Mary's Month

The month of May is dedicated to the Blessed Mother, and it is good for us to honor Mary, because she can inspire us to imitate her Son. We honor Mary as the Mother of God and Queen of heaven and earth, because she accepted the gift of the Holy Spirit to become the Mother of God. Mary is the Mother of God because her son, Jesus, is fully divine and fully human. She is our queen because Jesus is the King of all creation. By honoring Mary, we honor her son, Jesus Christ. Please consider how, through the Holy Spirit, you can honor Mary this month as a way of honoring her son, Jesus.

Ramblings of the Pastor

When Joshua, who wasn't Catholic, proposed marriage to Mary, a very devout Catholic, her parents advised her "Convert him to Catholicism! Love him tenderly and the Holy Spirit will work wonders!" She was told to work hard at tenderly converting Joshua. Mary prayed and loved and Joshua was converted. Later Joshua, who now is also a very devout Catholic too, called off the marriage to become a priest! The Holy Spirit, promised by Jesus, is available in our lives as a teacher and source of peace. The Holy Spirit can surprise us, in the process of guiding and teaching us, to outcomes we never considered. The Holy Spirit comes to us in Baptism, Confirmation and in every Eucharist. Jesus promises us that the Holy Spirit is available to instruct us in everything we need to know. We see this in today's first reading, where the Holy Spirit guided the apostles in an important decision. The early Church was very aware of the presence of the Holy Spirit in their lives and their gatherings. Do we? The Holy Spirit is sent to us by Jesus to prepares us and lead us to our heavenly home.

This Wednesday, May 25 is my 32nd anniversary as a priest of the Diocese of Davenport. I very much appreciate the support from the many people I have met over the years. Over the 32 years, my blessing has been the many great parishioners I had the opportunity to serve and meet. Thank you for your prayers. May God continue to bless you all for your kindness and support.

Lord, hold our troops in Your loving hands. Protect them as they protect us. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform for us in our time of need - Amen

Reflections of the Parish Life Coordinator

Jesus in this week's gospel tells us that if we truly love him we will keep his word. What does he mean by his word? Jesus speaks of the covenant that God makes with humanity through his son Jesus Christ. How do we renew our participation in Jesus' word or covenant? By receiving his most precious body and blood. In the early Church, they were very concerned about the advent of, or coming, of Christ. In fact, they used a word for this: Parusia. One thing many scholars overlook is the parusia, which the early Church refers to as the continual coming of Christ at the celebration of the Eucharist. Jesus comes to us each week, as well as at the weekday Masses. Will we keep his covenant? By participating in the sacred table, we are therefore strengthened in living out the commandments and to even more importantly become a source of blessing and sacrament for those we encounter in the world, who otherwise would not have contact with the sacraments. So critical is this mission that Jesus last words to his disciples were to be sacrament for all the world, "Baptizing in the name of the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit." Jesus calls us to participate in the mystery of his life. It is not enough to simply believe, but to be called and enter into salvation history, working for the common good of all of humanity; journeying together towards the end of time. We glorify him in loving him and his commands, in being Christ for others, and in sacrificing for the good of the community. Love is lived out for others, particularly for Christ, because it is love which is magnified in our own hearts, and in the hearts of those who we encounter. Be Christ today for others, be sacrament to the world as you are strengthened by Christ's own body and continual coming. Keep his word, be alive in the Spirit, and live!

Mass Cancellation

Mass is cancelled with no communion service, Tuesday May 31st. Bishop Zinkula will be having Mass and Holy Hour for Vocations at St. Mary's Church in West Point at 5:30pm on this date. Please join us!
