From the Pastor

It isn't often for the Diocese of Springfield to not have a Mass on a Saturday evening in any church in the diocese! This is what is happening this weekend. As you know, for months the diocese has been talking about the Eucharistic Congress at the Bank of Springfield Convention Center on October 28th. Parishes were not allowed to schedule weddings or Masses on this day so people would be free to attend and participate in the Eucharistic Congress. Many people have given a good deal of their time to work on this, and I'm sure it will be very worthwhile.

This weekend, on Sunday October 29, we have our Mass of Remembrance at 6:00 p.m. At this Mass we remember in a special way the members of our parish who have died in the past year. Sharon Brummer has composed a pictorial summary of each of the deceased and a copy of their obituary. These papers are in the front of church. Thank you, Sharon. It's a great idea. You have probably seen the easels holding them when you came forward for receiving the Eucharist.

Holy Day of Obligation is this Wednesday, November 1st, the feast of All Saints. We have only a half dozen of these holy days of obligation in a year. Come and celebrate the Eucharist. We have 4 Masses on the feast: 6:00 a.m. note the change in time. Our usual time for the first Mass is 6:30, but we realize people have to get to work, so this Mass starts at 6:00. Then we have 7:55 a.m.; 12:10 p.m. and 7:00 p.m. So there is something for everyone!

The next day, November 2nd, is the Feast of All Souls. We have Masses at 6:30 and 8:00. I would think that this day would be the Holy Day of Obligation so all the Catholics would come to Mass and pray for the souls in purgatory. But I think the saints in heaven gather around the altars during the Eucharist, and they do all they can to help the poor souls.

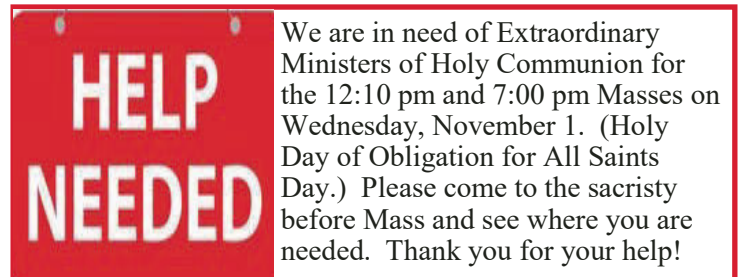

November 2nd is also the date I hopefully get "cleared" by my surgeon so there will not be any restrictions. I won't have to wear that black vest, can lift more than 15 pounds, and other stuff. I suspect he is going to have some suggestions for me to avoid messing up the 5 screws he put into my spine. I'll be surprised if he doesn't clear me. Thank you for your prayers on my behalf. They have worked. No one said anything to me about physical therapy so I got things moving on that several days ago. I can see the difference already.

Last Sunday afternoon our CCW sponsored the "Where's Padre? The Great Picture Hunt." There were golf carts all over our metropolitan area! Thanks to Jodie Pruemer and her team for working on this. I wasn't able to solve very many puzzles.

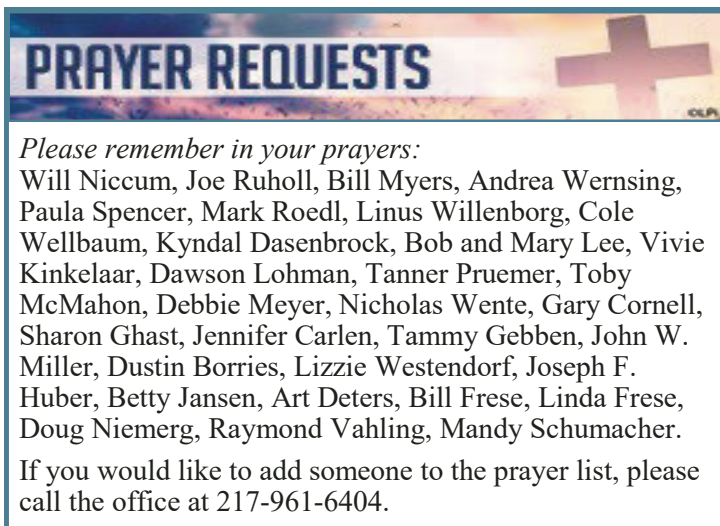

The Teutopolis Civic Club hosted the Halloween Parade on Friday. The children I am sure had a great time. And the same group, Civic Club, was instrumental in having the 10:30 Mass last Sunday honoring the members of the First Responders. There was a standing ovation, that lasted a long time, for these brave folks, who go into harm's way. It spoke a great deal of the community's gratitude and appreciation for all that our First Responders do. And thank you, Civil Club members, for all you do.

