Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time – 03 July 2022

About Being Disciples. Jesus tells the chosen 72 where to go (ahead of him), what not to take (extra baggage), and how to behave (stay and accompany). Saint Paul carries this forward by stressing what is important for those who follow Jesus (boasting in the Cross of Christ).

What does Jesus empower me to do and say today?
How will I embrace the Cross of Christ this week?
How will this discipleship enrich the Kingdom of God?

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

The celebration of our country's independence gives us cause to reflect on the gift of freedom. We treasure the liberties our country provides, but are they the real source of freedom? True freedom is a gift given to us by God, not by the world. In fact, the world robs us of freedom by tethering us to a need for money, power, possessions, and prestige as vehicles to success and measures of self-worth. Even though we possess certain liberties, we are held captive by a system that sees no value in the Cross of Christ. It is no wonder Jesus sent his seventy-two disciples into the world with only what they were wearing. The freedom given to us by God is a matter of the heart and requires detachment from the very things we think we cannot do without. A heart secure in God's peace is something no one can take away and something really worth dying for.

Our deepest sympathy to the family and friends of Anna Mae Smith. Anna Mae, a former parishioner, had just turned 95 years of age and was residing in Jacksonville, IL. Please keep Anna Mae and her family in your prayers.

We are attempting to devise a list of those who have a key to the Church. Over the years, we have become a little lax in keeping track and some individuals may no longer need a key. Please help us out by calling the parish office if you have a key .

10 AMAZING Facts for the 4th of July

1. Benjamin Franklin wanted the turkey to be the national animal but was out-voted when John Adams and Thomas Jefferson chose the bald eagle.
2. The stars on the original American flag were arranged in a circle to ensure that all colonies were represented equally.
3. John Hancock was the only person to actually sign the Declaration of Independence on July 4, 1776. The other 55 signers did not sign it until later.
4. Thomas Jefferson and John Adams died on the day , July 4, 1826, the fiftieth anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence.
5. History's first submarine attack took place in New York Harbor in 1776.
6. There were no fireworks on July 4, 1776, but there were one year later. This was 6 years before Americans knew whether the new nation would survive the war.
7. George Washington was the best spymaster in American History! He ran espionage rings in British-held areas and he was a genius at misinformation. He constantly befuddled the British by leaking through double agents, inflated reports of the strength of his army.
8. Washington was a robust man with a seeming immunity to disease and bullets. In one encounter in the French and Indian War, he absorbed 4 bullets in his coat and hat and had 2 horses shot from under him without any injury to himself.
9. The United States of America won its independence despite the fact that the British Army was established, experienced, disciplined, and trained and the American army was not. In addition to this, the British Army had ample quantities of powder, guns, and clothing and the American Army was not well supplied.
10. The song "Yankee Doodle" was sung originally by British officers making fun of backwoods Americans.

Thoughts FROM... Terry

This week in the readings, I feel a sense of joy and energy that Jesus Christ is our lord! Sometimes when I'm on a spiritual retreat focused on growth in the faith, I think the same way. I called those moments in life "Jesus high" moments. However, just like a "high," those moments do not last forever. During my busy life throughout the week, I sometimes forget the greatness of Christ and do not share that message through my actions and words. The readings this week are there to help us even through the most difficult and far away times in our faith. To remind us that Jesus Christ loves us, and we are called to share the truth of the love of Christ with all people we meet.

In the reading from Isaiah, we see the Lord call the Israelites to celebrate because he will bring prosperity to their city of Jerusalem and all his people. We know how the lord compares his love to that of a mother and child. This passage reminds me of my mother and her care for me. When I was young, my mother would be there for me when I failed, succeeded, or learned something new. My mother did worry and still worries for me, not out of fear but out of wanting the best for me. Christ also had a great mother, Mary, who did everything. Mary was with Christ through the good times and the bad times. She was with him when he was born and with him when he died. That love that Mary has for her son and all of us is truly beautiful. That is the love we are called to share with others, just like Mary to the people who love us and those who hate us. Once we can do this, we will see the blessing in a greater detail that the Lord has for us, like in Isaiah.

In the Gospel of Luke, we hear that Jesus appointed seventy-two of his disciples to preach to every town and village, "The Kingdom of God is at hand for you." Jesus makes it clear that this journey is not easy just because many people will oppose those words they are speaking, but also because Jesus tells them to bring no money, sack, or even sandals for their feet. For us, in the 21st century, that command by Christ might seem crazy and very dangerous. During the 1st century, it also was very dangerous. Instead of thinking about all the challenges, the seventy-two went out and fulfilled their mission from the Lord. We hear when they get back the joy and love that is in their hearts for how they were able to help others. Let's go forward into the world this week and have the energy of the disciples when we go to work, the pool, or a friend's house to look out for others. There is much division in our country today and what I think we need is that calling from Christ and the energy to respond to that call. The call we get each week starts with the Eucharist a gift that is more valuable than anything else in the world we can receive. Let's take the gift of the Eucharist to all we meet and show as Catholics our actions are ones of love and care.

Happenings and Musings
Sr. Barbara Blesse

We lift up our hearts, O God, on this day of celebration in gratitude for the gift of being Americans.

We rejoice with all those who share in the great dream of freedom and dignity for all.

With flags and feasting, with family and friends we salute those who have sacrificed that we might have the opportunity to bring to fulfillment our many God-given gifts.

As we deny all prejudice a place in our hearts, may we also clearly declare our intention to work for the time when all people, regardless of race, religion, or sex, will be granted equal dignity and worth.

Come, O gracious God, who led your children Israel from slavery, keep us free from all that might hold us in bondage.

Bless our country and join our simple celebration that we may praise you, our Source of freedom, the One in whom we place our trust.

Newman HOUSING

The Newman Center is accepting applications for student housing (for both men and women) at the Red House and Grey House. There are spaces available for women and Men starting in the Fall of 2022. Rent is just $320 and includes all utilities except internet service. For more information about the houses or to schedule a visit please email office@siucnewman.org.

Help Us, Help Others...

The Newman Center established the Carbon-dale Cares Emergency Fund to support individuals and families in urgent need. The fund serves as a resource of last resort to provide assistance with health, nutrition, housing, energy, water, transportation, and employment support. We provide assistance in cases where the need is immediate, obvious, important and fixable. The fund has helped many families to move into stable housing, find a job or keep their job in a crisis, or keep their lights and water on. If you would like to help, please contact Tim at 618-529-3311 or email tim@siucnewman.org.
