28TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

They were exceedingly astonished and said among themselves,
"Then who can be saved?" Jesus looked at them and said,
"For human beings it is impossible, but not for God.
All things are possible for God." - Mk 10:26-27

PASTOR'S PERSPECTIVE

What a celebration of pets there was Monday evening! Oh my!! If all of you could have seen the multitude of dogs, a few cats, and even a turtle – it was awesome welcoming these creatures of God and offering our St. Francis blessing for them. Little Joey Michael was honored to host such an event and THANKS for all who showed up with your furry (and shelled) friends!

We continue our ADA striving to reach and exceed $173,000. THANK YOU to everyone who has responded. Wouldn't it be awesome to have 100% participation, even if your contribution was small? It takes all of us to make SJV thrive and viable.

And you'll notice envelopes in your pews, not for the ADA but the Newman Catholic Student Center in Iowa City. This is an opportunity (please see Bishop Zinkula's comments on page 8) to support another worthwhile cause. Again, all / any support is greatly appreciated!

Tis the MOST beautiful time of year – hope your week is an awesome one!

Fr. Rich

MITCH'S MESSAGE

Well, hello there! It's been a while since I've written here, but like all of you, I'm sure, it's been so great to hear what's on the heart and mind of our "new" pastor. Today, the torch has been temporarily handed to me. Father Rich, I hope I do you proud!

"You lack one thing..." I was reading the Gospel today and that line stuck out to me. This was a rich young man. My initial thought was, "he didn't lack a dang thing!" (Maybe 21st century toilets...but that's not the point.) Then, Jesus says something even more troubling: "Go, sell what you have, and give it to the poor...then come follow me." Wouldn't the young man just end up with less? Sounds like he's making the problem worse.

Let's make one thing clear: being "rich" is not evil. (That includes you, Fr. Rich.) Jesus is saying that our treasure is in heaven, but to cling to and be attached to the things of this earth is like being at the bottom of the ocean and holding on to a weight. Jesus didn't want the money of the young man, he wanted his heart, but the young man could only give all of himself and follow Jesus if he detached from the things of this world. Jesus presents the solution to this problem: giving. Wait! I don't mean monetarily, though yes, that's a first step. Detachment is not the end. It's the beginning of a life where you can give all of who you are to another. So, what is something in your life you need to "detach" from and in what ways would that free you to love God, your spouse, or your neighbor more?

Ok, with that said, family and marriage is crazy and complex...and crazy. Can I get an "amen?" Yet, there's so much wisdom in scripture, our church, and from other couples that we can learn. This Advent season, I'm inviting all families, including engaged couples, to come, journey, and discover together God's beautiful plan for your marriage and to hear both the struggles and victories from other couples in our community so that we know we're not alone. Also...we will provide childcare! Mark your calendars and spread the word! November 28, December 5, 12, and 19, following 11:00am Mass. More details to come.

Finally, I hope to see you this Sunday to unravel the crisis our church is facing. Many are walking away from Christ like the rich young man, and I hope to shed some light on their reasons and offer both hope and practical things you can do now to draw them back or keep them "home" in the church. Again, that's this Sunday, October 10, and next Sunday, October 17, in the church, from 6:00-7:30pm. Come as you are!

Mitch

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 90:12-13, 14-15, 16-17

Fill us with your love, O Lord, and we will sing for joy!

Teach us to number our days, that we may gain wisdom of heart. Turn back, O LORD! How long? Show pity to your servants. ℟.	Let your deed be seen by your servants, and your glorious power by their children. Let the favor of the Lord our God be upon us; give success to the work of our hands. O give success to the work of our hands. ℟.
At dawn, fill us with your merciful love; we shall exult and rejoice all our days. Give us joy for the days of our affliction, for the years when we looked upon evil. ℟.

Homily

Profession of Faith—Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Entrance & Communion Antiphons

For the past few months, you heard some of the antiphons sung during Mass. An antiphon is a verse of scripture prescribed to be sung at each Mass throughout the liturgical year. Antiphons originated from the worship of the Jewish people and were adopted into Christian worship in the early church. They are designed to complement the lectionary readings for each day.

Until recently, our resources for antiphons consisted mainly of chant, which is a difficult music style for our ears to catch on to, unless you are a trained musician. With the goal of having fully conscious and active participation by the faithful at Mass (which is central to Mother Church, see Sacrosanctum Concilium 14) it has been a common choice by most churches to use a hymn of modern musical style, rather than the chant antiphon. However, the primary choice according to our instructions on how to celebrate Mass has always been to sing antiphons (see General Instruction of the Roman Missal, no. 48).

Since August, we have been using a newly-published resource called Let Us All Rejoice! Modern Musical Settings of the Entrance and Communion Antiphons. If you would like to pray along with these throughout the week and get to know the antiphons better, you can listen to the compilation on YouTube by clicking HERE.

