From the Pastor

The staff and Franciscans here at St. Francis wish you and your loved ones a holy, healthy and happy new year! January 1st is a holy day of obligation, not so much because of it being New Year’s Day, but it is the feast of the Solemnity of Mary. It is fitting that we begin our year with an emphasis on Mary the Mother of God. She has been instrumental in the life of so many people for centuries. And she serves as the patroness of our country under the title of the Immaculate Conception. When you visit Washington, D.C., be sure to also visit the Basilica of the Immaculate Conception. It is located on the campus of Catholic University and is easily accessible by public transportation.

Our Christmas season seems shorter than usual this year. The season ends with the feast of the Baptism of the Lord, and that feast is January 9th this year. I hope you and your family are enjoying the Christmas season this year. Again, from the Franciscans we thank you for your prayers, greetings, and special treats like cookies and fruit and....

 We extend our sympathies and condolences to the families of Stella Esker and Dolores Esker. Stella passed away on December 15, 2022. Dolores passed away on December 16, 2022. Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord.

With the help of McMahon Meats and John Boos, the Men’s Sodality delivered these food boards to over 20 shut ins in our community. This is one example of what the Men’s Sodality dues are used towards. Please continue to support and participate in this worthy organization.
 May the upcoming year bring happiness and health to you and your family.

BLESSINGS ON OUR NEW YEAR

Music Ministry Notes

Participants of our Music Ministry Program successfully represented St. Francis during the annual Santa Stomp Race on December 17. The temperature was frigid, the wind was bitter, but our spirits were high as we helped encourage the walkers and runners. Special thanks to those parents; Jill Quandt, Melissa Habing, Rochelle Repking, Kate Pruemer, Pat Zuber, Jason Schumacher, Dana Pals, Rita Feldhake, Sandy Williams, who came to help supervise and drive over 40 carolers. I have surely missed someone; it does take many volunteers to make this event happen. THANK YOU!!! We are already looking forward to next year!
