A Warm Welcome

We are glad that you are here to worship with us today.
We are grateful to our parishioners who come faithfully and we welcome our neighbors and guest that visit us.

If you are interested in becoming a member of St. Ann please call the parish office.

We are so blessed to have many generous people sharing their gifts and talents for the benefit of our parishes. As a token of my gratitude, there will be an Appreciation Brunch for both parishes at 11:30am, Sunday January 30th, in St. Gertrude's Parish Center. This is for all who volunteer: lectors, ushers, choirs, Eucharist Ministers, Committee and Club members, etc., etc.,. To make this event even more special, Mr. Dave Baranowski from the Archdiocesan Stewardship Office will briefly speak, sharing his gratitude on behalf of the Archbishop and his insights for further growth. Call the parish office (St. Ann or St. Gertrude) to make your reservation. There is NO CHARGE, but we will need a count by Sunday, January 23rd for the caterer. Again, thank you for all you do; you make our parishes wonderfully vibrant and Spirit-filled!!!

People's Column

Special Thank you!

I want to say "thank you" to the Knights of Columbus members for providing such great spiritual books to our parish. First of all it is exciting to see the next book available each year and I can say that each of the Matthew Kelly books have been some of the best books that I have ever read. Not only do I personally enjoy reading the books, but I am also able to use the book's message as words of inspiration to others who may be going through a difficult time in their life. In addition, each year after I read the book, I am able to identify a person (outside of our parish) who also may benefit from the book's message. Therefore, I share the book with others and every time that I've shared one of these books, that person has called me to let me know how much the book inspired them. I'm writing this message of thanks for your generosity and to let you know that your good will is going beyond our parish. Again, thank you!

2nd Sunday of Ordinary Time

“To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit.” (1 CORINTHIANS 12:7)

St. Paul tells us that God has blessed each of us for a reason. How has God blessed you? Are you using your gifts according to God’s plan? How are you helping to build God’s kingdom here on earth? Remember that if you don’t do the work God planned for you, no one else can do it. Live the life God has intended for you. Take time to discern your charisms (gifts from the Holy Spirit). Experience the supernatural Peace and Joy God desires for each of us.
