

EASTER SUNDAY

The women who had come from Galilee with Jesus took the spices they had prepared and went to the tomb. They found the stone rolled away from the tomb; but when they entered, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. - Lk 24:1b-3

New Job Opening

Pastoral Associate needed. The Pastoral Associate is a full-time, non-ordained professional lay ecclesial minister, who shares with the pastor the overall pastoral care of the Church of All Saints. For further detail please visit: allsaintskeokuk.org/jobs

Funeral Dinners

We think it is safe to begin having our regular funeral dinners. We will be calling people to fix dishes and desserts, and asking for help at the dinners. Our Church can not provide dinners without your help. We thank you for your continued support! The Funeral Dinner Committee
Sandy Morgan & Darlene Tabone

St. Anselm | April 21

St. Anselm of Canterbury left his home in Italy to travel as a young man and ended up at the monastery in Bec, France, which was known for the teachings of its leader, Lanfranc. Anselm rose quickly to become abbot of the community and his writings are now compared in importance to those of St. Augustine. In 1093 Anselm was appointed Archbishop of Canterbury by William II Rufus, the son and successor of William the Conqueror. However, at the time there was a controversy in Europe over whether kings or the pope had the power to invest bishops. Anselm, who believed only the pope should have the right to invest an ecclesiastical authority, spent much of his time as Archbishop exiled in Rome. St. Anselm's teaching and works of theology are his most important contribution to the Catholic faith. He is considered of the fathers of scholastic theology and his chief achievement in philosophy was the ontological argument for the existence of God. His work Cur Deus homo? taught that atonement for sins could only be achieved through Christ. He was canonized in 1494 and named a Doctor of the Church in 1720.

Ramblings of the Pastor

A politician was asked if they believed in the resurrection of the dead. "Most certainly, I do.", the politician responded. "In this great state, we have dead people voting in every election." For us Christians, the resurrection is very real and an essential part of our faith. It is an event that gives meaning to life. Jesus truly died out of mercy for us, so our sins can be forgiven. He rose from the dead, so that we can someday rise with Him. At every Mass, we participate in Jesus' sacrifice, His passion, death and resurrection. If we truly believe that Jesus really died and rose for us, then we should go to Mass regularly. The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass offers us the Eucharist, which is the Body and Blood of the Risen Jesus, and gives us a share in His eternal life. At this Holy Sacrifice, God offers us the grace we need so we can be merciful toward others, as God has been merciful toward us. In showing mercy toward others, we suffer and die with Christ and rise with Him to eternal life. Live the resurrection by going to church regularly and living our faith in charity and hope. May you all have a Blessed Easter and joyously proclaim it with your lives!

Reflections of the Parish Life Coordinator

Alleluia! Christ is risen! If I am honest with myself, this lent has passed in large part with a kind of rapidness and lukewarm-ness that I am unaccustomed to. When this happens, we often times reach the triduum with a kind of brokenness and vulnerability. In many ways, there is a brokenness that has entered into the world as we see images and video from Ukraine. I have been able to take time in reflecting on this, especially as we entered into Holy Week. Some call it the problem of evil, some simply ask the simple question; why would God allow this? Why would the atrocities at Bucha be allowed to happen? What made such tragedy possible? Hopefully we have the same sense when we look at the cross, when we participate in the Holy Thursday and Good Friday services. Blessed Duns Scotus and the Franciscan tradition reflects that Christ would have come no matter what, because God so loved humanity and the world. The fact that Adam and Eve chose to doubt God in their hearts and turn towards satan with selfish desire, gave Jesus' coming an even graver purpose. Suffering entered into the world by the freedom to choose, the freedom to amass power, to oppress, and to harm. Yet when Jesus came, he laid down his power, except to serve those who were marginalized. Jesus, who has the height of all power, chose to relinquish control to be the victim. Jesus identified with those who were oppressed by the civil and religious authorities of his day. Today, Jesus is with these same people. It is scandalous to say that Jesus was maimed, tortured, and murdered in Bucha; but so is the cross. If we know of the death and destruction, we must believe in the possibility and power of the resurrection. Think about how fearful and confused the Apostles felt in those three harrowing days. We too, live daily in this mystery of the passion, death, and resurrection of Christ. Because of the cross that we find in the world, it is upon us to bring about heaven on earth by our actions, sacrifices, and prayers. Today we choose resurrection. Today we are called to live the resurrection in the face of complete hopelessness. Christianity is a mad religion because we have the stubbornness of hope in the most hopeless situations, because of the resurrection. So go out today and be considered a lunatic of hope, faith, and love.
