From the Pastor

This evening, October 30th, we have a memorial Mass at 6 o'clock. In this Mass we remember in a special way our parishioners, who have died during the past year. This is an excellent custom that has been part of our parish for a long time. A recent addition has been the excellent work of Sharon Brummer, who has assembled obituaries of the members we are remembering and praying for. This year we have 26 souls embraced by Sister Death.

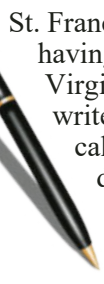

I hope everyone had a safe Halloween. When I was a child, Halloween was up there close to Christmas. I couldn't wait to walk up to some stranger's house and walk away with free candy! Too good to be true. My family didn't go into costumes, a simple paper bag over the head was sufficient. Then we kids would pour out our bags on the living room floor when we got home. I think the people in this area get into the costumes much more than we did. What's important is to be safe.

On Tuesday we have a holy day of obligation: All Saints Day. We don't hear much about the holy days of obligation anymore, but we still have them, and the feast of All Saints on 1 November is one of them. In the morning we have Masses at 6:00 and 7:55, and in the p.m. we start with Mass at 12:10 and the last one is at 6:30. I hope you and your family can work one of these Masses into your schedule.

On Wednesday, 2 November, we celebrate the feast of All Souls. I always felt that this should be the holy day of obligation rather than All Saints because the souls in purgatory can use our Masses and prayers more than those, who are already in heaven. On this Wednesday we have two Masses: 6:30 and 7:55. Pray and fast for the poor souls.

The diocese had a contest: Build a Church Lego for the 6th to 8th grade categories. Our own parishioner, John Pruemmer, son of Jacob and Kate, won the contest!! We all congratulate him!! He won $100.00 prize, and we won also—the diocese gave John a check for $100.00 for his parish!!

BOOK OF ETERNAL LIFE

St. Francis parish began the practice years ago of having a "Book of Life" placed by the Blessed Virgin Mary's altar in church for parishioners to write the names of loved ones who have been called from this life. Writing the name of your departed loved one(s) in the book of life is an expression of faith that you believe your loved one is among the number of saints marching into heaven.

ATTENTION

Ministers of Holy Communion HELP NEEDED

PRAYER CAMPAIGN FOR LIFE: Let us continue our prayer and fasting for respect for human life through Nov. 6. "Out of the depths I cry to you, O Lord! Lord, hear my voice! Let your ears be attentive to my voice in supplication! If you, O Lord, mark iniquities, who can stand? But with you is forgiveness, that you may be revered. I trust in the Lord; my soul trusts in his word. My soul waits for the Lord more than sentinels wait for the dawn ... For with the Lord is kindness and plenteous redemption; And he will redeem Israel from all their iniquities." Psalm 130

Never can we say that this fight over abortion is not about life and death. Yes for the life of the baby, but let us not forget the life of the women and others involved. Only God has the ability to mark iniquities and He gives forgiveness. Thank you Lord for the forgiveness that you have given all of us, and now please give it to all who are touched by abortion. Lord, as a nation redeem us from this sin of abortion. Help us pray and fast in a way that you will hear us. Help us be the sentinels that You are calling us to be. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Thank you to Sharon Brummer for the display for the Mass of Remembrance.
