OUR FAITH COMMUNITY

From the Pastor

Stillness and Calmness: 3/3

You cannot reach the point of calmness within one day. It is a culmination of a series of virtues. This is the higher standard of living for which we all strive to reach. This is where we need to retire ourselves, away from the noise and confusion of the world. Retiring to calmness does not mean to isolate ourselves from the world. In fact, one is interested and concerned about the welfare of the people. His calmness is like the holy of holies into which he retires from the world to get strength to live fully. He realizes that the glory of the individual lies in the calmness. "In returning and rest you shall be saved; in quietness and in trust shall be your strength" (Isaiah 30:15).

Jesus who has the authority over every situation, silences the storms in our lives. Concentrate on Jesus more and less on the situation. Focus your attention on Jesus, just as Peter who was caught up in the storm, gazed at Jesus in the beginning, when he was asked to walk on the sea to come to Him. He was able to walk on the water focusing on Jesus. But when Peter changed his focus to the storm from Jesus, he began to sink. Then Jesus says, "Be not afraid … you of little faith … why did you doubt?" (Matthew 14:22-31). The Lord knows everything. He is our Rock and our Fortress. He is our Good Shepherd. Rely on Him and do the little that you can.

The apostles gathered together with Jesus and reported all they had done and taught. He said to them, "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." So they went off in the boat by themselves to a deserted place. - Mk 6:30-31b, 32

LITURGICAL MINISTRIES

Liturgy & Music Notes from Jan

On Sunday, August 8 our 11:00AM Mass will take place at Memorial Park—"Down By the Riverside"! (In case of rain, we will be in the church.) Mark your calendars now for what will be another special gathering—outdoor Mass in God's creation along the beautiful Wisconsin River! We are grateful and fortunate that our music will be provided by our parish friends Joe and Sue Cronick of the well-known Hand-Picked Bluegrass. You might want to bring a picnic lunch to enjoy after Mass!

Parish musicians and spouses (choirs, cantors, accompanists, etc.) are invited to a grand reunion picnic at the Huseby home at 4:00PM on Monday, July 26 (rain date is July 27 in case of bad weather). Please bring a lawn chair and, if you'd like, a side dish or dessert. Please RSVP to Jan by Friday, July 23. We've been missing each other for a long time, and it's time for a party! Boat rides will be available.

Summer Prayer Time
At the end of the school year, we spent time at Morning Prayer focusing on ways to keep Jesus close while we were enjoying summer vacation. What is the easiest way to do that? Prayer! Remember to keep prayer as part of your summer routine. Meal prayers and nighttime prayers help keep us focused on what truly matters no matter what time of year it is. Ask your child to teach the family one of our fun meal prayers from school and watch the smiles spread all around your table!

From the Parish Nurse

What the mirror doesn't tell you about your magnificent self is far more interesting and exciting than the cellulite you glimpse in your reflection. It doesn't tell you that your body has innate abilities (auto-regulation, self-defense and self-healing).

In our society of quick fixes and limited warranties, it is easy and often necessary to replace most material objects. The human body cannot be replaced! We can misuse and abuse it, or treat it with loving care. Despite the wondrous advances of medical science, your body is still your very essence. Although it comes with a lifetime warranty, its quality isn't guaranteed; that is up to you.

Learn to love your reflection:

- When looking in the mirror, focus on what you love.
- Stop comparing yourself to the celebrities you see in fake airbrushed photos.
- Look past your face and hair so you can pick up on health clues.
- Honor your body by giving it some TLC. Take time to care for your body.
- Be grateful for your body's systems that are working well.
- Pay compliments to your internal organs.
- Focus on your energy level, not your weight.

(Information for this series is from American Nurse Today, 2016)

Sooo, what does your mirror say to you? And will you listen?

God's blessing for a full and easy summer - now that it is after the 4th of July, it goes by swiftly.

Ann Jelinek RN, PN

St. Augustine Announcements

St. Augustine Parish Breakfast - Thanks to all who helped with serving and clean-up for our breakfast last Sunday. Also thank you for all the monetary donations which covered grocery costs. It was so good to gather again and share a meal after a long delay due to Covid. We are planning our next breakfast for Sunday, August 1. For the time being, due to sanitation and food safety concerns, we will be purchasing packaged foods for our breakfasts rather than asking parishioners to donate prepared dishes. Also, as we resume our breakfasts, we encourage greater participation so that responsibilities do not fall on the same few shoulders. We welcome suggestions and new ideas. Please call St. Augustine's parish office at 715-453-2561 or Ann Wanserski at 715-536-1466 with your ideas. Our goal is to continue our parish gatherings during which we can visit, share a meal and build our community. Looking forward to our next breakfast gathering!

Thank You! - The family of Judy and Jerry Schoone would like to thank the community of St. Augustine for the many ways you demonstrated your love and support as we celebrated the life of Judy, our loving wife, mom, grandma and friend. Thank you Pat Pintens and Kay Connor for organizing the choir, and to the choir, your voices touched our hearts and perfectly resembled the beautiful person we loved so dearly. We feel blessed and honored by your graciousness. We'd like to thank Joyce Leonhard and the kitchen crew for the planning and preparation of the delicious and comforting meal. Not only were your dishes delicious, they reminded us of home. We'd especially like to thank Fr. Louis and Deacon Dan for leading us in prayer and sharing God's comforting words. You've helped us remember that even though we've lost, we were blessed to love and that we will soon be able to open our eyes and smile. From our hearts, we thank you! ~ Jerry & Family
