From the Pastor

This Monday evening, 23 Jan, we are having a Mass at 6:30. This Mass is for the legal protection of unborn children. We will have a break in the adoration of the Blessed Sacrament from 6:00 pm until we continue immediately after Mass. If you can't come to church, then pray at home or on break at work – pray for the unborn. They are defenseless. We see advertisements for people to adopt animals and keep them safe, for so much a month. We are talking about protecting human beings, persons.

We had the national holiday on the 16th of January for Martin Luther King. He was a very gifted person, and the Lord gave him a mission, which he accepted. The night before he died in Memphis, he spoke to a crowd as he did many times. This time he said: “We’ve got some difficult days ahead. But it doesn’t matter with me now. Because I’ve been to the mountaintop. And I don’t mind. Like anybody, I would like to live a long life. Longevity has its place. But I’m not concerned about that now. I just want to do God’s will. And He’s allowed me to go up to the mountain. And I’ve looked over. And I’ve seen the promised land. I may not get there with you. But I want you to know tonight, that we, as a people, will get to the promised land. So I’m happy tonight. I’m not worried about anything.” He said: “I just want to do God’s will.” And he found peace in being resigned to the will of God. He was a Baptist minister, husband, father and follower of the Lord.

At the recent meeting of our Knights of Columbus Council we learned that our council is the largest in the State of Illinois! I find that remarkable for a small community. Let us continue to live the Knights of Columbus marks of unity, charity, fraternity, and patriotism.

Also at the meeting we learned about El Shaddai Homes in Effingham. This is a residential maternity home for pregnant women and their children. This is an alternative to abortion. El Shaddai Homes is new, and the founder is Lisa Krampe from Neoga, IL. I hope we will be hearing much more about this alternative to abortion.
