17th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“And I tell you, ask and you will receive; seek and you will find;
knock and the door will be opened to you.” - Lk 11:9

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

A Warm Welcome

We are glad that you are here to worship with us today.
We are grateful to our parishioners who come faithfully and we welcome our neighbors and guest that visit us.

If you are interested in becoming a member of St. Ann please call the parish office.

Every weekend I am asked about Fr. Bernie—and I am always happy to respond! I am on one of the many “All Things New” committees, so I have meetings twice a month at the Rigali Center in St. Louis, and since Regina Cleri (the priest retirement home where Fr. Bernie lives) is on the same campus, I always make it a point to stop by and visit.

Fr. Bernie is doing VERY well, in fact, the best I have seen him since Covid. Though he misses us dearly (he told me this with teary-eyes), he knows Regina Cleri has been good for him. He’s eating healthy meals, 3 times a day, and sits at a table with other priest having conversation at every meal. Because of this, he now wears a hearing-aid; I don’t think he knew what he was missing! His room is nice and he’s making it ‘home’. As we walked down the hall I noticed that he’s not scuffling anymore—another sign that he’s growing in strength, thanks to retirement at Regina Cleri.

He is very appreciative of your cards and calls. If you would like to also call or write:

Fr. Bernie Wilkins
 Regina Cleri
 10 Archbishop May Drive
 St. Louis, MO 63119
 314-918-7760, ext. 7760

I repeated (as I do every time I see him) that he is ALWAYS welcome to return for a visit, for a weekend, or for good; I pray he takes me up someday on my offer!

Fr. Carl

Extend an invitation....

Do you have a friend or family member who is interested in learning more about our Catholic faith? Someone who has not been baptized or someone who has been baptized in another Christian faith who may have indicated to you they are searching for a sense of community? What about someone who was baptized Catholic who has not completed their full initiation into the Church by receiving the Holy Eucharist or Confirmation? Someone you know may just be waiting for an invitation. RCIA is an ancient tradition in the Church in which a person is introduced and exposed to the richness of our prayer, history, worship, beliefs and morality. The process allows a person to grow and discern their path to full communion with the Catholic Church without obligation. The next RCIA journey will begin the week of August 29. If you know someone who may be interested in learning more about our Catholic faith, please extend an invitation and encourage them to contact the parish office. If you are an active Catholic who loves your faith and would like to share in the RCIA journey, either as a Sponsor or Catechist, please contact the parish office.

17th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Ask and you will receive; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you.” LUKE 11:9
 Jesus assures us that if we ask, God will take care of what we need. The problem is that our culture often confuses what we really need with what we simply want. The truth is that many of us need very little. However, we usually want so much more! Stewardship is simply being grateful for all that we are and all that we have been given, and generously sharing all of our God-given gifts with others. Generosity is a gift that opens doors to new relationships with others and with God.

A Big Thank You

The committee managing St. Gertrude's Little Food Pantry wants to thank the children attending this summer's Vacation Bible School for their generosity in helping keep the pantry full. They recently conducted a Food Drive and collected many essential items which will go a long way in helping people and families in need.

The committee also thanks all parishioners and others who regularly contribute food and other essentials for the pantry. Thanks to your generosity and major donations from the Knights of Columbus, we have been able to maintain the pantry as a vital resource for the parish and surrounding community.

On Thursday, July 14th Reese & Riley Hanneken & Alexa Terschluse had an lemonade stand up at St. Gertrude old hall. They made $78 and donated it all to St. Ann's PSR. Thank you to them for their donation and hard work. We appreciate your kindness & support.

Thank You!
