From the Pastor

Happy Father’s Day! This Sunday we wish all of our fathers, grandfathers, stepfathers, Godfathers, God’s blessings of holiness, happiness and good health as we celebrate Father’s Day. We can take good old Dad for granted so easily. It’s good that we have at least one day to pause and thank him for all the good he does for the family. St. Joseph is the father of the holy family. He is a good patron for all of our fathers in the parish. St. Joseph isn’t known for any great saying in the gospel. Actually he isn’t quoted at all in any of the four gospels. But we know he was a good husband to Mary and a good father to Jesus. Follow his example.

Our 49th annual Day of Prayer for Life is being held this Wednesday here in our church. We begin with Eucharistic exposition at 9: 00 a.m., and throughout the day we will have adoration and prayer. Various parishes are responsible for praying at different hours, and St. Francis has the hour from 9:00 to 10:00. Benediction is at 7:00 p.m. and the day concludes with Mass at 7:30. Come and pray. The issue of respecting human life is not going away, and our state of Illinois is ranked near the bottom when it comes to protecting human life. New York is not any better. Large states with large numbers of people.

We didn’t get the opportunity to celebrate Corpus Christi with the procession and benedictions, but we did get some rain. I thank the people, who were prepared to decorate the altars for our celebration. And we are grateful to Barb Runde for her contribution with the sacristy and servers and the church.

“Lighting up the World with Acts of Kindness”

When I was little, I wanted to try to make others happy. So I started to write letters to people. Everyone I sent a letter to would always send a letter back. I would also try to pick up trash. I loved picking up trash and writing letters and they loved having me send kind things to them. They also knew I enjoyed hearing all the good things and kind things that they have done and have written back to me in their letter. If something sad happened like if their pet died, I would help them feel better. Sometimes if it is really sad, I cry too, but I always write something nice back that will try to make them not think of it. Usually I write about what’s on the bright side. Being kind was one of my favorite vibes.
