THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD
JANUARY 2, 2022

WELCOME TO THE PARISH OF ST. BERNARD!

Dear Friends,

Many blessings to you as we begin this new calendar of grace. What will 2022 hold for each of us? Whatever may come, we know that belong to the Lord and He will continue to care for us and show us the way. During the first few weeks of the new year, we oftentimes make resolutions that we intend to carry out and make a part of our daily living. Sometimes, we might be a bit too lofty in our expectations, and our resolutions fall by the wayside not too long after they're made! Could I ask you, friends, to reflect upon the four holy habits that I spoke of at the Masses of Christmas and resolve to work them in to your daily life. They are : (1) To reclaim Sunday as the Lord's Day. Try to refrain from work and tasks that could be done on other days. Make Sunday a day which is dedicated to the Lord and the bonds of family. (2) To come to confession at least once per month. The discipline of going to confession allows us to keep our sinfulness before us and it decreased the risk that we fall into a life in which sin isn't acknowledged. What a beautiful grace it is from our Lord to receive absolution, to be embraced by Him and to know that we have been restored to the life of grace: with our God, with the Church and with the Body of Christ. (3) Pray for at least 15 minutes every day. Prayer takes on many different forms, and perhaps you have a series of prayers that you enjoy every morning or evening. Whether it is a formal type of prayer, just sitting before the Lord or both, prayer is what strengthens us in the spiritual life. If we are people of prayer, our hearts are opened to know the Lord more intimately, and we grow in our faith and trust of Jesus in our lives. (4) Offer occasional acts of penance. Perhaps you might know someone who is struggling in health or there has been a calamity in the world that has touched your heart. When you offer an act of penance for situations like these, you yourself are spiritually close to the suffering, and what you yourself sacrifice is used by God to bring His loving mercy to those in need.

These four simple habits would make a wonderful resolution for the New Year. We'll be talking much more about these holy habits throughout the coming year and provide opportunities to come together and embrace these habits as a parish family.

I'm going to be away from the parish from January 9th – January 21st. Please know of my prayers for you during my time away. May the Lord bless us and grant us every choicest blessing as we begin the New Year. We ask Mary for her prayers to help us know the great love of her Son and to grow from that love which is poured into our hearts in every Eucharist we celebrate!

With love,
Fr. Michael