SOCIAL JUSTICE THURSDAY

Food for the Hungry

October 14, 6:30pm - Activity Center

The Bible encourages us to reach out to help others in many ways and feeding the hungry is mentioned many times. "If you bestow your bread on the hungry and satisfy the afflicted; then light shall rise for you in the darkness, and the gloom shall become for you like midday." Isaiah 58:10.

Come and learn about the many ways the Quad Cities helps those who hunger. We will be informed by speakers from Riverbend Food Bank, a local food pantry, and a local meal site. We will learn about the specific food needs in the Quad Cities and how we can help in effective ways. And of course, there will be refreshments.

In addition, visit the Social Justice resource table after weekend Masses on October 16-17 to get ideas on how to make a difference in the lives of those who are hungry.

NEWMAN CENTER SPECIAL COLLECTION

Bishop Zinkula has announced a special collection in all parishes of the Diocese of Davenport in support of the Newman Catholic Student Center in Iowa City the weekend of October 9-10, 2021. Newman Center is a Roman Catholic ministry to those students, faculty, and staff associated with The University of Iowa. Its mission is to promote their development within a faith community and to prepare them as disciples for the Church and the world. Currently, Newman Center offers a faith home to the 7000+ self-identified Catholic students on campus.

A recent Pew Research study reveals of the Catholics who leave their faith, 80% do so by the age of 23. Other research reveals those involved in campus ministry go on, in large numbers, to be active parishioners post graduation. Please join Newman Center in the battle for the hearts and minds of young people during a very transformative time in their lives.

Newman Center is 100% self-funded through the generosity of donors like YOU. Learn more about the mission and ministries of the only Newman center in our diocese by visiting www.iowacatholic.org, watching the video, or reading the brochure available in our Gathering Space. Gifts for this special collection can be made in the designated SURROUND, SUPPORT, STRENGTHEN 2021 envelopes available in the Gathering Space or securely online on the Iowa Catholic website. Thank you for your gift consideration of this important ministry of the Diocese of Davenport.

For every one person that joins the Church, six leave. You heard that right. Six. And 79% of those that do leave disaffiliate under the age of 23. Most of the damage is done by the time they enter college. Luckily, those that have left shared their reasons with us. Whether those reasons are good, bad, or indifferent, they are their reasons. The question next is, how do we respond? As parents, what can we do or change that keeps our children Catholic or will draw them back to the Church? As a Church, where have we failed to feed the deep hunger we all have for God?

Before we abandon hope, we remember that our God is an Awesome God. He will never abandon us and He will never abandon them. He desires to equip us with the many tools and graces to not only bring them home, but to help them recognize that in the Church, they are home. Whether you have kids in your home, in college, grandkids, or no kids, these sessions are for you and everyone you know who are seeking answers.

Join Mitchell Narvasa, SJV Pastoral Associate for Evangelization and Discipleship, on a two-night journey exploring the many reasons our young people have left or are leaving and what you can do about it.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS ANNUAL DIAPER DRIVE

The diaper drive winds down this weekend, but there is still time to donate to this cause that is so helpful to Women's Choice Center, Bettendorf. Our KCs will collect diapers (sizes 4, 5, and 6 are especially needed) and baby wipes through Sunday, October 10; use the playpens in the Gathering Space for your donations.

Monetary donations may be made online: SJV KC's Diaper Drive, mailed to the church (marked "diaper drive"), or given to the KC's before and after weekend Masses.

Please make checks payable to Women's Choice Center or Knights of Columbus Council 4403.

TRIVIA ENTHUSIASTS ...

Knights of Columbus Loras Council 260—which includes many of SJV's 4th degree Knights— will host a trivia night on Saturday, November 13, at Columbus Club of Davenport (1111 W. 35th St, Davenport). Doors open at 6:15pm; play begins at 7:00pm. Make your reservations by calling/texting Chris LaRoche (309.207.1082) by November 1; provide team name/contact person, phone number and email.

SJV BOOK DISCUSSION

Join us for our next book discussion: Dusk, Night, Dawn: On Revival and Courage. Books are available on the table in front of the office for $15.00, payable to Janene Misak (payment may be left in the office). We will meet Monday, October 18, 1:00pm, in the Vianney Room. All are welcome, no matter if you join us every month or if just one title catches your eye. Please contact Janene with questions: janenemisak1000@msn.com or 563.349.7832

In Dusk, Night, Dawn, Anne Lamott explores the tough questions that many of us grapple with. How can we recapture the confidence we once had as we stumble through the dark times that seem increasingly bleak? As bad news piles up from climate crises to daily assaults on civility, how can we cope? She asks the question: "Do we start to get our world and joy and hope and our faith in life itself back . . . with our sore feet, hearing loss, stiff fingers, poor digestion, stunned minds, broken hearts?"

ST. FRANCIS PET BLESSING

Two and four-legged friends gathered on the Feast of St. Francis of Assisi to honor him and to receive a special blessing from Fr. Rich. Treats—animal and human—were shared, barks and meows were heard, sniffs were had. The turtle kept to himself. Joey says we'll do it again next year!
