Vision Statement: "To offer every person in our community a life-changing encounter with Jesus."

FROM POPE FRANCIS

CATECHESIS: GALATIANS

Dear Friends,

We are delving into the Letter to the Galatians, a little at a time. We have seen that these Christians find themselves in conflict on how to live the faith. The Apostle Paul begins writing his Letter by reminding them of their past relationship, his unease at being far from them, and the unchanging love he retains for each one of them. However, he does not fail to point out his concern that the Galatians should follow the correct path: it is the concern of a father, who has generated the communities in the faith. His intention is very clear: it is necessary to reaffirm the novelty of the Gospel, which the Galatians received through his preaching, to build the true identity on which to base their existence.

We immediately discover that Paul has a profound knowledge of the mystery of Christ. From the beginning of his Letter he does not follow the shallow arguments used by his detractors. The Apostle “flies high” and shows us, too, how to behave when conflicts arise within the community. Only towards the end of the Letter, in fact, is it made explicit that at the heart of the diatribe is the question of circumcision, hence of the main Jewish tradition. Paul chooses the path of going deeper, because what is at stake is the truth of the Gospel and the freedom of Christians, which is an integral part of it. He does not stop at the surface of problems, of conflicts, as we are often tempted to do in order to find an immediate solution that gives us false hope that everyone can agree with a compromise. Paul loves Jesus and knows that Jesus is not a man-God of compromises. This is not how the Gospel works, and the Apostle chooses to take the more challenging route. He writes: “Am I now seeking the favor of men, or of God’s?”. He does not try to make peace with everyone. And he continues: “Or am I trying to please men? If I were still pleasing men, I should not be a servant of Christ” (Gal 1:10).

Firstly, Paul feels it is his duty to remind the Galatians that he is a true apostle not by his own merit, but by God’s call. He recounts the story of his vocation and conversion, which coincided with the apparition of the Risen Christ during the journey to Damascus (cf. Acts 9:1-9). It is interesting to observe what he affirms of his life prior to that event: “I persecuted the church of God violently and tried to destroy it. I advanced in Judaism beyond many of my own age among my people, so extremely zealous was I for the traditions of my fathers” (Gal 1:13-14). This is the story of Paul.

On the one hand, he insists in underlining that he had fiercely persecuted the Church and that he had been a “blasphemer, a persecutor, and a man of violence” (cf. 1 Tim 1:13). He spares no adjectives: he describes his own self in this way. On the other hand, he highlights God’s mercy towards him, which led him to experience a radical transformation, well known to all. He writes: “I was still not known by sight to the churches of Christ in Judea; they only heard it said, ‘He who once persecuted us is now preaching the faith’” (Gal 1:22-23). He converted, he changed, he changed his heart. Paul thus highlights the truth of his vocation through the striking contrast that had been created in his life: from being a persecutor of Christians for not observing the traditions and the law, he was called to become an apostle to proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ. But we see that Paul is free: he is free to proclaim the Gospel and he is also free to confess his sins.

Thinking back on his story, Paul is full of wonder and gratitude. It is as if he wanted to tell the Galatians that he could have been anything but an apostle. He had been brought up as a boy to be a blameless observer of Mosaic Law, and circumstances had led him to fight the disciples of Christ. However, something unexpected had happened: God, by His grace, had revealed to him His Son who had died and rose again, so that he could become a herald among the Gentiles (cf. Gal 1:15-16).

How inscrutable are the ways of the Lord! We experience this every day, but especially if we think back to the times when the Lord called us. We must never forget the time and the way in which God entered our lives: let us keep fixed in our hearts and minds that encounter with grace, when God changed our existence.

How inscrutable are the ways of the Lord! We experience this every day, but especially if we think back to the times when the Lord called us. We must never forget the time and the way in which God entered our lives: let us keep fixed in our hearts and minds that encounter with grace, when God changed our existence. How often, in the face of the Lord’s great works, does the question spontaneously arise: but how is it possible that God uses a sinner, a frail and weak person, to do his will? And yet, none of this happens by chance, because everything has been prepared in God’s plan. He weaves our history, the story of each one of us: he weaves our history and, if we correspond with trust to his plan of salvation, we will become aware of it. The calling always implies a mission to which we are destined; that is why we are asked to prepare ourselves seriously, knowing that it is God himself who sends us, it is God himself who supports us with his grace. Brothers and sisters, let us allow ourselves to be led by this awareness: the primacy of grace transforms existence and makes it worthy of being placed at the service of the Gospel. The primacy of grace covers all sins, changes hearts, changes lives, and makes us see new paths. Let us not forget this.

Let us not forget this.

FROM THE PASTOR

LEBANON NEEDS YOU!

