UNITY AWARD WINNER

Every year, in conjunction with what is now our Unity Event, we honor an individual or organization who has exemplified the spirit of bringing people together and making the Gospel present, as St. Josaphat gave his life in this effort. We honor them with the St. Josaphat Unity Award, which includes a $10,000 cash prize. Recipients of the Unity Award must be within the Chicagoland area, be either a Catholic or Catholic-related undertaking, and usually serve some under-served members of the community. We are pleased to announce that the recipient of this year's Unity Award is the Little Heroes League.

Inspired by the journey of their granddaughter Livi, Kim and Will Ulaszek founded Little Heroes League to enable infants born with multiple health challenges to thrive and live their best lives. Undergoing serious medical treatment in the first year of life is difficult enough for critically ill babies and their parents. Learning to navigate complex insurance systems, then arranging surgeries, doctor visits, therapies and more can be overwhelming.

The Little Heroes League provides early-life coordinated care for babies born with medically complex special needs. Dedicated nurses and social workers serve as the point person to organize care for each child and to help their families. Acting as an advocate for each baby, they coordinate multiple pediatric specialists and procedures and anticipate what each child needs. They are also adept at navigating the health care system, which can be a daunting task for parents of children with complex health needs. They are the central contact and source of comfort for these families, whom they will also support by identifying social service and health care agencies closer to home, and conducting home visits. The end result is the safest and most effective treatment for these children, maximizing their time at home.

The early months in life are when pain reduction can hold tremendous advantages for a baby's rapidly growing brain, and when proper interventions such as restoring hearing or vision can impact social, emotional and language development that lasts for a lifetime. Little Heroes League is committed to capturing these opportunities by providing highly coordinated care for these babies.

You can read more about this worthwhile charity at <https://www.littleheroesleague.org/> Please join us in celebrating the Little Heroes League!

God Bless,

Fr. Francis

SCRIPTURE REFLECTION

1ST: Ez 37:12–14 2ND: Rom 8:8–11 GOSPEL: Jn 11:1–45

“Thus says the Lord GOD: O my people, I will open your graves and have you rise from them.” This reading from the Prophet Ezekiel, and the resurrection of Lazarus in St. John’s Gospel, certainly express the great and abiding sense of hope that we ought to be experiencing as we enter the final two weeks of Lent. Indeed, Christ’s rhetorical question to Martha, Lazarus’s sister, may as well be directed to us: “Did I not tell you that if you believe you will see the glory of God?” These readings express the extraordinary fact that our Christian inheritance and vocation, gained through Baptism, is eternal life in Christ and that, unless we let it, death and evil do not have the final word.

The word “Lent” is derived from the Old English word for “Springtime.” Indeed, our readings for the “Scrutinies”—the final preparations for those who will enter into the Church at Easter Vigil occurring on the 3rd, 4th and 5th Sundays of Lent—bespeak the spiritual springtime that God wants us to undergo through these final days of Lent. Just like forests often undergo cleansing fires so that new life might spring forth from them so, too, is Lent about decreasing ourselves so that Christ, life himself, might more fully take root in our souls. Indeed, St. Paul writes in his letter to the Romans “But if Christ is in you, although the body is dead because of sin, the spirit is alive because of righteousness. If the Spirit of the one who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, the one who raised Christ from the dead will give life to your mortal bodies also, through his Spirit dwelling in you.” As our Lenten fastings, prayer, almsgiving and other penances soon draw to an end, it ought to become clear to us that our own self-denial makes room for the eternal lifegiving love of Christ in our hearts. After all, Lent is about dying unto ourselves so that we can prepare ourselves for the eternal life that Christ wishes to give to us.

The readings are quite clear, then, that our eternal, supernatural hope comes not from ourselves or, indeed, any worldly thing but, rather, from the Divine One who raised Lazarus from the dead. This is the same Divine One whose passion, death and resurrection we will explicitly observe starting in just another week, the same Divine One whose light dispels all darkness and the same Divine One who wants us to share in his divine life here and now. May Our Sorrowful Mother help us to seize these final two weeks of Lent so that we might enter into Christ’s passion, death and resurrection, truly dying unto ourselves so that Christ might live in us and we might live in him for eternity. Let’s make our souls a lovely and saintly dwelling place for Christ, our crucified and risen savior!

— Deacon Nathaniel Resila, 4th Year Theologian

Editor’s note: This reflection is on the readings from the the 3rd Scrutiny with the RCIA elect. You may hear different readings at the weekend Masses for the 5th Sunday of Lent.

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS

At the Easter Vigil, we will welcome two new members to our Church! We'd like to introduce you...

Amanda Zale

will be fully initiated into the Catholic Faith through the reception of Eucharist and Confirmation.

My name is Amanda and I live here in the city with my husband and two sons (ages 5 and 18 months). I work as a therapist at a private practice. I was baptized and raised Lutheran. I decided to join RCIA after committing to raising my kids in the Catholic Church. I chose St. Josaphat because my sons were baptized here and my older son attends SJS. I look most forward to receiving the sacraments I've learned about over the past six months, opportunities to be of service to others and continuing to grow in my faith. It has been a bright spot in my year to be a part of this RCIA group.

Courtney Shields

will be Baptized into the Catholic Faith and will receive Eucharist and Confirmation.

I'm Courtney, and I live in Barrington with my husband Bobby, our 4 month old daughter Kennedy and our dog Kinzie. I work in product development creating private label beauty and personal care products. In my free time, I enjoy spending time with family and friends. I decided to join RCIA after my daughter was born, so I would be better able to guide her through understanding her Catholic faith. My husband and daughter were both baptized at St. Josaphat Church, and my husband's grandparents were active members of the parish until their passing a few years ago. As a result of going through RCIA, I hope to gain a better understanding of the beliefs of the Catholic Church, as well as deepen my relationship with God. I am looking forward to becoming a part of the Catholic community.
