From the Pastor

If you would look up the definition of “fickle” in the dictionary, you will find: “changeable or unstable in affection, interest, loyalty, etc.; capricious.” And capricious means; “erratic, flighty, subject to change abruptly and without apparent reason.” You might be wondering why I am talking about words and definitions. Palm Sunday is an example of people being fickle. The people waved palm branches and yelled “Hosanna.” They welcomed Jesus to Jerusalem. The people put Jesus on a donkey, and he rode through the streets, or at least that is the picture we have of him. It was a joyous moment. Days later – not weeks or months – but only a couple days later pretty much the same people are yelling “Crucify him! Crucify him!” They want to see Jesus die! What an example of being capricious or being fickle! How can people turn on someone so quickly? The fickle Jews in Jerusalem on Good Friday and Palm Sunday represent us over a longer stretch of time. We can find ourselves in church praising God, and within a couple days we can be angry or impatient with people we love or with co-workers. We can receive Holy Communion at Mass and then within days we can decide to not give to a fund that will help the people in Ukraine.

Please consult the schedule for our Holy Week services in this bulletin. You might want to clip it out and place it on your refrigerator so it is handy in these next couple days. The Sacred Triduum, or holy three days, is the culmination of our liturgical year: Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and the Vigil with Easter Sunday.

Questions to ponder: which sacraments can a Catholic receive only once in their lifetime? What is unique about these sacraments besides being received only once in a lifetime?

ASSISI FOR AFRICA—Didier wanted Baptism and Holy Communion—This was the first time that we have celebrated the sacrament in our hall. After the ceremony of Baptism and Communion everyone joined in popcorn and coca cola.

About 1/3 of our children are baptized, but all of them in school follow the catechism course. Our celebrant, Fr. Gustav, is also the Secretary of our Seminary and co-founder of Maison Mapendo (Home of love) where abandoned female children can find safety and love.

You are all invited to share our joy with Didier on the celebration of the sacraments. He and we still needs prayer. Let's all pray especially for him for he still has a long time of struggle waiting for him.

We will have a craft, snack, and games for kids with an Easter egg hunt sponsored by the Teutopolis Civic Club at 10 am in the mini park: You must pre-register your child with the form on the church website. Sign up by April 8th.

40 Days for Life – We conclude our 40 Days of prayer and sacrifice for the end of abortion this Sunday, April 3. Let us reflect on the Cross of Jesus. At the end of His life on earth, by dying on the cross, Jesus opened the door to eternal life for those who heed his words and follow in his footsteps. Following Jesus and taking up our cross means we continue speaking and standing for what is right even when opposition comes. We can follow Jesus and carry our own cross by standing up for the truth in spite of persecution.

Prayer: Lord, thank you for the grace of being pro-life, and of standing strong when others may ridicule or oppose us. During this 40 Day campaign, may your peace fill our souls to endure opposition or discouragement, and may we become more like your crucified and risen Son as we await in hope the final triumph of life. Amen.

God Bless Those Serving our Country.

Anthony Vahling, Ryan Weber, Cody Bushue, Andrew Isley, Shawn Zerrusen, Ali Kingery, Andrew Simmons, Jesse Koester, Justis Coventry, Braydan Bushue, Mallory Stone, Paul Schumacher, Damon Sabo.
