The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Jesus went to those most in need. He forgave the sinner, ate with the outcast, defended, and fed those who were poor and hungry. He worked for true justice, risked being unpopular, willingly accepted suffering and death, and always stayed connected with his Abba, Father. Jesus also consistently reminded folks that God's compassion, love, and mercy trump everything, even the law. This is the Christ that the Eucharist calls us to be. As we look around our churches, our towns and cities, and our world, there are many people who need to see the face and body of Christ. Some of those most in need may be right within our families. But it is always in the poorest of the poor and those most vulnerable that we find the greatest need. There are many who cannot function on their own. When the gift of the Eucharistic Christ takes root in our hearts, we can more readily see the face of Christ in others.

Many people are vulnerable. Highest on that list are the homeless. They show us the face of Christ. Whatever the cause, to have no place to go and no place to call home takes a toll on the human spirit. For Jesus when there were hungry people, they were fed. God asks us to do the same ... feed people. There are many who are hungry physically, emotionally, and spiritually. Gifted by the Eucharistic presence of Christ, we can bring them Christ. Who are the hungry around us and how can we feed them?

When someone is hurting, you comfort them. When someone is hungry, you feed them. When someone needs clothes, you provide them. When someone is cold, you warm them. When someone is in prison, you visit them. With over a million people who are homeless and over a quarter of them children, it is important to ask the question, "why?" and strategize for ways to lessen or alleviate the problem. Nevertheless, we are not off the hook for responding to the immediate needs that present themselves at our doors. Whether a person's current station in life is self-imposed or the result of being victimized, they are sacred vessels. We cannot lock the door and send them away and still believe we bear the Eucharistic presence of Christ. It doesn't work like that.

Dear Partnership FAMILY

Blessings to all as we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ! On this day, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) launches a Eucharistic Revival initiative. Over the next several years, the dioceses of the USA will recommit ourselves to our Eucharistic identity and will reaffirm our faith in the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist. As Church, we are a Eucharistic people and that means above all Celebrating and Receiving the Eucharist at Mass on the Lord's Day and its Vigil, but also being a eucharistic people in our lives each day. The word "Eucharist" is a Greek word which means "Thanksgiving." We thank God for sending us his Son, Jesus Christ; to live among us; to show us how to love and forgive; to suffer and die for us for the forgiveness of our sins; and to rise from the dead and ascend to the Father sending the Holy Spirit to be with us always. We are called to emulate this in our lives strengthened by and receiving the Holy Eucharist, the very presence of the Body and Blood of Christ, which is our heavenly food and drink on our faith journey as individuals and as Church. We also do this as we minister to one another in the Body of Christ and others in our world who are also part of our human family created by God. We find strength, guidance, and consolation in our lives through the reservation of the Blessed Sacrament and in Eucharistic Adoration, as we honor and pay homage to the Real Presence of the Lord Jesus in the Holy Eucharist.

As you are aware, this past January 1st, I was elected and began my term on the Board of Trustees for the Parliament of the World's Religions. The next worldwide gathering for the Parliament will be fourteen months from now at the McCormick Place on the shores of Lake Michigan in Chicago, August 14 to 18, 2023. There are between fifteen to twenty people from Carbondale and its interfaith community that have already signed up to attend this once in a lifetime experience where approximately 10,000 people from 80 countries and 200 religious traditions will be in attendance. The next convening will likely be in Glasgow and Edinburgh, Scotland in 2026. If you are interested in attending, the Super Saver rate of $225 ends on June 30, 2022. However, if you wish to join the Carbondale group, you need to have your $189 group rate and initial registration form which you can pick up in the parish office back to me at our parish office by Thursday, June 23, 2022. We already have several persons from Saint Francis Xavier who will be attending. So that you know, after that date, the registration fee will be $325 through October 31, 2022, $425 through March 31, 2023, and $500 until the Parliament convenes then becoming $525. Groups of 5 or more are $215 until June 30, 2022; or $189 for ten or more through June 30, 2022. You are encouraged to act now, if you are interested, so that you can receive the special super saver group rate. Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions about attending the Parliament of World's Religions.

This coming week from Monday through Friday I will be attending my American College of Louvain alumni reunion which will be held in Grand Rapids, Michigan. Please notice the Mass times for the week in the bulletin.

As we celebrate Father's Day this Sunday, we pray for all Father's, living and deceased.

God's peace,
Fr. Bob
Pastor/Chaplain

Thoughts FROM... Dawn

In terms of liturgy, I really like these post-Easter season Sundays. We get to celebrate some really cool parts of our faith. Easter wraps up with Pentecost and the gift of the Holy Spirit. Last week we celebrated the Trinity; now this week we have the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ. It all makes me wish we didn't have to wait until November to celebrate the Communion of Saints.

How, you are undoubtedly wondering, did I get from feasts that celebrate such profound theological truths of our faith to something as (apparently) mundane as the Communion of Saints? It's not as far-fetched, or as mundane, as you might think. To celebrate the Trinity is to celebrate the eternal relationship of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. God is relational. Honoring the reality of the Body and Blood of Christ recognizes the supreme gift of Jesus' continuing presence with us. Presence is a way of relating, too.

This gift of presence that Jesus left us is one that has an impact upon us. I recall reading an article by a reputable Scripture scholar in which he said the most compelling reason to believe in the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist is because it does what it says it will do. When we all receive the Body and Blood of Christ, we become the Body of Christ. (As St. Augustine so famously said, "Be what you see; receive what you are.") We are the Body of Christ! We are unified by virtue of the fact we have all received Jesus. Because Jesus is eternal, that unity is eternal.

Which brings me back to the Communion of Saints. Our theology of the Communion of Saints is undergirded by our theology of the unity we experience when we receive the Body of Christ in the Eucharist. Everyone who has received Jesus' body and blood in communion (and who didn't subsequently reject him) is part of the body of Christ. Therefore, our connection with all the people who have preceded us transcends the barriers of time and space. This unity enables us to request the intercession of the saints. Our loved ones are not entirely out of reach on the other side. No one is locked away from us behind the Pearly Gates. To perceive this connection is truly a gift of our faith.

I have come to realize that I personally feel much more connected to God and to my faith when I consider that I am part of an on-going communion of people who worship God. We are all part of a vibrant, living reality. Christ is alive with us and in us. And that is something to celebrate!

Happenings at the NEWMAN CENTER

Bible STUDY

Every Tuesday at 1:00pm Dawn holds a bible study for the community. Each week we discuss chapters in the bible and talk about ways to apply them in our every day lives. Everyone is welcome. We are zooming them and meeting in person at the Newman Center. If you are interested, please call Dawn at 618-529-3311.

Newman HOUSING

The Newman Center is accepting applications for student housing (for both men and women) at the Red House and Grey House. There are spaces available for women and Men starting in the Fall of 2022. Rent is just $320 and includes all utilities except internet service. For more information about the houses or to schedule a visit please email office@siucnewman.org.

Help Us, Help Others...

The Newman Center established the Carbon-dale Cares Emergency Fund to support individuals and families in urgent need. The fund serves as a resource of last resort to provide assistance with health, nutrition, housing, energy, water, transportation, and employment support. We provide assistance in cases where the need is immediate, obvious, important and fixable. The fund has helped many families to move into stable housing, find a job or keep their job in a crisis, or keep their lights and water on. If you would like to help, please contact Tim at 618-529-3311 or email tim@siucnewman.org.