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

On the last page you will find a recent letter from our Bishop, regarding the dire plight of the people of Lebanon. The bishop asks that we take up a collection to assist the people of that country, so reduced in these past years.

The World Bank said Lebanon's financial crisis could rank among the world's three worst since the mid-1800s. The currency has lost more than 90 percent of its value.

The double blow of the pandemic and the huge explosion in the Beirut port nearly a year ago that killed about 200 people and heavily damaged the capital has made what was already a bad situation much worse.

Lebanon hosts over a million refugees from neighboring Syria. Please see the bishop's letter and consider a gift to help the people of Lebanon. —Fr. Eric

CATCH UP HERE

Communion to the Homebound

Communion to the Homebound is an important ministry to meet the needs of those who are unable to attend Mass, and is most rewarding. If you are a Minister of Communion to the Homebound, or desire to take part in this ministry, please contact Deacon Mark Cleary to take part in a short meeting to go over logistics, scheduling, and protocol. Please contact him directly by email, mcleary08@comcast.net or call 309-531-1062. The meeting will be sometime in the second week in July at the parish.

Adult Faith Formation/Evangelization Coordinator!

Stephanie and her husband David have been members of Epiphany Parish for the last three years. They have three children: Matthias, Sam, and Rose. In the past 15 years, Stephanie has lived in Montana, Kansas, Colorado, and Pennsylvania. She also spent an 8-week stint in Spain to work towards a Spanish degree. She studied Elementary Education and Spanish at Benedictine University, and worked with FOCUS (Fellowship of Catholic University Students) for three years at Colorado University in Boulder. Stephanie grew up on a ranch in the mountains of California, and loves to go hiking and be outside. While her childhood wasn't the beach-life image most of us have of California, it still left her with hippie roots that often lead to her walking around barefoot! Stephanie's current favorite topics are Discernment of Spirits and Human Emotions. She loves speaking at events, diving into the Gospel of Luke, and enjoys studying her daughterhood in Christ and the Dignity of Women. We are so excited to have her here at Epiphany, and look forward to her journeying with us!

Rite Of Christian Initiation Of Adults (RCIA)

We will be starting our RCIA 2022 Class soon and would like to invite you to join us. RCIA provides a deeper look into the Catholic faith and focuses on what Catholics believe (and why) in an open and welcoming environment. These sessions are also opportunities for you to ask those perplexing and difficult questions you may have about the Church.

RCIA is a program for those who are searching and inquiring about the Catholic faith and way of life. It is typically offered for those who are not Catholic and wish to join the Church, or those that are Catholic but have not received the sacraments of First Communion and/or Confirmation, but it's also an excellent "refresher" for those who may have forgotten things or would just like a deeper understanding of our faith. All are welcome to attend.

We meet weekly starting in September through the end of April or early May. RCIA Sessions will be held on Thursday evenings starting at 7:00 pm in the new meeting room in the Rectory. At this time, we are not certain whether our meetings can be in person or virtual, but we'll know more toward the end of August. We're hoping for in person as the new meeting room in the Rectory is spacious and there is plenty of room for "social distance".

We will kick things off with a virtual introductory meeting using Zoom on Thursday, August 26 at 7:00 pm. We will cover administrative details, basic introductions, our calendar, necessary paperwork, questions & answers, etc. during this introductory meeting. We will need your email address in order to send out the invite for the Zoom meeting; please contact the Evangelization Team for more information or to let us know that you are planning to join us on this journey.

Contact email: evangelization@epiphanyparish.com.

Special Collection for Lebanon, July 2021

July 10, 2021

Dear Monsignors and Fathers,

I am writing to you today to bring to your attention the situation of our brothers and sisters in the Catholic Faith who live in Lebanon. They are facing what has been called the worst economic crisis in modern history. Indeed, the nation faces a famine, and some are in danger of starvation.

The Lebanese community is deeply rooted in our diocese, some of whom are Latin Rite Catholics while others belong to one of the Oriental Rites in communion with the See of Peter. I am asking that a second collection be taken in our parishes sometime before the end of this month. We will be forwarding the proceeds to the Patriarch, Cardinal Bechara Boutros al-Rahi, who will distribute the funds to those in need.

I thank you in advance for your generosity.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

✠ Most Reverend Daniel R. Jenky, C.S.C.

BISHOP OF PEORIA

If you would like to support this special collection, please drop off your gift (made out to Epiphany Parish with Memo: Lebanon) in the collection basket or to the parish office before the end of July. Your gift will be bundled with gifts raised from throughout the Diocese and forwarded to the Catholic leader of Lebanon, Cardinal Bechara Boutros al-Rahi
