PARISH PRAYER INTENTIONS BOOK HAS RETURNED!

Feel free to write your personal prayer requests in this book, which is located on the main table in the Gathering Space.

During Mass, we pray: "For the prayers written in our parish book of intentions, on our prayer chain, and our personal intentions that we now recall in silence."

If you would like to add a personal prayer intention to our parish email prayer chain, or become a parish prayer warrior to receive and pray for emailed prayer requests, please call the office.

LIVE STREAM & PARKING LOT MASS CHANGES

With a majority of SJV parishioners vaccinated and able to return to Mass safely, we have seen a sharp decline in participation in live stream and parking lot Mass.

Beginning on July 10/11, the live stream and communion distribution to the parking lot will be offered only at the 8:30am Sunday Mass.

All weekday Masses will continue to be live streamed.

America The Beautiful Katherine Bates

1. O beautiful for spacious skies, For amber waves of grain,
 For purple mountain majesties Above the fruited plain!
 America! America! God shed his grace on thee,
 And crown thy good with brotherhood From sea to shining sea.

4. O beautiful for patriot dream That sees beyond the years
 Thine alabaster cities gleam, Undimmed by human tears!
 America! America! God shed his grace on thee,
 And crown thy good with brotherhood From sea to shining sea.

MUSIC MINISTRY MUSINGS

Did you know that the Mass ends with the final blessing and exhortation, “Go in peace...” “Thanks be to God!”? At SJV and many other parishes, we often sing a recessional hymn, but there is technically no sung music prescribed for the recessional in the liturgy. For the summer months, you will notice that a majority of the time we will play a short instrumental hymn once Mass has concluded, in observance of the ritual of the Mass. Think of it as a simplified summer.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

July 4, 2021 ~ 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

It's all so ordinary that we can easily miss it. The seagulls hunting and diving for mollusks at the beach offer a display of determination and precision as they gather their food for the day. It's simply what these creatures do. Yet, there's a magical artfulness and skill to their work that speaks volumes about the One who breathed life into their being. This is pretty much the way it is with God's presence. God comes in common ways through common things and ordinary people. Sadly, we are so engulfed in our little worlds of order and ideas to notice the beauty and wonder of it all. Many have numbed themselves to the Divine spark at the essence of all life because that's just the way it is. What's so special about it? A sunset is a sunset and a seagull is a seagull. That's precisely what they thought about Jesus too. After all, isn't he just the carpenter's son? What merit can his words possibly have?

If we're looking for God to come in an event that is so dramatic and intense that it knocks our socks off, then think again. When pondering God's relationship with His people and God's action in our lives, we have to go back to the stable and the recurring, creative, unending power of God's presence. It was a quiet, run of the mill kind of night. There was nothing spectacular or extraordinary. To the naked eye, a woman gave birth to a child and there wasn't anything extraordinary to see. We have a hard time understanding God's ordinary-ness. Jesus grew up in an ordinary town, had neighbors and did normal human things. Perhaps that's why we don't always like the Gospel. It doesn't dazzle us with extraordinary things but simply challenges us to take a different look at our ordinary stuff. That makes us uncomfortable. We prefer things as they are. Our lack of faith can even cause us to take offense at what Jesus says and does, dismissing it as folly.

God's life-giving presence continues to sustain that seagull in flight and keep all things in being regardless of whether we have the faith to see and understand this. Our personal agendas, preconceived ideas, misconceptions, and expectations can often cause us to be hardened and blinded to what God is doing or desiring to do. While God continues to do what he has done for all eternity, faith is needed for God's presence to bear fruit. The blinders we wear and the expectations we bring to life can often prevent us from seeing graced moments that radiate with God's graceful presence. They also prevent God's transforming, healing, and hope filled vision for our world from being realized. Without faith, God won't be able to do much for us either.

TAKE THE DIOCESAN SURVEY

How did life get so busy? How do the weeks, months, and years go by so fast? Am I prioritizing things in the best way that I can? Have I made Jesus the center of my life?

The Rediscovering Sunday initiative is about grounding our week in the Lord's Day. This is a personal and communal effort. Let us do this together.

From June 18–July 31, we invite you to join parishioners throughout the Davenport Diocese by filling out the survey by clicking HERE. As we continue to come out of the pandemic, we want to rediscover our faith lives as members of parish communities. How might we return anew? How might the Holy Spirit be calling us today? Results from this survey will help equip parishes to discern how to live out our calling as members of the body of Christ.
