There are certain questions that people ask me quite regularly. Today I want to address two of the most common questions people ask about the Creed. Every Sunday we say the Creed, which is a summary statement of what we believe. At a Sunday Mass, the priest may use either the Nicene Creed, which was written at the Council of Nicea in year 325 AD, or the Apostles Creed which is even more ancient and was originally used at baptisms in the early church.

The first question is: "In the Nicene Creed, what does the word 'consubstantial' mean?"

Whenever we say the Nicene Creed, we get to say one of my all-time favorite words! We state that Jesus is "consubstantial with the Father". The word 'consubstantial' comes from two Latin words that mean 'same substance'. When we say the Creed, we are saying that Jesus is the same substance (i.e. the same divinity) as God the Father.

The Nicene Creed was written at the Council of Nicea in the year 325. The Council of Nicea was called in response to a heresy called 'Arianism' that was spreading rapidly around the world. A priest named Arius was teaching that Jesus was something less than God and something more than human. In essence, Arius was saying that Jesus was a 'superman' but not God.

The teaching of Arius contradicted the witness of both Scripture and Tradition, and so the Council of Nicea gathered together the bishops of the world to address the Arian crisis. They wrote a creed (a summary statement of belief). This Nicene Creed was written in Greek, and it used the Greek word "homoousios" to state that Jesus is the same substance, the same divinity, as God the Father. Homoousios translates to Latin as "consubstantialis" and to English as "consubstantial". (CCC #242)

This reflects our belief in the Holy Trinity as three unique persons (Father, Son, and Holy Spirit) yet only one substance, one God.

The second question is: "In the Apostles Creed, why do we say that Jesus descended into hell? How can God go to hell?"

Great question! If hell is a place of eternal separation from God, then how can God go to a place without God? But that is not what this line of the Creed is stating. Other translations of the Creed say that "Jesus descended to the dead". This conveys the meaning more clearly and this meaning is what the church is teaching.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church explains this line of the Creed by teaching: "Scripture calls the abode of the dead, to which the dead Christ went down, 'hell' – Sheol in Hebrew or Hades in Greek – because those who are there are deprived of the vision of God. Such is the case for all the dead...while they await the redeemer. It is precisely these holy souls, who awaited their Savior...whom Christ the Lord delivered when he descended into hell. Jesus did not descend into hell to deliver the damned, nor to destroy the hell of damnation, but to free the just who had gone before him." (CCC #633)

The New Testament's First Letter of Peter says that Jesus was "put to death in the flesh" and "he also went to preach to the spirits in prison" (1 Peter 3:18-19). This verse refers to the fact that Jesus preached to those who had died before he walked the earth. Jesus gave them the opportunity to receive salvation so that "the spread of Christ's redemptive work to all men of all times and all places" might be achieved. (CCC 634)

FEAST OF ST. MICHAEL, ST. GABRIEL, & ST. RAPHAEL, ARCHANGELS (SEPTEMBER 29)

Bridget Klawitter, Pastoral Associate

Based upon what we know from Sacred Scripture and Sacred Tradition, the Church has determined that there are seven Archangels. The Archangels have played an important role in the Bible and in other Jewish and Christian literature for many centuries but while some of their names are very well known, others have been forgotten to history. As of the Council of Rome in 745 AD, the Catholic Church officially only acknowledges the names of three of the seven Archangels because these three are the only angels named in Scripture: St. Michael, St. Gabriel, and St. Raphael.

St. Michael is mentioned in three books of Sacred Scripture (Daniel 10:13 & 21 and 12:1; Jude 1:9; and Revelation 12:7) and he is the only angel explicitly addressed as Archangel in the Book of Jude. Michael's name means, "Who is like God?" and he is the ultimate example of the pious general, the famous angel who led the forces of Heaven in casting out Lucifer/Satan when he rebelled against God in the Book of Revelation. Various traditions say that he was the first of the angels who were created which may explain why he is often revered as the eldest brother of his fellow angels. Traditionally, Michael has been referred to as the Prince/Guardian Angel of the people of Israel and today he is honored as the Guardian Angel of the Church. He is the patron saint of soldiers, police officers, and firefighters.

St. Gabriel's name has many meanings: "Strength of God," "Hero of God" and "God has shown Himself Mightily". These variations can be summed up in one characterization, "God is My Strength". Gabriel is God's holy messenger and traditionally he has been honored as the Archangel of Wisdom, of Revelation, of Prophecy, and of Visions. Gabriel has an important role Sacred Scripture. He appeared to the prophet Daniel to explain a vision from God (Daniel 8); he appeared to the priest Zacharias to announce that he would have a son, John the Baptist, who would be the forerunner of the Messiah (Luke 1); and he appeared to the Virgin Mary in the Annunciation (Luke 1). Tradition indicates that Gabriel was also the angel who appeared to St. Joseph in his dreams (Matthew 1 and 2) and that he was the Guardian Angel of Jesus and the Holy Family. He is the patron saint of messengers, postal workers, and telecommunication workers.

