From the Pastor

The parish staff at St. Francis and Fr. Frank, Fr. Dat and I wish you and your family the blessings of this Easter season. He is risen!

We join our prayers with the family of Nadine Brumleve, who was buried from our parish on the 8th of April. Eternal rest grant unto her, O Lord.

Recently in a bulletin I asked the question: which sacraments can Catholics receive only once in their lives? Sometimes people answer matrimony or marriage, and then I ask: what if a spouse dies? “Well, okay, then a person can receive the sacrament more than once.” Normally, it’s true that the husband and wife minister this sacrament to each other only once in their life. The priest is the official witness on the part of the church, and it’s necessary for Catholics to have a priest witness their vows.

There are three sacraments of initiation: baptism, confirmation and Eucharist. Two of these are received only once in a person’s life. At our Easter Vigil I confirmed Lauren Loy and Meagan Roepke. They also received the Eucharist for the first time. They are now fully initiated in the life of the Church. We rejoice with them. The Mystical Body of Christ is stronger because they are with us!

The minister of the sacrament of confirmation, which is usually the bishop, uses chrism to confirm the person. He says as he anoints the person’s forehead with the sacred oil: “Be sealed with the gift of the Holy Spirit.” Then he shakes the person’s hand and says: “Peace be with you.” The person replies: “And with your spirit.”

Only once is a person baptized and the same for confirmation. So what is the third sacrament that is only once in your life? Holy Orders. The newly ordained kneels down before the bishop, and the bishop anoints the hands of the priest with sacred chrism. This is a once in your life experience.

At our Mass on Holy Thursday evening the three oils were presented, and I gave a brief introduction about each oil. These oils are kept in the tabernacle on the side altar of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

We had a good number of disciples and followers of Jesus coming to worship God at our 6:30 Mass each week day morning during Lent. I hope we continue to praise God this way during the Easter season and beyond.

This Easter we welcome four new members into the fullness of the Catholic Church!

Allison Meinhart receives her First Communion and Confirmation at St. Rose in Montrose, IL.

Lauren Loy and Meagan Roepke receive their sacraments at St. Francis.

Sabrina Eggers will be a new member at St. Isidore in Bishop.

All four women participated in various Christian denominations before finding their home in the Catholic Church. They have been attending class since September to deepen their understanding of Catholicism.

Allison desired unity with her family, so she decided to learn more about the Catholic Church. She has said that going to Mass on Sundays as a family has been a highlight and a positive change in their weekends.

Lauren was baptized Catholic as an infant at St. Francis but did not receive the other sacraments. Her cousin has been an example to her in the Catholic faith and is now her confirmation sponsor. She too wanted her children to grow up in a strong faith tradition and to be an example to her own Godchildren.

Meagan Roepke was married at St. Francis and has been impacted by the witness of her husband and his family's faith. She too desired unity and to raise her children in a strong faith community that goes to Mass together.

Sabrina said the Catholic Church started to feel more like her church than her previous one. She felt like God was telling her that this is where she belongs. Let us pray for the newly confirmed Catholics, for them to be strengthened and courageous on their journey! Many thanks to the RCIA team and the sponsors who are great witnesses to the joy of the Catholic faith and help instill a love for the Catholic Church. More is caught than taught! It takes a community living and sharing the Gospel to form disciples.

Everyone is welcome to attend the Deanery Prayer Vigil for Life to pray for the protection of all life at St. Mary Help of Christians in Green Creek on Monday, April 25. Praying the rosary will begin at 6:00 pm. Fr. Sunder Ery will be the celebrant for the 6:30 pm mass. The business meeting will follow in the
