OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE

So Pilate said to him, "Then you are a king?" Jesus answered, "You say I am a king. For this I was born and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice." - Jn 18:37

MITCH'S MESSAGE

I'm not going to lie. When I hear the Solemnity of "Christ the King" is coming, I kind of scratch my head. I bet some of you do too. The idea of a "king" as an actual lived experience is pretty foreign to modern man, especially us "middle-of-nowhere" lowans. Pair that with some not-so-great depictions and representations of kings from history and now that itch on my head is starting to scab. But let's give it a shot.

The beginning of the liturgical year is Advent/Christmas where the answer of the deepest yearning of our hearts was answered by God becoming one of us, specifically as "friend of sinners." The Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, aka Christ the King, is a relatively new feast day promulgated just in 1925 by Pope Pius XI. (Only 96 years young!) This feast day was in response to the increasing secularization (the removal of God) in the political, economic, and cultural movements of the world. In other words, "Christ, King of the Universe" is also our "friend." How awesome is that?

Without friendship, trust, and love, the most we can offer is reluctant obedience that can lead to suspicion of His word and even criticism of His laws and the structure of His "Kingdom." The first lie fed to Adam and Eve by the serpent that led to The Fall was that they couldn't trust God, leading to the oppression of humanity to the "powers and structures" of sin and death. Secularization, removing God from the picture, is ultimately a distrust in God that "perpetuates the powers and systems that bind and oppress us," to use modern language. The Solemnity of Christ the King reminds us that we have a friend and king in Jesus who is in control, who has already won the battle, and that His kingly wisdom and mercy is the answer to all earthly, and, more importantly, spiritual, oppression.

But oftentimes, we still choose the wisdom and power of earthly kings and kingdoms. During the time of the Prophet Samuel, Israel had God as their liberator and protector, and still, they asked for an earthly king. God said to Samuel, "Listen to whatever the people say. You are not the one they are rejecting. They are rejecting me as their king." (1 Samuel 8:7) When I first read that, my heart broke. I remembered all the times our Lord wanted to care for me as King and I rejected Him. I thought I could lead my family with my own strength, wisdom, and knowledge. It led to so much suffering and woundedness. It was only when I surrendered my life to Christ our King that I found who I was as son, husband, and father. I was liberated.

In order to undo the damage from that lie that led to distrust, God had to untangle the lie and win back our trust. That's what brings us back to the beginning of the liturgical year, Advent/Christmas, when he enters into our broken world, our broken homes, and our broken hearts, and sits at table with us and becomes "friend." Then, not only does He say to us, "No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends," but He does exactly that on the cross. On the cross, He effectively says, "This is how much I love you. Trust me and let me be King."

Now...this is the perfect segue to those giant posters around the Church. Christ is the Author of Life and is also the Author of that unique love which creates life: Marriage! That marital love creates what St. Pope John Paul II calls "a civilization of love", aka, the family. I want to invite you to IGNITE to discover with other couples this beautiful design of love that Christ the King made right there in your marriage and family. This November 28, December 5, and 19, from 12:00-1:30pm in the Activity Center, come experience the healing, freedom, joy, and purpose God wants you to experience in your marriage and family. I'm looking forward to seeing you and happy CHRIST THE KING!

You can find more details about IGNITE on the website, bulletin, or table in the Gathering Space.

Profession of Faith

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Anointing of the Sick December 1, 9:00am

Anointing of the Sick will be offered during 9:00am Mass on Wednesday, December 1. All are welcome to receive the Sacraments of Healing and Eucharist.

This sacrament is celebrated when a Christian's health is seriously impaired by sickness or agedness. The anointing is intended to bring hope and comfort to the one anointed and, to the gathered family and friends, a spirit of support and sharing in the sufferings of our brothers and sisters.

- ACT and spread the word about poverty by sharing this flier.
- CONNECT with the work of CCHD by supporting the collection.
- PRAY for those who benefit from this collection.

We all depend on workers in America's meat-processing plants and animal-feeding operations, who are essential to the food supply chain. Many of them are immigrants facing language barriers that leave them at a disadvantage when they advocate for safe working conditions, just wages, and fair treatment from employers. The Rural Community Workers Alliance (RCWA) in Missouri helps these essential workers by advocating on their behalf for safe working conditions and by promoting gatherings to address racial divisions in the community as a way to help immigrants and nonimmigrants discover similarities and share their experiences.

The COVID-19 pandemic revealed working conditions at a pork-processing plant that placed workers at risk of infection due to shoulder-to-shoulder work areas and a lack of protective gear. Workers brought their concerns to RCWA and ultimately filed a lawsuit demanding that the company follow health and safety guidelines established by the federal government. Even before the court ruled on the lawsuit, the company took action to protect workers by installing protective barriers, sanitizing stations, providing masks, and conducting temperature checks. When you support CCHD's mission of working on the margins, you help groups such as RCWA advocate for the health and safety of the essential workers that we all depend upon.