St. Raphael played a pivotal role in Sacred Scripture. In the Book of Tobit (a book not found in Protestant bibles) he helped Tobias, the son of Tobit, on his journey. Raphael's name means, "Healing Power of God" and so traditionally, due to the meaning of his name, he is honored as the Archangel of Healing. Raphael is also identified with the angel in John 5:1-4 who descended upon the pond and bestowed healing powers upon it so that the first to enter it after it moved would be healed of whatever infirmity he was suffering. He is the patron saint of travelers, the blind, bodily ills, nurses, physicians, and medical workers.

St. Augustine teaches in reference to the angels' office and nature: "Angel' is the name of their office, not of their nature. If you seek the name of their nature, it is 'spirit'; if you seek the name of their office, it is 'angel': from what they are, 'spirit,' from what they do, 'angel.'" In other words, the office of the angels is one of mission, as messengers of God, while their nature is defined as non-physical, personal spiritual beings created by God.

The Catechism teaches in reference to the angels' office: "With their whole beings the angels are servants and messengers of God. Because they always behold the face of my Father who is in heaven' they are the mighty ones who do his word, hearkening to the voice of his word" (Catechism of the Catholic Church 329; Matthew 18:10).

NEW MEMBERS

Adults who are 21 years and older are encouraged to register as members of the parish. Church attendance alone does not make you or your family registered members.

Parish membership is required for Baptism, First Reconciliation, First Communion preparation, Christian formation enrollment, Confirmation and Marriage. Please call the Parish Office to make an appointment.

BAPTISM

Baptism requires preparation of the parents and should be completed early in your pregnancy or adoption process. Please call the Parish Office to register for the next class and upcoming available Baptism dates.

MARRIAGE

Engaged couples, planning on getting married through St Leonard parish, need to meet with the priest at least 6 months in advance. Please note that no date can be finalized for the wedding until after this initial meeting takes place. At least one of the couple must be a registered member of the parish. Please call the Parish Office to make an appointment.

MINISTRY TO SICK & SHUT-INS

If you are confined at home and unable to attend Mass, to receive Communion please call the parish office for a visit from the Pastoral Associate. The extended care facilities in our area are gradually reopening and our nursing home ministers are resuming Communion services per facility direction. Because of federal privacy laws, if you wish a visit from the priest or Pastoral Associate while in the hospital, you or your family must call the parish and inform us that you are a patient and request a visit.

"PURIFY MY HEART"

Today's gospel reading picks up where we left off last weekend and contains some rather harsh teachings from Jesus. He warns the disciples that "if your hand causes you to sin, cut it off." Likewise, they should do the same if their feet or eyes cause them to sin. It's important to understand that these words are not meant to be taken literally; rather, we need to look for the meaning Jesus is trying to convey. Our hands, feet, and eyes are all gifts from God that can help build his Kingdom, but they can also be used in ways that go against God's plan. Furthermore, Jesus is inviting us to consider the situations or things that cause us to sin and ask ourselves what we can do to overcome these temptations. We sing Brian Doerkson's "Purify My Heart" today asking to be cleansed from within as we declare our desire to be holy. We hear the analogy of gold being cleansed of impurities in fire, much like our need to cleanse ourselves of the things that cause us to sin. Today, let's pray for the wisdom to know what causes us to sin, and ask God for the strength to remove this from our lives.

Sentiments
for SEMINARIANS

October 10-November 14

As a simple way to support priestly vocations, we can all help seminarians by donating SCRIP cards to this annual program. Since seminarians don't get paid and have no other jobs, gift cards are most appreciated. As a convenience for ease of giving, we are asking donations through WeShare online giving or cash/checks made out to St. Leonard and clearly marked "Sentiments for Seminarians" on the check or envelope returned in the collection or parish office mailbox. SCRIP cards will be purchased and delivered to St. Francis de Sales Seminary in St. Francis.

Contact Dave Pronschinske at 414-218-7757 or bpron13@yahoo.com with questions. Thank you!

VINES & BRANCHES PROGRAM

Are you looking for a catechesis program for your special needs child? On September 20, the Vine and Branches catechesis program for special needs children began another school year. Vine & Branches has been in existence since the 1980's. During this time we have been fortunate enough to have special needs students participate in First Holy Communion, First Reconciliation, and Confirmation. The program meets 18 weeks a year at the Youth Center at St. Leonard Catholic Church in Muskego. All ages are welcome to participate in this program.

Vine and Branches charges no tuition to families of the students. The program is funded by the Knights of Columbus and cooperating parishes pay a stipend. Currently, the cooperating parishes are St. Leonard, St. Matthias, St. John the Evangelist, Milwaukee, and St. Joseph, Big Bend. We always have room for more children. If you have a child who would benefit from this program, please contact Deacon Rick Wirch at 414-233-3586 for more information.
