GOSPEL MEDITATION3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Human history reveals many periods where people lost a sense of God's transcendence. It may even be argued that human beings have been wandering and lost more than they have been at home and focused. Human nature being what it is, we struggle with who God really is — the God of our salvation history or the "gods" of human constructs. Relying on our own designs and pursuits, we forget that we really are meant to listen to One upon whom the Spirit of the Lord rests, Jesus Christ, and not to ourselves. That same history that reveals our fickleness and infidelity also reveals God's constancy and faithfulness. God always finds us.

As people wander and fumble to find their way, God is there bringing them back to holiness and giving them the assurance of His presence. We have to allow God's Word, God's life, to touch us and change us. It can make us more flexible and attentive to the sacred in all facets of life so that every day is one that is holy. Every day is a time when fulfillment is possible for one's soul. Jesus stood before those gathered in the synagogue as the fulfillment of words of promise that were echoed long ago. God doesn't forget. He always comes for us.

Now it is time to remember to go to God. Sometimes our lives are so confused and tangled that it is difficult to see the Word and hand of God. But when we realize, deep within, the depth of friendship God offers to us it really has the power to turn sadness to joy. The promise is fulfilled. Going frequently to God's Word, allowing ourselves to be enriched and rejuvenated, and pondering the certainty of God's fidelity and promise permanently transforms us. We will be more aware of the sacred and the holy and less invested in things that pull us away.

St. Thomas Aquinas | January 28

One of the most famous members of the Dominican Order, St. Thomas Aquinas (1225–1274) is well-known by many for his theological work, “The Summa Theologiae.” Born in Italy, his mother wanted him to become a Benedictine and had high hopes that he would eventually become abbot of Monte Cassino, where he spent much of his youth. To change his vocation, she had him kidnapped by his brothers on his way to Paris at the age of 19. He spent two years in their captivity. Despite this, nothing could shake him from his vocation to become a Dominican priest and he was eventually released. Once free, he went to Paris and then to Cologne, where he finished his studies with Albert the Great.

His greatest contribution to the Catholic Church is his writings. The unity, harmony, and continuity of faith and reason, of revealed and natural human knowledge, encompasses his writings. The Summa Theologiae, his last and, unfortunately, uncompleted work, deals with the whole of Catholic theology.

The patron saint of teachers, theologians and students, St. Thomas Aquinas died in 1274. His life and the impact he had on the whole Church, however, remains alive today. St. Thomas Aquinas, pray for us!

ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Is God Calling You to help disciple
our youth?

St. John's Religious Education Program is seeking additional catechists, aides, and substitutes for elementary grade level classes beginning in Fall of 2022. This includes adults 18 years and older.

Our program offers classes to our families on Monday and Wednesday afternoon/evenings.

Did you know that the Rockford Diocese offers formation certification sessions for catechists to guide them in their journey to disciple our youth?

"It is fitting that those called to the instituted ministry of Catechist be men and women of deep faith and human maturity, active participants in the life of the Christian community, capable of welcoming others, being generous and living a life of fraternal communion," the Pope writes.

Catechists "should also receive suitable biblical, theological, pastoral and pedagogical formation to be competent communicators of the truth of the faith and they should have some prior experience of catechesis," he continued. "It is essential that they be faithful co-workers with priests and deacons, prepared to exercise their ministry wherever it may prove necessary, and motivated by true apostolic enthusiasm." Catholic News Agency, December 2021

I encourage to pray for God's will to be done in your life. If you attend Mass regularly, are a registered and active parishioner and you feel God leading you to the ministry of youth or if you would like more information, please reach out to Stephanie Eldridge, the Director of Religious Ed.

Pray about serving our youth in the Church.

PLANT YOUR WORKS IN THE WORD

One of the things about Scripture is that even the smallest word and shortest phrase can be critical to the overall message. When you take a quiet moment to rest with the Word, you find how quickly the most mundane sentence can reach out and grab you, pulling you into a deeper contemplation of some truth you hadn't even considered until then.

But we often fail to act as the Israelites in the Book of Nehemiah, standing before the Water Gate "listening attentively." Whether it's at Mass during the Liturgy of the Word or at home poring over the Bible, time after time we find ourselves less mindful than we could be. Our ears accept the sounds of the words and our eyes glance over the shape of the letters.

But are we mindful — truly?

The best answer is hopefully at least sometimes. There are always tasks to be completed, problems weighing on our minds that we can't quite give over to God. We lose ourselves in these things instead of in Scripture. We "clock in" with Bible reading instead of "diving in."

We can never forget that the words of the Lord are spirit and life. They are the soil that quickens the seed of all stewardship. There is no mindfulness, no prayer, no graciousness, no gratitude or accountability or sense of commitment unless there is the Word.

So let us pray today for mindfulness, that our every action will be grounded in the law of God — giving it true spirit and life.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

FOR OUR MILITARY

We pray for those who serve our country, fight for our freedom, and await to be back home in the presence of their loved ones, especially:

CPL William F. Ducett USMC
SPC Theodore Hoeh, US Army
CAPT Christopher LaBud
2LT Alexis McEwen, USAF
PVT Mark Mercado, US Army
CAPT David G. Moehling, US Army
PVT Anthony Moore, USMC

LCPL Samantha Mulvihill, USMC

Almighty and eternal God,
 those who take refuge in you will be glad
 and forever will shout for joy.
 Protect these soldiers as they discharge their duties.

Protect them with the shield of your strength and keep them safe from all evil and harm.
 May the power of your love enable them to return home in safety, that with all who love them,
 they may ever praise you for your loving care.
 We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

MINISTRY NEWS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

Cemetery Update:

Cemetery clean-up has taken place and ALL inverted vases have been put in-ground for the fall and winter seasons. Unfortunately, some inverted vases have been put up again for continued use. Inverted vases are for use in the spring and summer seasons only. Any damage to inverted vases and/or markers that may occur is NOT the responsibility of St. John's Cemetery/Parish. (PLEASE NOTE...Burial equipment may accidentally ride over upright vases and cause damage to vases/markers when buried under snow.)

Also, candles are not allowed in the cemetery.

Christmas wreaths on stands can be placed in the cemetery after leaf pick-up is finished for the season.

Please note...Cemetery seasonal rules are posted on signs throughout the cemetery year round.

Thank you for your understanding and cooperation.

Thank You

Thank you to Fr. Jacek for visiting, you made me feel special. I thank my St. John's family for prayers, cards, and visits while I been recuperating from my fall. I am blessed to have you in my life.

-Nancy Majercik

Masses Intentions are available for 2022!

The offering of Holy Mass is a beautiful way to honor someone at the Altar of Our Lord.

Please visit the Parish Office if you would like to obtain a special Mass Intention.

Please Consider Donating to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul

This winter season has been difficult for many local families. Illness, including Covid, has necessitated unpaid time off for many hourly workers, which has led to financial stresses. Some of these families made the difficult choice of paying rent or paying for utilities. After receiving a water shut-off notice, one mixed generational family reached out to St. Vincent de Paul for assistance. SVdP paid the amount due directly to the utility and also delivered bags of food to help this struggling family. Your donations to the Poor Box and SVdP make this assistance possible.

This month, donations of toilet tissue is also appreciated.

"Let each of you look not only to his own interests, but also to the interests of others." Phillipians 2:4
