FROM OUR YOUTH MINISTER

As a young man, the Old Testament prophet Jeremiah received a call from God to speak truth to many Israelites who were wandering away from their relationship with God. God addresses these words to the prophet: “Before I formed you in the womb, I knew you. Before you were born, I dedicated you. A prophet to the nations I appointed you.” (Jer 1:5)
God knows each one of us before we are even born! God knows a marvelous plan for every human life while the baby is still in his/her mother’s womb!

Next weekend is “Respect Life Sunday” at churches throughout the world. Because God is the author of life, we Catholics are unabashedly Pro-Life. We love life. We nurture, support, protect, defend, and serve life — from womb to tomb.
For me, one of the most endearing Gospel passages takes place right after Mary conceives the baby Jesus in her womb. Mary goes to visit her cousin Elizabeth who is also pregnant – with the little John the Baptist in her womb. As Mary draws near, Elizabeth notices something startling inside of her. Elizabeth tells Mary, “At the moment the sound of your greeting reached my ears, the infant in my womb leaped for joy.” (Luke 1:44). Even as an unborn baby, the little John the Baptist was giving testimony about the arrival of the Savior!
In big or small ways, find something extra to do this week to nurture, support, protect, defend, and serve human life. Once again this year, our parish’s Human Concerns Committee is sponsoring the Baby Bottle project to raise funds for local crisis pregnancy help centers. (Although we no longer collect loose change in baby bottles, but rather donations through the envelopes in next week’s bulletin).
We will also be showing the movie Unplanned on Monday October 21 at 7pm in the Gathering Space. The movie tells the incredibly powerful true story of Abby Johnson who once worked in an abortion clinic but had a conversion experience and is now a pro-life advocate. Note that the movie is rated R due to some graphic images. Those under the age of 18 must be accompanied by a parent.

Fr. Dan Janasik

OPEN MY EYES
In our Gospel reading we hear another parable, the story of the Rich Man and Lazarus, a poor man. The two suffer different fates upon their deaths, with the Rich Man banished to the netherworld and Lazarus taken to Heaven. This harkens back to a theme foretold in Mary’s Magnificat canticle that we heard a few weeks ago: God casts the mighty from their thrones, lifting up the lowly and sending the rich away empty. Jesus is trying to communicate the idea that we, the more fortunate (even though we may not see ourselves as rich) have a responsibility to care for the less fortunate at our doorsteps and that we cannot look the other way when presented with a need. We sing Jesse Manibusan’s “Open My Eyes” today as a sung prayer asking God to open our eyes, ears, and hearts to the needs of the poor and disenfranchised around us. In doing this, we reinforce the themes of today’s Gospel, found in the bridge of the song: “And the first shall be last, and our eyes are opened, and we’ll hear like never before. And we’ll speak in new ways, and we’ll see God’s face in places we’ve never known.”
Bryan Staedler, Director of Music

THANK YOU to the parishioners on their outstanding response these last two weeks with the Our Clothing Drive and Stuff the Poor Box week. It was a huge success. Your generosity is overwhelming. The clothes and donations will go a long way in fulfilling our mission at St. Leonard’s and the Waukesha Community. God Bless.
David Anderson, President, St Vincent De Paul Society, St Leonard’s Conference
* As of October 1, 2019, Liz Berlyn will take over as president of St. Vincent de Paul. We thank David for his years of service as president and as he continues in his service to St. Vincent de Paul. We wish Liz well in her new position!
CONCERN FOR THOSE IN NEED

Bridget Klawitter, Pastoral Associate

As we hear the various parables from the Gospel of Luke it is good to keep two things in mind. First, the context of these teachings, which were given by Jesus as he made his way up to Jerusalem to “be delivered into the hands of men” (Lk. 9:44) and enter into his Passion. That journey was not just a physical journey, but also a sign of obedience to the will of the Father, a concrete expression of perfect humility and self-gift. Secondly, his parables and sermons given during the journey were not haphazard or random in nature but form a cohesive and focused whole. They are like different paths leading to the same place and shedding light on the same event: Jesus’ death on the Cross for the salvation of mankind. Some of them were meant specifically for the disciples; others for the crowds following Jesus; still others for the Pharisees and other religious leaders.

This weekend’s story of Lazarus and the rich man is a well-known parable of Jesus unique to the Gospel of Luke. Told in chapter 16 of Luke, Jesus tells of the relationship, during life and after death, between an unnamed rich man and a poor beggar named Lazarus. This is a notably wealthy man who lived a life of extravagant luxury but laying outside the entrance of this rich man’s house, however, was an exceptionally unfortunate man named Lazarus who only hoped “to eat what fell from the rich man’s table.” The rich man was very unsympathetic to the dilemma of Lazarus, offering him no love, help, or compassion. In time, they both met their mortal ends and passed on to the afterlife.

Lazarus was welcomed into heaven, while the rich man was condemned to the netherworld. Pleading to “Father Abraham” in heaven, the rich man asked that Lazarus come down from heaven to cool his tongue with a drop of water to reduce his “agony in this fire.” The rich man additionally requested Abraham to send Lazarus back to earth as a warning to his brothers to atone for their sins, however, both requests were refused. Abraham told the rich man that if his brothers did not believe in Moses and the prophets, neither would they believe Lazarus, even if he came directly from the dead.

God’s special concern for the poor and helpless is evident throughout the Scriptures. This weekend’s Gospel specifically points to God’s loving concern for those who are in need now and to the abundance and consolation they will receive in the age to come. This parable should bother our conscience as it is a great and powerful reminder that we will answer for our sins on earth when we pass away, and therefore we should love and care for our fellow mankind. This lesson is a difficult one. While we may not necessarily see a poor “Lazarus” at our doorstep, he is there in our world and can be seen with television, radio, the internet and other means of modern communication. What is our response? We should ask ourselves: When did I ignore the needs of another person? Have I given generously from what God has gifted me with? Have I ever thought about what it would be like to be so destitute that I would need to beg for survival? Today’s Gospel is a reminder that how we treat the poor and disenchanted among us is our moral responsibility. In what ways can you and/or your family reach out this week to help someone less fortunate?

Please call the Parish Office to make an appointment.

MINISTRY TO SICK & SHUT-INS
