The month of July is dedicated to the Precious Blood. The feast of the Precious Blood of our Lord was instituted in 1849 by Pius IX, but the devotion is as old as Christianity. The early Fathers say that the Church was born from the pierced side of Christ, and that the sacraments were brought forth through His Blood.

BOTH PARISHES TAKE NOTE.....

Dear Parishioners,

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

As I mentioned at our Masses at St. Ambrose last weekend, this Sunday the Knights of Columbus will present a beautiful traveling icon of St. Joseph at our 5pm and 8am Masses. Next Sunday the same presentation will occur at our 10am Mass at St. Patrick's, and over the next two weeks, the icon will be on display, first at St. Ambrose and then at St. Patrick.

This Wednesday, rather than having our monthly Holy Hour for Vocations, we'll have a St. Joseph Prayer Service at 6:30pm at St. Ambrose which will occur within Eucharistic Adoration. The service will include specific prayers pertaining to the traveling icon published by the Knights of Columbus.

A bit of history to better describe what this is all about:

In 1979 the Knights of Columbus established what they call their Prayer Program. Since then they've commissioned numerous pieces of Sacred Art that have traveled around the country, and even the world, to various parishes and other Church organizations. Accompanying prayer services have been developed to go along with many of the traveling art pieces. In a nutshell, it's an occasion to bring communities together to pray before created beauty and to call upon the intercession of the various saints depicted in the artwork. To date, more than 174,000 K of C Councils have participated in the Prayer Program.

The St. Joseph icon we'll be hosting is the most recent artwork commissioned. The original icon was created by a Montreal-based iconographer and was blessed by Pope Francis in October 2021. In a homily on 11/6/21, Archbishop William Lori of Baltimore said the current icon is meant "to spread devotion to St. Joseph and to inspire men to put faith in action." I would add that I pray the icon will do the same for the women and children who will view it in our churches over the next couple weeks as well. Archbishop Lori continues, "in choosing Joseph to care with a father's love for the incarnate Son of God, the eternal Father recognized St. Joseph a man of utmost integrity - a man who perhaps had no idea what God had in mind for him but nonetheless went about his daily life and work with honesty and reliability." I hope you'll be able to come to the St. Joseph Prayer Service this Wednesday and that it will ignite your love for Jesus!

Lastly, on an unrelated topic, you may have heard that we have a new business manager at St. Ambrose and St. Patrick! Since Cindi Starcevich's retirement last summer, we've been blessed to have received a lot of financial help from Pauline Starling who works for the diocese. Last week, though, Tracy DeClerck has formally stepped into the role!

Many of you know Tracy since she's been a dedicated St. Patrick parishioner for many years and also has connections at St. Ambrose. If you don't know her, though, she is married to Tom DeClerck, has three children, four grandchildren, and has worked for 30 years in accounting and school finance, most recently as Comptroller of United Township High School. She has A LOT of experience, and is a huge asset to our parishes. In her words, "I've been blessed by God with wonderful educators, mentors and colleagues and I'm happy to bring my knowledge and experience to be of service to both parishes." If I know one thing it's that I know I don't know what I'm doing when it comes to these areas, so I'm glad to have Tracy because it's clear she does know what she's doing!!

Praise God!
Fr. Joe

St Pat's Memorial Brick Fund Raiser

- ▶ The current bricks around the Memorial Garden are blank (those will be replaced with a printed brick)
- A person does not have to be deceased to have a brick - these are for everyone. For example: The Dziadyk's, Est 1974 (the year we were married)
- When the bricks come in, we will have a small ceremony so all bricks can be placed by the person who purchased it. We will also ask Fr. Joe to have a blessing ceremony over the bricks before they are placed around the garden.
- If you wish to purchase more than one brick, just make a copy of the form that was in the bulletin (there are also extras in the vestibule).
- ▶ The cost of each brick is $100, checks should be made out to St Patrick's.

During a meditation on humility, an old doubt returned: that a soul as miserable as mine could not carry out the task which the Lord was demanding [of me]. Just as I was analyzing this doubt, the priest who was conducting the retreat interrupted his train of thought and spoke about the very thing I was having doubts about; namely, that God usually chooses the weakest and simplest souls as tools for His greatest works; that we can see that this is an undeniable truth when we look at the men He chose to be His apostles; or again, when we look at the history of the Church and see what great works were done by souls that were the least capable of accomplishing them; for it is just in this way that God's works are revealed for what they are, the works of God. When my doubt had completely disappeared, the priest resumed his conference on humility.
