3RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He walked along a little farther and saw James, the son of Zebedee, and his brother John. They too were in a boat mending their nets. Then he called them. So they left their father Zebedee in the boat along with the hired men and followed him. - Mk 1:19-20

A Warm Welcome

We are glad that you are here to worship with us today.
We are grateful to our parishioners who come faithfully and we welcome our neighbors and guest that visit us.
If you are interested in becoming a member of St. Ann please call the parish office.

Pastors Pen:

I finished signing the contribution statements from both parishes, and I am truly edified! Not only are you very generous, but you have been faithfully generous through the lock-down and current 50% church occupancy. Your faithfulness has allowed our parishes to continue without pause. YOU are the reason we are the wonderful parish-family that we are!!!

Due to the pandemic, many of us are purchasing on line. If you are purchasing through Amazon, I ask you to check-out "Amazon Smile" - it's the SAME Amazon you are familiar with, but with 'Amazon Smile', Amazon donates 0.5% of your purchase to either St. Ann or St. Gertrude. Just go to www.amazonsmile.com, and you'll get a screen that says:

Experience feel-good shopping

Shop at smile.amazon.com and we'll donate to your favorite charitable organization, at no cost to you.

Get started

Same products, same prices, same service.

Amazon donates 0.5% of the price of eligible purchase

Click on "Get started" and look for the parish you wish to donate.

Also due to the pandemic, there will be some changes in future liturgical celebrations:

- For the Blessing of Throats (St. Blase—Feb. 3 & weekend of Feb. 6/7), we will NOT use candles, but Fr. Bernie and I will simply give the blessing from the sanctuary. These changes minimize the necessity of physical contact between the minister and recipient and remove the need for the minister to speak while in close proximity to the recipient.
- For Ash Wednesday, we will NOT be making the sign of the cross with ashes on your forehead. Instead, Fr. Bernie and I will simply sprinkle ashes on the top of your head. More information will be coming from the Archdiocese in the weeks ahead, as there will be other changes for Holy Week (receiving palm on Palm Sunday; washing of feet on Holy Thursday; veneration of Cross on Good Friday, etc.).

On a positive note, I am scheduled to get my first vaccine shot this week! (Priests are "1B" in the vaccine roll-out schedule.) I hope you'll get the vaccine when your opportunity arises.

Fr. Carl

Good Saint Ann, free my heart of pride, vanity, and self-love. Help me to know myself as I really am, and to learn meekness and simplicity of heart.

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

January 24, 2021

3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

It was a normal day by all accounts, but John just wasn't feeling himself. He was a little lightheaded and out of sorts. Later in the afternoon, he experienced a sharp pain in his chest and arm. Quick thinking and action brought John to the emergency department with a diagnosis of a significant heart attack. Surviving this ordeal, he found himself face to face with his cardiologist, having an honest conversation about things that needed to change. "I came close to death," John found himself thinking. Then came the remorse. He was a young man with a loving wife and children who were very close to facing life without him. John found himself with intense sorrow for living an unchecked and self-indulgent life that almost brought him to his demise. He wanted to change.

We all have our wake-up calls. We have experiences and encounters that force us to really think twice about choices we have made and directions we have taken. Often, we find ourselves looking at those we have hurt square in the eye and wallowing in our foolishness. We regrettably realize that we have allowed our needs to lure us into making some cruel mistakes. We impulsively say things and flippantly do things that reveal our unredeemed and unhealed self. It is a self we stumble over and try to tame but can't quite seem to master and control. Help!

We spin our wheels, naively thinking that we will somehow, perhaps through persistence, get ourselves unstuck. But, we don't. We just get out of the car, feeling very helpless, and ignorantly look at the mess we got ourselves into. Did we ever think to ask someone for help? Or, taken the advice of One who is wiser and avoid this route altogether? "Come after me," are words that Jesus says to all of us.

In order to heed his invitation, we must leave our ego-self behind and follow.

When we really see and understand the freedom, peace, justice, and love he offers, we find ourselves with such sorrow in our hearts for how foolish and silly we have been. All the misguided choices and sinful actions come full view and we see how risky our random impassioned behaviors really have been. Repentance is beautiful. When done with a sincere and contrite heart, it directs us to the glory that can be ours, ignites us with the challenge of living a life in service of others and reminds us that all is well.

January 24, 2021
3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Follow me and I will make you fishers of men.” - Mark 1:17
 Jesus’ call to “Follow me” is a call to all Christians! The call is in the here and now, in our present circumstances, not when we think we are “ready” or have everything in order. Good stewardship of our God-given gifts means that things aren’t always going to go according to our schedule and that God has a much better plan in store for each of us.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP -
RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS
Give Until It Hurts

One of the characteristics of Everyday Stewardship is to be committed — to persevere daily in a way of life acknowledging that everything belongs to God.

I know, I know. Easier said than done.

Just ask Zebedee. It’s quite an image we get from the Gospel, after all. “So they left their father Zebedee in the boat along with the hired men and followed him.”

There was Zebedee, about his business, mending nets with his two sons, who were undoubtedly his best workers — they had to have been more dedicated than the hired men, who worked for wages rather than for family. And in an instant off they go, following this strange man.

I don’t know about you, but if my kids left me on a hot summer day to finish the lawn by myself, I wouldn’t be too happy.

But Zebedee must have been someone quite special. Perhaps he realized that his sons didn’t belong to him — not really. They belonged to God, and from the beginning of time, it had been appointed that they would be among the first disciples of Christ. He passed, he called, they followed, and Zebedee obliged. He simply went back to mending his nets, I imagine.

Zebedee already understood what St. Teresa of Calcutta would say millennia later: “Give until it hurts.”

“You’re wasting my time.” “I’ve done so much for her; she owes me this.” How often do we think things, and even people and relationships, belong to us? The truth is none of them do. We must be ready, as Zebedee was, to surrender them to God when He comes walking past.
