BOTH PARISHES TAKE NOTE.....

Dear Parishioners,

First, as you perhaps read last week, Pat Downey at St. Patrick has decided to retire from her role as Director of Religious Education. I would like to formally thank Pat for her years of service to St. Patrick, most especially in her many, many, many hours dedicated to the religious formation of our youth, but also in so many other ways. Her smiling face and joyful spirit always serves as a pick-me-up and an encouragement to keep pushing on in my own duties!

At the present moment I am not quite sure how we will proceed with religious education at each of our parishes. Unfortunately the numbers of students and commitment has been such that challenging discussions have been forced upon us. We'll let you know when we have a better idea of our future plans for catechesis.

While the last paragraph may have seemed negative. I do have great hope for the revival of our parishes and the Catholic faith in this country. My hope stems from many sources, one of which is the three year Eucharistic Revival upon which the Catholic Church in America is embarking beginning next Sunday, the great Feast of Corpus Christi in which we honor the most august mystery of our faith, the Holy Eucharist, Jesus' bodily presence which remains with us in what appears to be mere bread and wine.

Starting next week, and continuing through 2024, the Church all across our country will be sponsoring various events geared towards inviting Catholics to return to the Holy Eucharist, which the Second Vatican Council tells us is the Source and Summit of the Christian faith. Essentially the idea is if we've lost a bit of our life, a bit of our luster, where better to regain it than in that which is our faith's source and summit?

Our local parishes will seek opportunities to invite you to grow in Eucharistic devotion. I will try to update you on these as they become available. I'll also be taking the opportunity from time to time to offer simple reflections and instructions on the Eucharist and its corresponding piety with my words I share in the bulletin. The capstone event of the three year Eucharistic Revival will be the National Eucharistic Congress held at Lucas Oil Stadium in Indianapolis July 17-21, 2024. The organizers hope to attract a gathering of at least 80,000 devotees. Given our relative proximity to Indianapolis, I pray many members of our own community may be able to attend.

The website for the National Eucharistic Revival, www.eucharisticrevival.org, has many resources to help us grow in love for the Holy Eucharist and also to learn more about everything this three year event will entail!

Finally, on a related note, I will be using incense next Sunday for Corpus Christi at the 8am and 10am Masses. Following the 10am Mass, we will have a Corpus Christi Procession on the grounds of St. Patrick. The program will be the same as last year and will take about 45 minutes to complete. It will consist of Eucharistic Benediction at 4 different stations, the singing of Eucharistic themed songs, and the recitation of the Holy Rosary. If you attend another Mass but want to come to the procession, just come out to St. Patrick around the time the Mass is ending, roughly 10:55, and join us in the back of the church as we depart for the procession!

United with you in the Eucharist!
Fr. Joe
