From the Pastor

Our parishioners extend our condolences and sympathies to the members of the family of Leroy Thoele, whose funeral was this past Friday. Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord.

A good number of our parishioners are involved with the area of sports and athletics. And this is a large part of our history. Last week we celebrated 100 years of basketball in our community! We congratulate the men and women, who have represented our community in the gym or on the ball diamond, or on the soccer field or on the tennis court or on the track – even in the pond fishing! Some might feel they take a “back seat” to basketball because it has many more followers than some sports, but it’s a part of being a Wooden Shoe. All sports are Wooden Shoes, but basketball does get more attention. Wooden Shoe basketball, men and women, has records our community is rightfully proud of – the tradition continues today. It all started in 1924, and it is a name for our athletes to live up to.

Our Right to Life Breakfast is today. This also has a long tradition in our community. Like the January March to Washington D.C., this breakfast has continued on both beautiful sunny days with mild temperatures and also bitterly cold wintry days...like today! We can’t find a better cause to support than this: the Right to Life!

Your parish Liturgy Committee met Monday evening, and we looked downrange for Lent and Easter. Something that continues to emerge is the need for more people to participate in the various roles for liturgy. What we have is good, but some are getting tired. They have been serving the Lord and the parish for decades and rightfully feel that it is time for others to step up to the plate. We need more ministers of the Eucharist, more readers, additional members in the choir, to name a few. Having a Sign up Sunday in the St. Clare Hall was discussed, but some felt it wasn’t very successful when we tried it before. There will be training for the various roles of service.

God Bless Those Serving Our Country.

Anthony Vahling, Cody Bushue,
Shawn Zerrusen, Ali Kingery, Andrew Simmons,
Jesse Koester, Justis Coventry, Braydan Bushue,
Mallory Stone, Paul Schumacher, Damon Sabo.

Collection for the Church in Latin America
January 27/28

The collection helps the poorest dioceses obtain basic necessities that they otherwise would be unable to afford. Catholics who generously contribute help Guantanamo-Baracoa’s priest stay on the road with funds given to the diocese to offset fuel and vehicle repair costs. In places such as Cuba, you help bring the Good News to the poor when you participate in the collection.
