From the Pastor

Our parishioners express our condolences to the family of Kent Weber, whose funeral was last Saturday. Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord.

Memorial Day Mass will be in the cemetery at 9:00 a.m. Monday. If the weather is inclement, then we will celebrate the Eucharist in church.

Last Saturday on May 25, Bishop Paprocki ordained 5 men to the priesthood. One of the men is from our neighboring parish, St. Isidore. His name is Troy Niemerg, and his parents are Duane and Annette. Instead of going to a parish in the diocese, the newly ordained priest will be heading back to Rome for an additional year of study. We congratulate him and his classmates and wish them God’s blessings as they serve the Lord.

Next Sunday, June 2nd, is the feast of Corpus Christi. We will have a procession with benedictions after the 10:30 Mass.

On the same day I will leave for retreat with priests from the diocese. The parish is in good hands with Fr. Dennis and Fr. Dat. I appreciate your prayers for a good retreat for us. I’ll return on Friday, June 7th the anniversary of my ordination.

God Bless Those Serving Our Country.
