OUR FAITH COMMUNITY

From the Pastor

Lent: Voluntary Mortification

Voluntary mortification means freely giving up a satisfaction or a pleasure in order to impose on ourselves, for love of God, something which is contrary to our own natural inclinations. Thus we prove that we prefer to satisfy God rather than ourselves. Every act of mortification, whether physical or moral, says to God, "Lord, I love You more than myself". Since the soul has an ardent desire to give proof of its love, be very vigilant not to miss a single opportunity for mortification to God. St. Therese of the child Jesus said, "I shall always sing, even should my flowers be gathered from the midst of thorns".

Voluntary mortification requires more good will. It is necessary to arouse our good will and our sincere desire to suffer willingly for the love of God. Have the desire to make mortification as you get the opportunities. Our prayer should be, "Lord, I place myself into Your hands. Purify me as You wish".

LITURGICAL MINISTRIES

Liturgy & Music Notes from Jan

…and so we begin again. Our Lenten guide of cluster activities was inserted in last week's bulletin, but is also available on the parish website and posted on the church bulletin boards. Lent is beautiful and meaningful, and there is no need to "reinvent the wheel", but our Lenten journey is new every year, because of our spiritual compass and the pieces of our lives that need change. Though we associate Lent with a desert setting, we are reminded that Lent is strongly connected with our baptism—so this is the perfect time to be able to bless ourselves again with holy water as we enter the church. Please note the two touchless holy water dispensers that are located on the baptismal font and at the accessible entrance near the piano. All you have to do is hold your fingers under it and a sensor will dispense a few drops.

Stations of the Cross—if you'd like to have your own Stations prayer booklet, they can be picked up in the parish office or from the back of the church. A donation of $2 is appreciated. The books cannot be turned in and reused by others—please keep your booklet for your own personal use.

Socks in the Box is our Lenten service project to help the needy of our community, by our donations of clean, new pairs of socks. Socks of all sizes and colors can be dropped off at church, the parish office or our parish school. Please bring NEW socks only, and connected in pairs, from now until Holy Thursday. Thank you!

"We are the sum of our capacity to do God's will"…as I am typing this bulletin information, I just heard this on a livestream of Steve Angrisano's Chaplet of Divine Mercy that I follow daily at 2:00PM (search it on Facebook if you like--you can submit prayer requests), and feel it is meant to be shared. May God bless our Lenten journey with open eyes and hearts to do His will.

Follow us on our Facebook page, "St. Mary's Catholic Parish Tomahawk, WI" and participate in our Lenten Photo Scavenger Hunt where you can win a prize!

From the Parish Nurse

Most bumps on the head are minor and heal easily, as do most bumps anywhere else. Head injuries that cause cuts often bleed heavily because the blood vessels of the scalp are close to the surface. This bleeding is alarming, but does not always mean the injury is severe.

However, injuries that do not cause visible external bleeding may cause life-threatening bleeding and swelling inside the scalp and so there is a need to be watched carefully for 24 hours for signs of a severe injury (confusion about name, address, age, the date, etc.; inability to move or slower movements of the arms and legs on one side of the body; abnormally deep sleep, lethargy, or difficulty waking up; vomiting that continues after the first 2 hours).

Basic first aid for a head injury:

- Unconscious? Make sure there is no other spinal injury before moving them.
- Bleeding? Apply firm pressure directly over the wound with a clean cloth for 15 minutes. Add more cloths if it bleeds through the first one.
- Apply ice or cold packs to reduce swelling and perhaps ease the pain.
- Watch for signs (as listed above), waking/checking the person frequently during the night.
- Check for other injuries as these are easily overlooked because of the alarm caused by the head injury.

Seek help if bleeding can't be stopped, or stitches are needed; there is a loss of consciousness at anytime after the injury; there is blood or clear fluid draining from the ears or nose; person is confused or has any loss of memory the first few minutes; double vision or speech difficulty after the first minute; develops a severe headache, seizures, or convulsions, weakness or numbness on one side; or vomiting persists after 2 hours.

Preventing a fall and a possible head injury is key. Wear a seatbelt, use car seats, wear helmets when biking, skiing, skating, etc., don't dive into shallow water (end of pool), and invest in a pair of ice cleats when walking outside in icy areas or use a cane if your gait is unsteady.

Stay safe and well, God bless! Blood pressures this weekend. ~ Ann Jelinek RN, PN

Reflection

1st Sunday of Lent

St. Oscar Romero said, "Aspire not to have more, but to be more." These powerful words provide the perfect framework for a conversion oriented Lenten experience. God is giving us this Lenten sign to stop being concerned about what you have and focus on who you are. This requires that we create a desert space and listen more attentively for God to reveal His presence. It is all so wonderfully simple on the one hand and so incredibly challenging on the other. The message is simple: love God, neighbor, and self. Those simple words make great sense, but we struggle translating them into reality. Our attachments, compulsions, obsessions, addictions, routines, and busyness all anchor us to the "idol of the self," keeping us mired in our compulsive need for self-aggrandizement. It's not about us!

God vowed, long ago, to nurture, sustain and protect the relationship He has with His people. He called us into being, nurtures us in being, and sustains us in being. Without the Loving Divine Presence, all life would cease. Once we slow down a bit and clear away some of the clutter, we can see how the journey of our life is unfolding. We can see what brings us in and out of tune with God's love and how we can better imitate God's loving fidelity in our relationship with Him. In short, we will see our myopic short sightedness and figure out how we can better share the Divine Fire within with others. Lent isn't just about giving stuff up for forty days and indulging again at Easter. We need to push things much farther and wrestle with the question of how we can be more. "Being more" means becoming more fully alive and in touch with the holiness of life and the divinity that lives in and empowers all beings and things. It is realizing that the "quality" of our presence is crucial to being an effective witness and herald of God's unconditional love.

The illusion we have bought into causes us to believe that the wrong things and systems matter. We tirelessly fight to keep things the way they are, to return to the former ways of doing things or restore some nostalgic fantasy memory of "life in the good old days." Lent isn't about maintaining what we have or returning to something that is gone. It's about becoming something new. It's about being more focused, centered, convicted, and grounded so that we can be a person who truly loves and treasures being made in the image of God. The secret to Gospel living is not found in accumulating anything for ourselves, even merit points for heaven. Gospel living means learning how to live with less so that others can live with more. The thought of permanently giving something up makes us feel uncomfortable. Truth often does.

The 'Best Lent Ever'—Since we cannot gather and attend a Lenten Retreat, the Spirituality Commission of the Superior Diocesan Council of Catholic Women is offering these suggestions for you to still have the 'Best Lent' ever! Do your own self study Lenten journey by checking out some websites; grab a book and get reading; do some self evaluation; take your family members along on your journey!; and put a religious App on your cellphone. For details on how to have the 'Best Lent' ever, please visit our website at stmaryschurchtomahawk.com and download the 'Best Lent' Ever detailed informational sheet to start your journey!
