From the Desk of Fr. Andrzej

Dear Friends,

We enjoy Summer now in Wisconsin. It is a time for vacation and family gatherings, weekend trips up North. We all enjoy the beauty of creation and have more time for rest and prayer.

In today's Gospel, Jesus invites us "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while."

Jesus is our Good Shepherd and he always knows what is good for us.

He leads us to living waters.

The Lord is my Shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

He takes care for all our needs. He truly loves us and wants us to be holy, happy and healthy.

I strongly encourage you to take some rest, take your family for vacation, take time for retreat even one day retreat or a half day or mini retreat.

We all need to calm down and spend some time in classroom of silence, to catch our thoughts and meet our Shepherd and hear his voice and feel his love.

My sheep hear my voice, says the Lord; I know them, and they follow me.

Jesus feeds our bodies and our souls.

I hope and pray that we all will be able to find more time for short retreats even in our homes and our decks, reading Holy Scriptures with morning coffee or praying rosary when we walk along the lake, not saying anything but giving God glory for the beauty of creation, coming for daily Mass or spending 15 minutes for Eucharistic Adoration before or after Mass.

With joy I would like to invite you for one more daily Mass on each Thursday at noon.

"Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while."

God bless,

Fr. Andrzej

Can You Believe???

I am quietly minding my own business, reading the Sunday paper, and what do I see? No, I saw an ad for a sale on school supplies! Already? Seriously?

I guess since the subject came up, now would be a good time for me to let you know that "Fill the Backpack!" is back!!! That's right. Pathfinders school, for at risk youth, is again asking for our help to supply their students supplies. We will begin collecting supplies August 7th / 8th. So, please watch the sales, stock up now. Our goal is to fill 70 backpacks . . . I know we can do it!

Each backpack would include:

- ✓ Backpack (adult),
- ✓ 2 loose leaf binders (1 ½ or 2"),
- ✓ pack of loose leaf paper,
- ✓ 3 spiral notebooks,
- ✓ pack of pencils,
- ✓ pack of pens,
- ✓ eraser,
- ✓ 3 folders, and a
- ✓ 16GB flash drive.

Anyone get a special discount? Anyone work at an office supply store?

Doesn't it feel good to get back to doing what we do so well . . . helping others!

Life After COVID (hopefully)

The Archdiocese has removed the mask mandate, however here at St. Rita, we are still asking Eucharistic Ministers to continue wearing a mask when distributing the Eucharist. However, you still have the option to wear a mask if that makes you more comfortable.

Soon you will see the "X's" on the floor disappear. However, we would still ask that you respect social distancing.

Soon we will be able to PARTY again! The Parish Life Committee has some fun events planned for the year: our annual tailgate, a Fall Fest, Cabin Fever Reliever, of course Mardi Gras and something new this year . . . Parish Feast Day Celebration. We will also be bringing back our New Member Branches / Dinners.

Stay tuned . . .

Blessings always,

Barbara
