FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear Parishioners,

Today we celebrate the coming of the Holy Spirit upon the apostles on Pentecost Sunday. Each year this is a powerful occasion in which we're encouraged to beg the Holy Spirit to come down upon us and breathe new vigor into our Church.

If you weren't with us last weekend, I'd like to update you on the devotional practices I spoke about which I'd like to incorporate at St. Ambrose and St. Patrick. In response to the war in Ukraine, I was asked some time back about praying the Rosary together for world peace, as Our Blessed Mother asked us to do when she appeared in Fatima in 1917. Then, after the tragic events at the school in Uvalde, TX on May 24, I decided that, yes, we need to run to the arms of our Mother and implore her protection. Our world is broken in many ways. I don't know the answers, but I do know Mary is the closest person to Jesus and has promised to protect her children by covering them with her mantle and taking our prayers to her Son.

So I've decided to say the Rosary at the 8am and 12:30pm Masses at St. Ambrose and the 10am Mass at St. Patrick. The Rosary will begin 20 minutes prior to the start of the 10am and 12:30pm Masses. While I announced it would also be 20 minutes prior to the 8am Mass, it turns out there's still some discussion about when would be best for that service. Stay posted...

Additionally, I mentioned I would like to say the Memorare together as a community. This is a beautiful prayer to our Blessed Mother which speaks to the significance of placing our petitions beneath her throne. If you don't know the prayer, the text is found on the white cards placed in the book holders in each of the pews. After the final blessing of the 5pm, 8am, and 10am Masses, we'll say this prayer together before continuing with our recessional music. At the 12:30pm and daily Masses, I'm going to begin saying this prayer in place of the petitions. This will ensure the Mass isn't any longer, and we're still able to say the St. Michael the Archangel Prayer after Mass.

On another note, beginning June 11, I'll begin hearing confessions at St. Patrick on Saturday mornings from 9-10am. For some time I've grappled with when I might be able to offer weekend confessions at St. Patrick. This seems to be the time that will work with my schedule, so we'll give it a try and see how it goes. If you want to go to confession, just come to the church on Saturday morning. If the door to the sacristy is open between 9 and 10am, I'll be in there waiting for you! It's a great feeling to join the Clean Souls Club! The only stipulation is that if I happen to be gone on a Saturday, confessions will be canceled for that weekend. This won't be often and will be announced in advance.

May the Holy Spirit shower you with His Gifts this Pentecost!

Fr. Joe

Online Giving totals are published once a month.*

What a wonderful sacramental spring we have had! First, we had four St. Patrick children make their First Communion and most recently nine of our parish youth were Confirmed in the Holy Spirit.

It is upon these high notes that I announce my retirement as DRE for our St. Patrick parish. I have enjoyed my years volunteering in this position and genuinely believe that our Church and parish futures lie in the hands and hearts of our wonderful children.

Parents, please bring your children to Mass every week and model to them that sports, birthday parties, and other commitments come second to their relationship with Jesus. I am deeply concerned that this is becoming an increasingly critical issue.

We are now in a time of restructuring how we serve our parish children, and our future program will be totally dependent upon parental response and level of commitment. Grandparents, this might be a time to prayerfully have a multi-generational conversation and recommitment to our children.

Parish members, please pray for us as our future unfolds.

~Pat Downey

Thank You

Thank you Pat for all your hard work and dedication to the religious education program. Your expertise will certainly be missed. May God bless you always!

BOTH PARISHES TAKE NOTE

St. Ambrose and St. Patrick parishes congratulate all the young men and women who graduated from various junior highs, high schools, and post-secondary schools in our area. We assure you of our prayers as you move forward to the next stage on your life journey, seeking to remain always with the Lord. We especially congratulate the 8th graders who graduated from Jordan Catholic School last week; Chloe Lambert, Jack Rogers, and Alixandra Thorpe from St. Ambrose and Benjamin DeMarlie from St. Patrick. Of particular note Chloe was baptized and entered the Catholic Church this past Easter, largely through the influence of her time at Jordan Catholic School. Alix was the recipient of the Jordan Catholic School-School Spirit Award, while Ben was the recipient of the Jordan History Award and the Al & Pat Kukla Scholarship. Congratulations to all of our graduates!

It is no easy thing to bear sufferings joyfully, especially those which are unmerited. Fallen nature rebels, and although the intellect and will are above suffering, because they are able to do good to those who inflict suffering on them, nevertheless the emotions raise a lot of noise and, like restless spirits, attack the intellect and will. But when they see they cannot do anything by themselves, they quiet down and submit to the intellect and will. Like some kind of hideousness, they rush in and stir up a row, bent on making one obey them alone so long as they are not curbed by the intellect and will.
