Holy Hour for Vocations with Bishop Zinkula

Join Bishop Zinkula and the priests of our Deanery for a Deanery wide Mass and Holy Hour for Vocations, at St. Mary's Church in West Point on Tuesday, May 31st. Mass will begin at 5:30 PM with the Holy Hour to follow. Let us join together and pray that more young men will answer the Lord's call to His service as priests, deacons, and consecrated religious, and that more young women will heed the Lord's call to consecrated life.

Baccalaureate

Baccalaureate Mass is May 29th at 10:30am. If you'd like your High School graduate to be recognized, please contact the parish office and email a headshot.

New Job Opening

Ukraine Relief - CRS

Contribution to help the Ukraine can be made by putting donation in an envelope marked CRS - Ukraine. Envelopes are available on the back table of the Parish.

Ramblings of the Pastor

One day, Mother Teresa found a man lying in the gutter, very near death. He was filthy, dressed in little more than a rag and flies swarmed around his body. Immediately, Mother Teresa lovingly lifted him up, cleaned his body, spoke to him softly and laid him comfortably in her ambulance. A passerby was repulsed by the sight of the man and exclaimed to Mother Teresa, "I wouldn't do that for a million dollars." Her response was immediate, "Neither would I!" Money may be a motivator for many activities in our materialistic world. However, love can motivate people to do much more. Sacrificial love does not seek gain for self, but gain for others. St. Jerome relates that when Apostle John became old and couldn't preach very long, he would always say the words, "Little children, love one another." His disciples, wearied by the constant repetition, asked him why he always said this. "Because, it is the Lord's commandment," he replied, "and if it only be fulfilled, it is enough." Jesus spoke and did many things, but he was very clear about us needing to love others. Sacrificial love is the sign that we belong to Jesus. Loving others is the hardest part about being Christian, because the world tells us to take care of yourself first. Christ teaches that caring for the needs of others will satisfy our own needs. That is our need for true love, the love that only God can give. Jesus knows loving others will bring fulfillment in a way that worldly accomplishments and material things cannot. Remember and live those words of St John, "Little children, love one another."

Lord, hold our troops in Your loving hands. Protect them as they protect us. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform for us in our time of need - Amen

Reflections of the Parish Life Coordinator

In today's Gospel, Jesus implores his followers to remember the kind of love he shared with them, and thus to love all they meet with the same kind of love. In what way is God glorified? It is in the obedience of Jesus. Jesus redeems humanity not just at the Cross, which is the maximal moment of his gift to all humanity, but also at every moment and breath of his life. Jesus redeems humanity in the love he shares, in the moments he spent with his family, and in the moments he spent with the Apostles. Jesus redeems and glorifies God in the works he had done to heal and forgive sin. Jesus tells us in today's Gospel that we are to glorify God in the same way, through obedience to the law of love. How can I be more loving to my family, to my neighbor? How can I give the benefit of the doubt? How can I encourage those I meet in the good, the beautiful, and the true? How can I be healing balm for those who need it, those who are outcasts, even to my enemies? These questions, and more, lead us into the heart of the Gospel. Now we are in the age of the Holy Spirit. Love may be difficult, and so as a theological virtue it is ever more important that we pray for the grace to be more loving. Love itself is a gift, something that comes from the heart of God, it also is something we need to be able to accept. The beautiful thing about the Theological Virtues is that the heart of God inspires participation and imitation of his generosity. By our love, love is shared between souls, and thus with all those we meet. It's a gift that continues in abundance like a river overflowing the banks. May our love be inspired and founded by the Holy Spirit.

Mass Cancellation

Mass is cancelled with no communion service, Tuesday May 31st. Bishop Zinkula will be having Mass and Holy Hour for Vocations at St. Mary's Church in West Point at 5:30pm on this date. Please join us!

Mary's Month

The month of May is dedicated to the Blessed Mother, and it is good for us to honor Mary, because she can inspire us to imitate her Son. We honor Mary as the Mother of God and Queen of heaven and earth, because she accepted the gift of the Holy Spirit to become the Mother of God. Mary is the Mother of God because her son, Jesus, is fully divine and fully human. She is our queen because Jesus is the King of all creation. By honoring Mary, we honor her son, Jesus Christ. Please consider how, through the Holy Spirit, you can honor Mary this month as a way of honoring her son, Jesus.

Restful Repose to the Soul of Mary "Janet" Cameron
