

PALM SUNDAY OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD

“Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord.
Peace in heaven
and glory in the highest.”

CHRISM MASS: Sacred Heart
Cathedral, April 11, 2pm

You are invited to take part in one of the most special liturgies in the life of a diocese—the Chrism Mass. At this liturgy, the bishop gathers the faithful of the diocese—priests and deacons, religious and laity—around him for the blessing and consecration of the oils that will be used in all our parishes in the coming year. Here the Oil of the Sick, used to strengthen and console and heal those who are infirm, will be blessed. Here the Oil of Catechumens, used to strengthen and free those who are preparing for baptism, will be blessed. Here the Sacred Chrism, used to ordain bishops and priests, to confirm, to anoint newly-baptized infants, and to dedicate churches and altars, will be consecrated. And here, too, we will witness the Rite of Recommitment to Ministry by our priests. May our presence at the Chrism Mass be a sign of our support and gratitude for their ministry—and a reminder that baptism calls all of us to lives of service.

EASTER SCHEDULE

April 14th Holy Thursday: 6:30pm Mass
April 15th Good Friday: 6:30pm Service
April 16th Holy Saturday: 8:30pm Easter Vigil
April 17th Easter: 8:30am & 10:30am Mass

St. Bernadette Soubirous |
April 16

At the age of 14 St. Bernadette (1844-1879) was living in abject poverty with her family in a one-room basement which had previously been used as a jail, in the town of Lourdes in southern France. She was a sickly child, having fallen victim to Cholera in 1854 and would battle asthma and tuberculosis for the rest of her short life. Bernadette was illiterate and is characterized in many accounts as slow or ignorant. It was in her 14th year that Bernadette was granted 18 visions of a 'Lady' at a grotto in Massabielle. The Lady instructed Bernadette to come daily to the grotto to receive the visions, eventually proclaiming 'I am the Immaculate Conception'. A spring at the grotto, which appeared where Bernadette was instructed to dig, has been a site of miraculous healing. The Lady also asked that a chapel be built in the grotto for pilgrims. Today the Marian shrine at Lourdes is one of the world's most popular. During and following the period of visions, the saint was examined rigorously by Church and local authorities. The popular excitement around the visions left her subject to persistent questioning and attention. Eventually she sought protection by retiring to a home for the poor in a nunnery. She took her vows in 1866 with the Sisters of Charity at Nevers. She worked as an infirmiry assistant, and later a sacristan, but by the end of her life she was too sick to participate in convent life. She died at the age of 35, humble and penitent until the end.

Ramblings of the Pastor

Today, the distribution of blessed palms starts the solemn celebration of Holy Week. Holy Week is a special time for us to meditate upon the passion, death, and resurrection of Christ as we walk with him. Christ's passion is a summary of the Gospel and a perfect example of Christian discipleship. These eight days celebrate the Mysteries of our Faith, Jesus' entry into Jerusalem, the Lord's Supper, the betrayal, the Crucifixion and finally, the Resurrection. These events brought about our salvations and gave us the sacraments of Baptism, Eucharist, Reconciliation and Holy Orders. They show us God's mercy for us, and what mercy can do for and to us. They illustrate the great commandment of love of God and others. Consider what that palm means, as it is a declaration that Jesus is Lord of your life and your King. Can you follow our King this week and grow in faith and mercy?

Palm weaving is another pious practice that arises from this day. You can find patterns on the internet by searching for palm weaving. They can be reminders throughout the year, that the cross leads to the resurrection.

Blessed Palms

Because the palms are blessed, they are now sacramentals, which "are sacred signs instituted by the Church. They prepare [us] to receive the fruit of the sacraments and sanctify different circumstances of life" (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1667). Sacramentals should be treated with respect and never be thrown away. Palms may only be burned or buried.

Lord, hold our troops in Your loving hands. Protect them as they protect us. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform for us in our time of need - Amen

Reflections of the Parish Life Coordinator

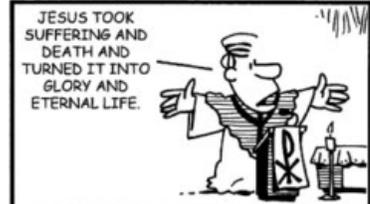

"Truly this man was the Son of God!" What will it take for you to recognize Christ? At the end of the passion narrative, even the pagan Centurion observes and believes what the chief priests could not. As Jesus says in Matthew's Gospel, "Truly I tell you, the Tax Collectors and Prostitutes are entering the Kingdom of God before you." Where do we meet Christ today? In the most holy Sacrament of the Altar, the Eucharist; and in our neighbor. Don't forget, when asked in Luke's Gospel, Jesus' response to the question "who is our neighbor?", he replies with the parable of the Good Samaritan. To love our neighbor means loving the unlovable people in our society and in our households. To bear wrongs patiently, to give the benefit of the doubt, and to be honest and forthcoming. To love our neighbor means we continually enter into relationship, even when it is painful or difficult. Encountering Christ in our neighbor means seeing who God made someone as they are and who he made them to be; seeing the divine potential in everyone. After all, when God made the heavens and the earth it was good, and on the sixth day when he made humanity, it was very good. Be the Gospel you wish to see preached in the world.
