From the Desk of Fr. Charlie...

Wisconsinites are well accustomed to celebrations of Festivals! Summerfest is just ending. County Fairs and Western Days, parades and community gatherings highlight all forms of reason to share our life and our pride. Naturally, with our immigrant history which is so strong in Wisconsin, the ethnic heritage and cultural celebrations take on very rich meaning and purpose that we should always remember our roots!

Church Festivals are also a rich tradition among us! The various celebrations of communities of faith to gather as homecomings and reunions, welcoming as host for new members in the neighborhood, and seeking support from the greater community, churches often have Festivals. These can vary from an afternoon "Strawberry Sunday" to a multiday party served up with food, music and beverage according to local tradition.

St. Rita's long-standing presence in the area with its generations of service, education and worship invites the neighborhood to come and enjoy our traditions as well. While this is our primary "fundraiser" it contributes to the greater support of the parish through our parishioner stewardship. We have seen some parishes drop their Festivals due to lack of support; we have modified ours to better accommodate our situation. Old favorites are kept from year to year while some new interests are being presented this year. Taste of the festival goes on to change and attempt to serve all interests. The bands which perform for our entertainment also are chosen for their talent and their ability to attract their following. There is much to enjoy at a family style festival.

All parishioners are asked to do their part in support of those who work so diligently and faithfully to make this happen. Seniors - there are opportunities for you to consider. New Members - what a wonderful way to meet more folks from the parish! Teens and young adults - don't be shy . . . your presence and aid is a sign of life in the parish! The Scouts are also an integral part of parish life. Our Scout Troop is present during festival and after hours to do what is necessary for the next day.

Come and enjoy
St. Rita Festival 2019!
