First Communion

Congratulations to our First Communion youth!!!

Mary's Month

The month of May is dedicated to the Blessed Mother, and it is good for us to honor Mary, because she can inspire us to imitate her Son. We honor Mary as the Mother of God and Queen of heaven and earth, because she accepted the gift of the Holy Spirit to become the Mother of God. Mary is the Mother of God because her son, Jesus, is fully divine and fully human. She is our queen because Jesus is the King of all creation. By honoring Mary, we honor her son, Jesus Christ. Please consider how, through the Holy Spirit, you can honor Mary this month as a way of honoring her son, Jesus.

Mass With The Bishop

Bishop Zinkula will have mass at St. Vincent's school, Thursday, May 12th at 10:30am. This mass is open to the public.

Holy Hour for Vocations with Bishop Zinkula

Join Bishop Zinkula and the priests of our Deanery for a Deanery wide Mass and Holy Hour for Vocations, at St. Mary's Church in West Point on Tuesday, May 31st. Mass will begin at 5:30 PM with the Holy Hour to follow. Let us join together and pray that more young men will answer the Lord's call to His service as priests, deacons, and consecrated religious, and that more young women will heed the Lord's call to consecrated life.

New Job Opening

Pastoral Associate needed. The Pastoral Associate is a full-time, non-ordained professional lay ecclesial minister, who shares with the pastor the overall pastoral care of the Church of All Saints. For further detail please visit:

Ramblings of the Pastor

Happy Mother's Day! Today we honor those people who made numerous sacrifices to nurture and guide our life. Proverbs 17:6 teaches us that, "the glory of children is their parents." Today is the day to acknowledge the contribution of those who raised and nurtured us that enabled our successes in our life. None of us would be here today if it was not because of the sacrifices of many others, particularly parents and grandparents. Let us pray for our parents living and dead, that God will reward them for the many sacrifices they made for us. Happy Mother Day!

In addition to being Mother Day, today is also Good Shepherd Sunday, the fourth Sunday of Easter. Vocations, whether as parent, spouses, clergy or religious, are a gift of the love of God that leads to happiness. In all vocations, the love of God calls us to service toward others. This can be seen when married people serve their family and community. It is also shown in clergy and religious serving the church and community. Young people need adults to help them discover that the path to real love is in loving God and serving others. We need to help them imagine themselves as a good deacon, priest or religious, as well as a good mother, father, or worker. A vocation is about finding satisfaction in life, and only by loving God will we find true satisfaction. Let us today encourage young people to imagine finding true love by loving God and serving others as a deacon, priest, religious, or married person.

Baccalaureate

Baccalaureate Mass is May 29th at 10:30am. If you'd like your High School graduate to be recognized, please contact the parish office and email a headshot.

Lord, hold our troops in Your loving hands. Protect them as they protect us. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform for us in our time of need - Amen

Reflections of the Parish Life Coordinator

Happy Mother's day! Women both in the Church and in the world have an essential role, which must be lifted up. Both spiritual mothers and natural mothers are essential in the life of the Church. The Blessed Mother gave birth to Christ Jesus and she gives birth to the Church at Pentecost. Mary is both the mother of Jesus and our spiritual mother, showing us that both roles of motherhood are sacred. It was Mary's very close cooperation with the Holy Spirit which drew her into the heart of God, and therefore a blessing to those she encountered like her cousin Elizabeth. In today's Gospel, Jesus talks about the way in which he is the gate, he is the door. Mary not only knows Christ by his voice, but she knows the promptings of the Holy Spirit in the depths of her heart in a way that the Apostles don't understand, until the ascension of Christ. I know in my own life, the greatest witness of faith is my own Grandmother, who exemplified to me the love of God and the strength of spirit that I would carry with me into my adult life. Her love of the Rosary inspired my own love of and devotion to the Blessed Mother. Too often we take for granted the important witness of grandmothers who are evangelists in a way that no one else can rival or replace. Beyond the witness of Grandmothers, it is important that mothers are represented in important levels in the Church as decisions are made. This begins with women and mothers volunteering to join important positions on Parish Council and leading lay associations of women such as Ladies of Charity, Altar and Rosary, and other such apostolates. Spiritual motherhood is a key gift in the Church that is needed at the highest levels. I want to thank all the women in my life for the important witness and the gift of themselves, which helped me to grow and understand who I am, and the call that God has placed on each of our lives.
