From the Pastor

The big news this week in the parish is the Vacation Bible School. Between 80 and 90 children are coming to “school” each morning, and the staff reaching out to them is over 30 people. It can be a noisy group! Thank you to all, who are pitching in and making this possible. We concluded the week with Mass on Friday at 11:00.

Years ago I mentioned that we encounter and deal with “special people” very often. The example I use is while driving down the interstate, you see a sign that construction is ahead. Everyone has to move over to the left lane. And most people do just that. However, you will see a car come speeding up the empty right lane, and someone will invariably let them in. That’s the special person. Rules apply to everyone else. He or she is special. My reason for bringing this up is we have announced at Masses, and we have published in the bulletin that the 13th of July was the final date for ordering and paying for a parish pictorial directory. We don’t know the number, but someone will call and ask when is the pictorial directory coming out – they would like a copy!! July 13th was the date, but then you know that!

This week we congratulate Jack Hartke, son of Chris and Beth Hartke (student of Angie Esker) on placing 1st place in Division II for his essay.

“Everything is possible when God is around”

Everything is possible when God is around. When God is around anything can happen. He can do anything. In the Gospel He did miracles. In history, during times of poverty and war He did amazing things. Even today, He can do anything. Here are some things that tell you how God can do anything.

They tell countless stories of God’s miracles. When the disciples were scared in the storm in the Gospel of Matthew, they saw Jesus walking on water which was impossible! But God can do anything. Then an even more amazing thing happened. Peter walked on water too. God did this amazing thing which is proof that all things are possible. In the Wedding of Cana, He changed water to wine which was one of the most important miracles. It made us know that Jesus was here on Earth with us. Another miracle is the Last Supper. That is when the bread and wine was changed into the body and blood. This was the true presence of God. Finally, the most important miracle is The Resurrection. Without this, we wouldn’t be able to go to heaven. This is God’s power. This is all proof that anything is possible when God is around.

In World War II, the small town of San Giovanni Rotondo when Nazi Germany was trying to bomb the town some peculiar things happened. Bombs malfunctioned and the radar system broke. God used Padre Pio as a “flying monk.” The monk gestured the Nazi to leave and go away. This was the power of God that helped the town not die. This is proof that God will always save you. This is also proof that God is powerful.

Today, He does amazing things too. He has saved people from death. There are many books about this. There are also reports of Him saving people in car crashes and other incidents. This is proof that God is powerful. As you can see anything is possible when God is around. He will help us. He will save us. He will do miracles until the end of time. As we go forth He will save us from darkness and sin. This is all proof that anything is possible with God.

Save the Date!

CCW Ladies...to those who joined us for our Wine Down Wednesday event and meeting to welcome our newest members, thank you! To those who missed, we look forward to seeing you at our next event! More to come on this! At our meeting we discussed a “theme” of the month, led by our Mattoon Deanery Council of Catholic Women. The theme for July is “Be Steadfast.” Sometimes, it is unpopular to be on God’s side. Do we stand up for what is right, true and just, no matter what? There is a great newsletter with bible verses related to this theme at the entrances of church! Grab a copy! The daily verses are a perfect read before bed or with morning prayers!
