Ramblings of the Pastor

A little boy forgot his lines in a Sunday school presentation. His mother was in the front row to prompt him. She leaned forward and whispered the cue, "I am the light of the world." The child beamed and with great feeling and a loud clear voice said, "My mother is the light of the world." 😊

Happy Mother Day!

Today is the day we remember and honor those people who in many ways they have generously made room for us in their life and heart. The Church asks us to celebrate all forms of motherhood, whether physical, spiritual, or cultural. Although every women is not called to give life biologically every women has a vocation to some form of motherhood. In the words of St John Paul II, "all women, even those without children, have a unique gift of being able to make space for others, of being able to accept others and to nurture others — which is at the heart of motherhood." God made women to nurture goodness, virtue, and beauty in others. Every women is called to live her spiritual motherhood in her own unique way and will find true fulfillment in being a spiritual mother. Let us give thanks to God for the gift of those women who lived their motherhood for our benefit. Happy Mother Day!

The month of May is dedicated to the Blessed Mother and it is good for us to honor Mary because she can inspire us to imitate her Son. We honor Mary as the Mother of God and Queen of heaven and earth because she accepted the gift of the Holy Spirit to become the Mother of God. Mary is the Mother of God because her son, Jesus, is fully divine and fully human. She is our queen because Jesus is the King of all creation. By honoring Mary, we honor her son, Jesus Christ. Please consider how, through the Holy Spirit, you can honor Mary this month as a way of honoring her son, Jesus.

Lord, hold our troops in Your loving hands. Protect them as they protect us. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform for us in our time of need. Amen

A Family Blessing

Lord of All,
Bless our families.
Be they formed by blood or by circumstance,
Make them holy.
May we find you
In our relationships.
In our marriages, In our families,
In our households, In our communities,
In our global humanity.
May we look across
all that divides us
And see family,
And embrace as a family does.
And love as a family ought to.
For where two or three gather
in your name,
There are you.

Amen

REFLECTIONS OF A PLC—

Jesus calls us all to love as he does, to love by laying down our lives for each other. Imagine if we lived this way. The gossip we would see as pointless in sharing. The understanding we might have with that person at the super market. Perhaps even patience and forbearance with those we meet in traffic. Love for our political opponents, seeing them as human albeit even in their differing perspectives and experiences of life. If we were to be able to give our lives for each other how different would the world be?

If we knew we could confide in our neighbor and ask for help even with sensitive issues, being met with patience and love. How different would the world be? Jesus calls us to live in this way. It begins in prayer, in being patient and loving with yourself; then patience and love for our neighbors and of course for our enemies. Giving those who frustrate us or anger us the benefit of the doubt and an opportunity to share their experience. This is the sacrificial kind of love that goes out of its way for the other, the kind of love that Christ calls of each of us.
