From the Pastor

Happy Palm Sunday! It hardly seems possible that Lent is nearly over as we begin the last week of Lent. We take so much for granted, and it's possible that since we have been reared with this Catholic background, we could think that everyone else has also. But we know that's not true. In the Navy I met junior enlisted men and women, who had never been to church – regardless of religion – Christmas, Easter – it just didn't register. Didn't mean anything. We are grateful to our parents and grandparents and so many others, who have shared their faith with us – our teachers and catechists, for example.

Palm Sunday reminds me of how fickle human nature can be. The crowds cried out: "Hosanna! Hosanna!" They wanted to make Jesus a king, and only days later the crowd is crying: "Crucify him! Crucify him!" We need to be careful of a "mob mind." Leaders? Followers? If we are serious about practicing our faith, then we need to be leaders.

Tuesday evening I will be at the Chrism Mass at the cathedral. I don't think I have missed very many of them, if any. I find it to be an impressive liturgy, especially as the bishop consecrates the oils used all over the diocese this coming year. Consecrating the chrism is reserved to a bishop, I believe. When Bishop Lucas moved to Omaha, a bishop was brought in to Springfield for the Chrism Mass.

Thursday evening we begin the Sacred Triduum with a celebration of the Lord's Last Supper. There will be the washing of feet and the transfer of the Eucharist after Mass so the faithful can devote time after Mass in private prayer and adoration. The church will close at 9:30. Most people are finished praying before that.

We will have the adoration of the cross on Good Friday, the reading of the Passion, and reception of the Holy Eucharist. The collection taken up will be sent to support the religious sites in the Holy Land. The offering on Holy Thursday will be given to El Shaddai. In the evening of Good Friday we will have the Stations of the Cross at 7 o'clock.

I am very much impressed with the number of parishioners, who pray the Easter Vigil. Some of the places I have served would see a much smaller group come to the Easter Vigil. I presume they feared a rather long liturgy. At our Easter Vigil Alaina Jade will be fully initiated into the Body of Christ. She has two younger sisters, Charlee and Cora, who will also be baptized on Saturday!

HOLY WEEK MINISTRY SIGN-UPS

PRO-LIFE ACTION - We are asked to sign the online petition at www.sanctuarycitiesfortheunborn.com/online-petition. This will be helpful for organizers to see if there is support for this in our area. Abortion clinics are known for being secretive in purchasing buildings. It is best to act before, not after, this occurs. If cities/villages pass ordinances to be Sanctuary Cities for the Unborn, this would not only ban abortion clinics, but also not allow the dispensing or mailing of the abortion pill at area pharmacies in that city. Please sign the online petition and spread the word!

40 DAYS FOR LIFE - Thanks to all who came to our Day of Prayer for Life and Eucharistic Adoration this past Monday, and to all who offered prayer and sacrifice for a culture of life in any way during this 40 Days for Life, which ends today. We place our trust in God's promise to us: "He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away." He who was seated on the throne said, "I am making everything new!" -- Revelation 21:4-5

When we face the destructive power of death, we are to think of the day when death is swallowed up in victory. Father, you are the God of hope. Keep our hearts focused on heaven, and diligence in the labors of earth. As we struggle against the culture of death, root our souls in the assurance of victory. We pray through Christ our Lord, Amen.

 Effingham Catholic Charities would like to thank you for your gift of $8,086.50. Pope Francis tells us that if we wish to encounter Christ, we must touch His body in the suffering bodies of the poor. Thanks to all of you for sharing what you have been given with our vulnerable brothers and sisters.
