From the Pastor

This Thursday we are having our Anointing Mass at 12:10. If you wish to be anointed, please sit in the front half of the church, and please sit in every other pew. By sitting in alternate pews, you provide space for the priest to move through church and minister the sacrament to those desiring to receive it. There will be lunch following Mass.

They did it again! Our Environment and Art Committee is very gifted, to say the least. They don't know what the Lord will provide (through the parishioners) until the harvest arrives, and then their creative juices go to work. Each year it is amazing! We are so grateful to them, and we appreciate the impact they have on our community and our church. Thank you!

Our annual Diocesan Collection for Justice and Hope (DCJH) will be taken the weekend of November 23-24. This collection gives Catholics an opportunity to reach out in solidarity to those who suffer and lack basic human necessities. All funds donated during the DCJH collection are granted to organizations that give realistic hope to the poor to break out of the cycle of poverty. Please give generously to this effort.

God Bless Those Serving Our Country.
 Anthony Vahling, Shawn Zerrusen, Ali Kingery,
 Andrew Simmons, Jesse Koester, Justis Coventry,
 Braydan Bushue, Mallory Stone, Damon Sabo,
 Myles Stortzum, Gavin Tegeler, Avry Kreke.

BOOK OF ETERNAL LIFE

St. Francis parish began the practice years ago of having a "Book of Life" placed by the Blessed Virgin Mary's altar in church for parishioners to write the names of loved ones who have been called from this life. Writing the name of your departed loved one(s) in the book of life is an expression of faith that you believe your loved one is among the number of saints marching into heaven.

Share the Christmas Spirit with those around you!

The St. Francis Giving Tree

project begins on Thanksgiving! Join your parish family in this season of giving by sponsoring a gift from the Giving Tree!

How does it work?

Area nursing homes and group homes are gathering their residents' wish lists. We'll take those lists and make tags for each person. On Thanksgiving, the Giving Trees will be set out at the entrances of church. Take a tag, purchase one (or more) items on it, wrap it, bring it back to the Mary altar at St. Francis by December 15. It's that easy! Want to spread the joy even a little further? Come to St. Francis on December 16 at 9 am & help sort & deliver gifts to the locations! The recipients are always so appreciative, and it truly brightens their Christmas! St. Francis parish has been hosting the Giving Tree for over 25 years! THANK YOU for your continued generosity & for spreading Christ's love to others!

THE FRANCISCAN STORE

'Tis the Season to find an abundance of beautiful gifts for everyone on your list at The Franciscan Store. Pick up a flyer at the entrances of Church to help with your holiday shopping!

“You may be flawed, anxious and sometimes irritated, but remember that your life is the biggest business in the world.”

Only you can stop them from declining.

Those who appreciate, admire and love you are many, and you don't know it but there are people you're special to.

I want you to remember that happiness is not having a sky without storms, walking without accidents, working without fatigue, personal relationships without disappointments. Being happy is finding strength in forgiveness, hope in battles, confidence in fear, love in discord.

Being happy does not only mean valuing the smile, but also reflecting on the sadness.

It's not just about commemorating success but learning the lessons of failure.

It's not just joy with applause, but joy in anonymity.

Being happy is recognizing that life is worth living despite all the challenges, sadness, misunderstandings and moments of emotional and economic crisis.

Being happy is not a destiny, but a conquest for those who know how to travel in their own being.

Being happy is to stop being a victim of problems and become an actor of your own story.

It's like walking through deserts outside of yourself, but managing to find an oasis deep in your soul.

It's to thank God every morning for the miracle of life.

Being happy is not being afraid of your feelings.

It's all about talking about yourself.

Have the courage to hear a "no" even from those you love. It is about having the confidence to receive criticism, even if it is unfair.

It's hugging children, cuddling parents, having poetic moments with friends, even if they hurt us.

To be happy means to let live the free, happy and simple creature that lives in each of us.

Being matured means saying "I was wrong".

Have the courage to say "forgive me."

It's having a sensitivity to say "I need you".

Is having the ability to say I love you.

May your life become a garden of opportunities for happiness.

May you be a lover of joy in your fountains.

May you be a friend of wisdom and peace through your winters. And when you make a mistake along the way, you start again. Well you will be more passionate about life.

And you'll find that being happy doesn't mean having a perfect life.

But she uses tears to tolerate water. Use losses to sharpen your patience. Use the Fallas to sculpt serenity.

Use pleasure to drive away pain.

Use obstacles to open windows of intelligence.

Don't ever give up... Never give up on the people you love.

Never give up on happiness, because life is a show not to be missed! "

Pope Francis calls everyone, regardless of where they are, faith or religion, to a moment of collection, meditation or prayer for peace. The whole planet joins in praying for PEACE
