Gospel Meditation ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

It’s often said that the Catholic Church lays heavy rules on her members, rules that can almost seem impossible. Mass every Sunday? No lying ever? Sexual purity all the time? I recently said to some non-Catholic friends that more than fifty adults were baptized at my parish at the Easter Vigil. One responded spontaneously with shock, “Why would anyone do that?” In other words, why would themselves in a system with such

Of course, no one in the history of rigorous than Jesus himself. In the have to be holier than pharisees or someone a fool, you go to fiery look at a woman with lust or was punishable by death). To top it divorced and re-married. Doesn’t impossible demands? What world

The new one, actually. He is the meant to condemn. They are meant to signal something new, a restored humanity. Jesus doesn’t just give external laws; he gives us his Holy Spirit to internalize the law through love. He wants to fill us with his love. That’s what the Church exists to do. Love demands extraordinary things. The “demands” of the Church only make sense because she is filled with Jesus’ love. That wildly demanding love is why we are Catholic.

someone willingly place demanding and rigorous rules?

religions is more demanding and Sermon on the Mount, he says you you’re out. He says if you call Gehenna. He says you can’t even you’re guilty of adultery (which all off, he says you can’t even get he know these are basically is he living in?

new world. Jesus’ words aren’t

Our Lenten Bible Study EUCHARIST

Join us for a Threshold Bible Study, Eucharist written by Stephen Binz and facilitated by Terri Schiller. This study invites us to explore the biblical springs of the Eucharist. Through this exploration, you will enrich your understanding of this sacrament and deepen your appreciation of the gift it is. Through texts from the Old Testament, the gospels, and New Testament letters, you will discover that the Eucharist unites the prayers, works, joys, and sufferings of our lives as an offering in union with Christ.

The Bible Study will be offered: Tuesday afternoons, 2:00-3:30 PM OR Tuesday evenings, 6:30-8:00 PM February 21, 28, March 7, 14, 21, 28, OR Wednesday mornings, 9:00 – 10:30 AM February 22, March 1, 8, 15, 22, 29 and meet in the Parish Office. To register, please sign up on the sheet in the back of Church or call Katie at 262-675-6256. Choose the day or time that works best for you.

This Bible study is open to everyone, those who have never been to a study and those who are more experienced. We will all learn together. Books will be distributed at the first class.

Vestment Colors

What do the Colors of the Priest's and Deacon Vestments Mean?

In the Roman Rite of the Catholic Church, the colors of the vestments evolved over the course of several centuries and there was wide variation both in the colors used, and in the feasts and seasons associated with particular colors. It was Pope Innocent III (d. 1216) who gave us the basic outline that was later prescribed by Pope Saint Pius V in 1570. The various colors remind us of the dominant themes of a particular season or celebration.

White: Used for the seasons of Christmas and Easter and in celebrations of the Lord, of Mary, the angels, and saints who were not martyrs. This color is also used in Masses for the dead, at baptisms, weddings and other festive celebrations.

Red: As the color of both blood and fire, red is used on Palm Sunday and Good Friday, as well as Pentecost and special celebrations of the Holy Spirit. Moreover, red is used on the feasts and memorials of the Apostles and those saints who died as martyrs.

Violet: The color for Advent and Lent. Violet may also be used in Masses for the dead and on All Souls Day (November 2).

Green: A color of life and hope, green is used throughout Ordinary Time.

Other colors: Rose may be used on the Third Sunday of Advent and the Fourth Sunday of Lent, black may be used in Masses of the dead and on All Souls Day, gold or silver may be used on solemn occasions in place of white, red, or green.