God Bless Those Serving Our Country.
Anthony Vahling, Cody Bushue, Shawn Zerrusen,
Ali Kingery, Andrew Simmons, Jesse Koester,
Justis Coventry, Braydan Bushue, Mallory Stone,
Paul Schumacher, Damon Sabo.

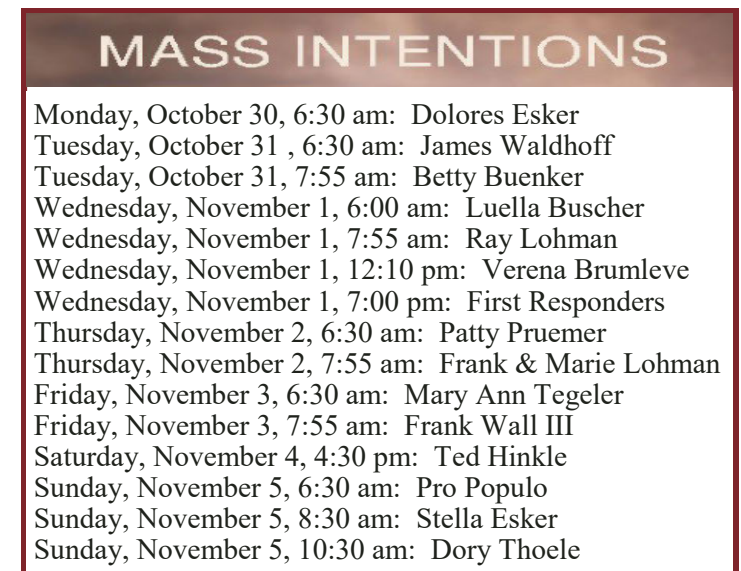

HELP NEEDED

PRAYER CAMPAIGN FOR LIFE – Thank you to those who are generously volunteering at Silk Purse. All proceeds from the Silk Purse go to the Family Life Center, who are the pro-life front lines in our area offering pregnancy tests, ultrasounds, and positive options for families in a difficult pregnancy. Thanks also to all who prayed on our Day of Eucharistic Prayer for Life this past Monday. Your continued prayers and sacrifices are needed to battle the evil of abortion during these 40 days through Nov. 5! Only God knows how your prayer may be touching someone's life and changing their heart.

Prayer: Dear Lord, today we pray for healing for all mothers and fathers who have lost a child in an abortion. We pray that their hearts will be open to your infinite mercy and they will seek your forgiveness and peace in the sacrament of Reconciliation. Amen.

BOOK OF ETERNAL LIFE

St. Francis parish began the practice years ago of having a "Book of Life" placed by the Blessed Virgin Mary's altar in church for parishioners to write the names of loved ones who have been called from this life. Writing the name of your departed loved one(s) in the book of life is an expression of faith that you believe your loved one is among the number of saints marching into heaven.

PRAY THE ROSARY FOR PEACE -

Our Lady said to the three shepherd children at Fatima, Portugal, on July 13, 1917, "Continue to say the Rosary every day in honor of Our Lady of the Rosary, to obtain the peace of the world and the end of the war, because only she can obtain it." World War I ended shortly after the last apparitions at Fatima. But we didn't fully respond to Mary's instructions at Fatima: praying the Rosary daily; repenting of sin and turning to God; fasting and offering other sacrifices in reparation for sin and for the conversion of poor sinners. And wars continue.

Can you sacrifice 20 extra minutes by coming early before the Saturday vigil or Sunday Mass, in order to pray with fellow parishioners for peace in Israel, Ukraine, and in the whole world? Could you lead the Rosary, so that we don't miss having the Rosary before each weekend Mass? We especially need leaders before 10:30 am Mass. Please sign up at the main entrance to lead the Rosary, or contact Angie Esker at 217-259-2495.
