From the Pastor

Our Vacation Bible School is over, and so is the month of June! Incredible, how fast time flies. Thank you to the people contributing to the success of the Vacation Bible School. No doubt the children had a good time.

On Saturday, July 5th, at the 4:30 Mass we had our send off Mass for our Catholic Heart Work Camp people. Some of our youth and some of our chaperones make this trip every summer. It is a time of renewal for them. They re-charge their giving hearts and meet new people to work with and to bring joy to people they have never met. Our parish has a proud and long history of people, who have participated in the Catholic Heart Work Camp.

This Tuesday, July 8th, from 7:00 to 8:00 p.m. our parish is hosting the Catholic Young Adult Group where there will be the opportunity for adoration and receiving the sacrament of reconciliation. At the conclusion of the hour of adoration the group of young adults will adjourn to Kenter's from 8:00 to 9:00 p.m. The age group for the young adults is 21 to 35, but if someone 18 or 19 would like to come and pray during the first hour, they are certainly welcome.

Fr. Dennis Koopman is hopefully enjoying his vacation visiting his family and friends. We expect him back on Monday, July 14th. May God give him safety in his travels.
