Prayer for Priests

By St. John Vianney (patron saint of parish priests)

God, please give to your Church today many more priests after your own heart. May they be worthy representatives of Christ the Good Shepherd.

May they wholeheartedly devote themselves to prayer and penance; be examples of humility and poverty; shining models of holiness; tireless and powerful preachers of the Word of God; zealous dispensers of your grace in the sacraments.

May their loving devotion to your Son Jesus in the Eucharist and to Mary his Mother be the twin fountains of fruitfulness for their ministry.

Amen.

PASTOR'S PERSPECTIVE

I'm still feeling very much like the new kid on the block as I'm becoming more acquainted of the ins and outs of SJV and I'm often amazed at how I'm adjusting. And yes, I am truly adjusting and feeling pretty comfortable, though I admit I've got a lot more to learn. It's that "getting to smell like sheep thing..." Patience, patience, patience.

And you're still getting used to me! One of the things we've been made aware of these past several weeks is Bishop Zinkula's initiative of Rediscovering Sundays. COVID-19 has changed many Catholic's approach to Mass and how easy it was to watch Mass on television, at our convenience. What a wonderful opportunity it was to live stream Masses, BUT that is not the same thing as being here and present at the Eucharist! Making people feel welcome and wanting to come back is important for all of us. I'm accustomed to beginning Mass with a heartfelt welcome, offering an introduction of the Mass, having everyone stand, turn toward those around you and introduce yourselves, and welcome each other as we begin our celebration! How many times have you sat beside or near someone and didn't even know who they were? This is a wonderful opportunity to introduce yourself and find out who that person or family is that's sharing in our celebrations!

Several years ago when then Bishop Amos assigned me to Sacred Heart, one of his preferences was announcing the Mass intention prior to Mass versus during the prayers of the faithful. Being the obedient priest I was (am), I became used to beginning our celebrations mentioning the Mass intention, the Mass we're celebrating, the opening hymn, and having everyone stand to welcome and begin. I'm hoping this becomes natural here at SJV! OK??!

While our gospel readings from St. John's gospel are about Eucharist, did you know that the word "Eucharist" means thanksgiving? Catholics are called to give thanks for ALL of God's blessings and one of God's greatest gifts/blessings is the gift of Himself in the Eucharist. So we wonder just how grateful we are in recognizing these gifts. Today's gospel describes Jesus correcting the wrong attitude of his listeners who had gathered around him with wrong motive of another free lunch. What are we most thankful for in our lives? Our faith and all with which we've been blessed?

The story is told of two old friends who bumped into one another on the street one day. One of them looked forlorn, almost on the verge of tears. His friend asked, "What has the world done to you, my old friend?" The sad fellow said, "Let me tell you. Three weeks ago, an uncle died and left me $40,000." "That's a lot of money." "But, two weeks ago, a cousin I never even knew, died, and left me $85,000 free and clear." "Sounds like you've been blessed...." "You don't understand!" he interrupted. "Last week my great aunt passed away. I inherited almost a quarter of a million." Now he was really confused. "Then, why do you look so glum?" "This week ... nothing!" Gratitude is something that you only feel when a gift is truly appreciated.

As we continue to hear more lessons about the Eucharist, let's open our hearts in gratitude for all God's wonderful blessings!! Have a wonderful week!

Reconciliation is held on Saturdays, 3:30-4:15pm, in the Reconciliation Chapel, behind the choir loft.

Homily

Profession of Faith—Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayer of the Faithful

Concluding with SJV Novena Prayer

Day 5 (Saturday, July 31)

Saint John Vianney, God's grace saw you through all the trying moments of your life. Inspired by the example of our Lord Jesus Christ, you sacrificed your entire life in order to serve him fully. Your complete trust and surrender to His will allowed you to enter priesthood in spite of the many trials you had to endure.

Obtain for me the same complete trust in the will of God, that will allow me to see hardships and trials as sacrifices I need to joyfully accept in His name. Let my anxieties and uncertainties be replaced by great faith in our Heavenly Father who is the source of all that is good.

Believing in the power of your kind intercession, I humbly ask you to pray for me and the special intention I am hoping God will grant me through this novena. (Here mention your special intention).

Saint John Vianney, Priest of Ars, pray for our priests, and pray for us. Amen.

Day 6 (Sunday, August 1)

Saint John Vianney, you rejoiced at every opportunity to spend time in prayer and contemplation. Your dedication was such that, had it not been for practical considerations, your bishop would have granted your wish to be a monk.

Teach me the power of prayer, that I may slowly understand God's will for me. Obtain for me the conviction that through fervent prayer, nothing is impossible.

Believing in the power of your kind intercession, I humbly ask you to pray for me and the special intention I am hoping God will grant me through this novena. (Here mention your special intention).

Saint John Vianney, Priest of Ars, pray for our priests, and pray for us. Amen.

BREAD FOR THE WORLD

Bernadette Farrell

Refrain: All

Bread for the world: a world of hun-ger. Wine for all peo-ple: peo-ple who thirst. May we who eat be bread for oth-ers. May we who drink pour out our love.

1. Lord Jesus Christ, you are the bread of life, broken to reach and heal the wounds of human pain. Where we divide your people you are waiting there on bended knee to wash our feet with endless care.
2. Lord Jesus Christ, you are the wine of peace, poured into hearts once broken and where dryness sleeps. Where we are tired and weary you are waiting there to be the way which beckons us beyond despair.
3. Lord Jesus Christ, you call us to your feast, at which the rich and pow'ful have become the least. Where we survive on others in our human greed you walk among us begging for your ev'ry need.

Eat This Bread

Gather #941

Eat this bread, drink this cup, come to him and never be hungry.
Eat this bread, drink this cup, trust in him and you will not thirst.

SJV FEAST DAY NOVENA

The novena to our patron, Saint John Vianney will culminate on his feast day, Wednesday, August 4, with Masses at 9:00am and 6:30pm. Hospitality will follow both Masses.

MUSIC MINISTRY MUSINGS

Did you know that the Mass ends with the final blessing and exhortation, "Go in peace..." "Thanks be to God!?" At SJV and many other parishes, we often sing a recessional hymn, but there is technically no sung music prescribed for the recessional in the liturgy. For the summer months, you will notice that a majority of the time we will play a short instrumental hymn once Mass has concluded, in observance of the ritual of the Mass. Think of it as a simplified summer.
