CATHOLIC CHURCH

Fourth Sunday of Advent

December 19, 2021

Vision Statement: "To offer every person in our community a life-changing encounter with Jesus."

POPE FRANCIS

MARY AND JOSEPH'S DREAMS

Dear brothers and dear sisters, our lives are very often not what we imagine them to be. Especially in loving and affectionate relationships, it is difficult to move from the logic of falling in love to the logic of a mature love. We need to move from infatuation to mature love. You newlyweds, think about this.

The first phase is always marked by a certain enchantment that makes us live immersed in the imaginary that is often not based on reality and facts – the falling in love phase. But precisely when falling in love with its expectations seems to come to an end, that is where true love begins or true love enters in there.

In fact, to love is not the pretension that the other person, or life, should correspond to our imagination. Rather, it means to choose in full freedom to take responsibility for one's life as it comes. This is why Joseph gives us an important lesson. He chooses Mary with "his eyes open". We can say "with all the risks".

Think about this: in the Gospel of John, a reproof the doctors of the law make to Jesus is: "we are not children from that", referring to prostitution. They knew how Mary had remained pregnant and they wanted to throw dirt on Jesus' mamma. For me, this is the worst, the most demonic passage, in the Gospel.

And Joseph's risk gives us this lesson: to take life as it comes. Has God intervened there? I accept it. And Joseph does what the angel of the Lord had ordered: "He took his wife, but knew her not" – without living together she is expecting a son – "until she had borne a son; and he called his name Jesus" (Mt 1:24-25).

Christian engaged couples are called to witness to a love like this that has the courage to move from the logic of falling in love to that of mature love. This is a demanding choice that instead of imprisoning life, can fortify love so that it endures when faced with the trials of time.

A couple's love progresses in life and matures each day. The love during engagement is a bit – allow me to use the word – a bit romantic. You have all experienced this, but then mature love begins, love lived every day, from work, from the children that come... And sometimes that romanticism disappears a bit, right? But is that not love? Yes, but mature love. "But you know, Father, sometimes we fight..." This has been happening since the time of Adam and Eve until today, eh! That spouses fight is our daily bread, eh! "But we shouldn't fight?" Yes, yes, you must. It happens. I am not saying you should, but it happens. "And, Father, sometimes we raise our voices..." It happens. "And there are even times when plates fly". It happens. But what can be done so that this does not damage the life of the marriage? Listen to me well: never finish the day end without making peace. "We fought. My God, I said bad words. I said awful things. But now, to finish the day, I must make peace". You know why? Because the cold war the next day is very dangerous. Don't let war begin the next day. For this reason, make peace before going to bed. "But, Father, you know, I don't know how to express myself to make peace after such an awful situation that we experienced". It's very easy. Do this (the Pope caresses his cheek) and peace is already made.

Remember this always. Remember always: never finish the day without making peace. And this will help you in your married life. To them and to all the married couples who are here. This movement from falling in love to mature love is a demanding choice, but we must choose that path.

This time too, let us conclude with a prayer to Saint Joseph.

Saint Joseph,
you who loved Mary with freedom,
and chose to renounce your fantasies to give way to reality, help each of us to allow ourselves to be surprised by God and to accept life not as something unforeseen from which to defend ourselves,
but as a mystery that hides the secret of true joy.
Obtain joy and radicality for all engaged Christians, while always being aware that only mercy and forgiveness make love possible. Amen.
Thank you.

OUR DEARLY DEPARTED GRANT ETERNAL REST O LORD!

Helen Guth, 1931-2021, wife of the late Emerson, and mother of Susan, Carol, Thomas, Sheryl and Janice.

FROM FATHER ERIC CAPITAL CAMPAIGN

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Thanks very much to all of you and to our friends in the community who have devoted over $2,000,000 to our capital campaign. I had hoped that this would complete our campus renovation strategy but, alas, it won't and so fundraising must continue in other ways, shapes and forms.

We (Finance Council and School Leadership) had hoped to wrap things up by Thanksgiving, that is, we had hoped to have an excess of 3.5 million by now, but that isn't in the cards. However, we will continue to seek pledges and support. For those of you who may be reluctant to support the project, please remember that we have brought the Annual Diocesan Appeal into this campaign. So, if you would like only to support the ADA as in years past, simply let us know and we will ensure that the diocese receives your contribution.

On January 6, our longtime architect and his team, and members of the Finance Council and the School Leadership Team will meet to discuss the scope of the project. Bless you all for your support. Onwards and upwards.

Our priorities remain the same, within the scope of the project we can afford: replace the front doors of church and sanctuary (altar) lighting, ensure the water tightness of the Lyceum, Lyceum security, Catechesis of the Good Shepherd Level III, and the new STREAM room (an advanced Tech room, with other purposes. STREAM is an acronym for Science, Technology, Religion, Engineering, Art and Math). Other "wants and needs" will have to wait.

By the time we finish with this project, we will have spent about 18 years tackling major projects: the Church, the School year by year and piece by piece, the blacktop and entrances and the grounds. While there are other things that still must be done since we did not raise the entire amount of 3.5 million sought, we must also now remain dedicated to maintenance and repair.

May you and your families and friends have a wonderful last week of Advent and Christmas celebration, and may the Savior's birthday and new year bring you continued health, despite the persistent pandemic, and prosperity!

The Lord's blessings be ever upon us.

Sincerely, Fr. Eric

Cover: The Virgin and Child with Saint Anne, 1510, Louvre, Paris, before/after 2011 (controversial) restoration.

Leonardo's image won the critical acclaim of the Florentines; the monumental three-dimensional quality of the group and the calculated effects of dynamism and tension in the composition made it a model that inspired every artist. The composition is triangular, with Saint Ann as the summit. To the left, the Virgin is leaning towards the Child, himself preoccupied by the lamb, symbolizing the passion of Easter. Leonardo, as often, chooses an unusual image: Mary is sitting in her own mother's lap. What better way to describe the bond of maternal love uniting three generations?

know to kick off a small group! Begins Sunday Jan. 9 from 7:30-9:00 pm in the Rectory Room, ends before Lent.

Campaign Update

Thanks very much to parishioners and friends who have devoted over $2,000,000 to our capital campaign. We had hoped to wrap things up by Thanksgiving, that is, we had hoped to have an excess of 3.5 million by now, but that isn't in the cards. However, we will continue to seek pledges and support.

For those of you who may be reluctant to support the project, please remember that we have brought the Annual Diocesan Appeal into this campaign. So, if you would like only to support the ADA as in years past, simply let us know and we will ensure that the diocese receives your contribution.
