The Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

January 23, 2022

The Spirit of the Lord
is upon me...
He has sent me to proclaim liberty to captives
and recovery of sight
to the blind,
to let the oppressed
go free.
- Lk 4:18

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Human history reveals many periods where people lost a sense of God's transcendence. It may even be argued that human beings have been wandering and lost more than they have been at home and focused. Human nature being what it is, we struggle with who God really is — the God of our salvation history or the "gods" of human constructs. Relying on our own designs and pursuits, we forget that we really are meant to listen to One upon whom the Spirit of the Lord rests, Jesus Christ, and not to ourselves. That same history that reveals our fickleness and infidelity also reveals God's constancy and faithfulness. God always finds us.

As people wander and fumble to find their way, God is there bringing them back to holiness and giving them the assurance of His presence. We have to allow God's Word, God's life, to touch us and change us. It can make us more flexible and attentive to the sacred in all facets of life so that every day is one that is holy. Every day is a time when fulfillment is possible for one's soul. Jesus stood before those gathered in the synagogue as the fulfillment of words of promise that were echoed long ago. God doesn't forget. He always comes for us.

Now it is time to remember to go to God. Sometimes our lives are so confused and tangled that it is difficult to see the Word and hand of God. But when we realize, deep within, the depth of friendship God offers to us it really has the power to turn sadness to joy. The promise is fulfilled. Going frequently to God's Word, allowing ourselves to be enriched and rejuvenated, and pondering the certainty of God's fidelity and promise permanently transforms us. We will be more aware of the sacred and the holy and less invested in things that pull us away.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Recognize God in Your Everyday Moments

Plant Your Works in the Word

One of the things about Scripture is that even the smallest word and shortest phrase can be critical to the overall message. When you take a quiet moment to rest with the Word, you find how quickly the most mundane sentence can reach out and grab you, pulling you into a deeper contemplation of some truth you hadn't even considered until then.

But we often fail to act as the Israelites in the Book of Nehemiah, standing before the Water Gate "listening attentively." Whether it's at Mass during the Liturgy of the Word or at home poring over the Bible, time after time we find ourselves less mindful than we could be. Our ears accept the sounds of the words and our eyes glance over the shape of the letters.

But are we mindful — truly?

The best answer is hopefully at least sometimes. There are always tasks to be completed, problems weighing on our minds that we can't quite give over to God. We lose ourselves in these things instead of in Scripture. We "clock in" with Bible reading instead of "diving in."

We can never forget that the words of the Lord are spirit and life. They are the soil that quickens the seed of all stewardship. There is no mindfulness, no prayer, no graciousness, no gratitude or accountability or sense of commitment unless there is the Word.

So let us pray today for mindfulness, that our every action will be grounded in the law of God — giving it true spirit and life.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

We gather together today to worship the Lord, as faithful people have done throughout history. Two noteworthy examples are described in our readings. When Ezra the priest read the Torah in the streets of Jerusalem after the Jewish people had returned from Exile, it brought people to tears. When Jesus read from the Prophet Isaiah in his hometown synagogue, he revealed that he himself was the fulfillment of that passage. As we worship today on this ordinary day in Ordinary Time, let us consider the blessing of being able to listen to the word of God and to partake in this Eucharistic feast.

Pastoral Ponderings Winter 2021—2022

Give Us This Day is a monthly prayer book for today's Catholic by Liturgical Press. Current issues are available in the back of Church. If you are interested in receiving a year's subscription to Give Us This Day, you can:

1. Fill out the subscription form in the front of the book and send it to Give Us This Day. A year's subscription will be $44.95, and each copy will be sent to your home. OR

2. Sign up on the sign-up sheet in the back of Church or call Katie Stafford at the parish 262-675-6256. A year's subscription will be $31.50, please make your check payable to Holy Trinity and write Give Us This Day in the memo. This will be a bulk order with all copies shipped to Holy Trinity. Your name will be placed on your copy and can be picked up in the back of Church. Please sign up for your yearly subscription by January 30.

Holy Trinity Christian Women will hold their next meeting on Monday, February 7 at 6:30 PM in the school dining room.

The agenda will include discussion of the chili dinner, membership and upcoming events. Christian Women is open to all women of the parish with a special invitation to new parishioners. This is a wonderful way to get to know other women of the parish!

If you have any questions please call Carol Altschwager at 262-483-1129

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

In what ways am I poor, oppressed or held captive? How does the Lord's promise speak to me? How can I bring glad tidings to those who are poor and oppressed?

Saint of the Week

One of the most famous members of the Dominican Order, St. Thomas Aquinas (1225-1274) is well-known by many for his theological work, "The Summa Theologiae." Born in Italy, his mother wanted him to become a Benedictine and had high hopes that he would eventually become abbot of Monte Cassino, where he spent much of his youth. To change his vocation, she had him kidnapped by his brothers on his way to Paris at the age of 19. He spent two years in their captivity. Despite this, nothing could shake him from his vocation to become a Dominican priest and he was eventually released. Once free, he went to Paris and then to Cologne, where he finished his studies with Albert the Great.

His greatest contribution to the Catholic church is his writings. The unity, harmony, and continuity of faith and reason, of revealed and natural human knowledge, encompasses his writings. The Summa Theologiae, his last and, unfortunately, uncompleted work, deals with the whole of Catholic theology.

The patron saint of teachers, theologians and students, St. Thomas Aquinas died in 1274. His life and the impact he had on the whole Church, however, remains alive today.

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the Week

People can easily lose a sense of the sacred and transcendent. When we lose a sense of God's special presence, we need to be brought back. Ezra brought people back to the word of God and they realized what they were missing. Jesus proclaims God's word in the synagogue with true conviction and tells those gathered that he is the fulfillment of all that Isaiah taught. Even though people get lost, distracted, discouraged, and often journey down the wrong path, God's timeless law remains. When we allow ourselves to truly hear God's word and act on it, that living word slowly, over time, changes us. It has the power to soften and mold us, creating within us a joyful spirit. We realize the truth in what God speaks and become open to God's love. Gradually and gently God leads us back where we belong. We discover again the sacred character of life and the wonder of God's power. It is no wonder that Luke addresses his remarks to Theophilus. It is a name that means "beloved of God," a name that can be used by anyone who desires a friendship with God.

In Grateful Appreciation!

A heartfelt thank you to our parishioners and guests who so faithfully and generously support our parish and its ministries—both financially and prayerfully—throughout the year. Your prayers and generosity, as was that of those who came before us, has kept our parish strong for over 162 years!

We are truly a blessed parish by the faith and dedication of our parish family and guests. May we continue to worship our Lord and serve those in need in the years to come!

2021 financial statements were mailed out this week. If you have any questions about your statement please call the Parish Office.

FEELING UNDER THE WEATHER?

The cold and flu season, along with Covid, is here. If you are feeling unwell or showing any signs of sickness, please stay home for your own health as well as for the safety of others.

Archbishop Listecki's recent Covid update states: "I'd like to encourage people to exercise personal responsibility. Those who feel sick, or who are especially at risk of health complications, should stay home and watch Sunday worship on the many Masses broadcast on TV and live-streamed on social media until they feel comfortable returning to in-person Mass. In those situations, or for those taking care of someone who is sick, Sunday Mass attendance is excused."

Sunday Mass is offered at 7 & 9:00 AM on WVTM Channel 24.
