond of trust.
