Scripture Reflection

As we edge closer to the closing of the liturgical year, the Church selects readings that remind us of the final close: the second coming of Christ. It's easy, perhaps, to forget that this is a dogma of our Catholic faith. We see this dramatic end times language in today's Gospel. "The sun will be darkened ... and the stars will be falling from the sky."

As Christians and as human beings, we know all things will come to an end. "But of that day or hour, no one knows." The "end of the world" and end of time at Jesus' coming is in a future unknown. But God has given us beautiful reminders of this truth. We see the signs and symbols of ending all around us -- nightfall at the end of each day; the life cycle of crops coming alive, bearing fruit, and being harvested; our own death. That, too, will come at an unknown day and hour. But that is the way of things. Even as God created in Genesis, He gave us a sense of time -- the sun rising and setting, a beginning and an end -- to mark our days.

So how do we welcome these built-in forms of measurement? Do we take time to quietly recollect at the end of each day? Do we see every morning as a fresh start for mercies new? Do we observe the seasons and reflect on what they might be speaking to us of God and His glory? "Heaven and earth will pass away, but my works will not pass away." The little beginnings and little ends are opportunities to renew our faith in Jesus, if only we have the eyes to see! © LPI

Our Mission: We, as disciples of Jesus Christ, gather together as an inclusive Eucharistic community to praise and worship God.

We commit ourselves to be good stewards in sharing our time, talent and treasure in service to God and others.

We commit ourselves to lifelong faith formation so that we can live and share the Gospel of Jesus Christ with the world.

SIMPLE LIVING

“Be Present. These two words can make a huge difference in simplifying your life. Living here and now, in the moment, keeps you aware of life, of what is going on around you and within you. Begin being present by paying attention.” ~Excerpt from Simple Living Manifesto by Leo Babauta

Parish News

Book club will meet on Monday, December 3 at 5:00 PM at the House of China. We will be discussing Only Child by Rhiannon Navin. Please come with ideas for books to read for future meetings. We will not meet in January. We will start up again in February.

Children's Liturgy of the Word

Children's Liturgy of the Word is in need of more leaders! If you have children in this age range or would be interested in helping kids ages 5-3rd grade come to a better understanding of what is happening at Mass, please consider joining this ministry. We will have an information night for those who would like training or simply want to know more. Please contact Stephanie Klapatauskas at dbq060ff1@dbqarch.org or 563-582-0377 x. 230 for more details.

Jesus tells us that even he does not know the future. But he does know God's promise. What helps me trust the promise like Jesus trusted?

Happy Thanksgiving

Please join us for mass on Thursday, November 22, 2018 at 9 AM

“God, sometimes life gets me down and I find it hard to see things to be thankful for. Open my eyes to see the gifts you’ve given me in my life. I’m going to start by thanking you for loving me enough to come to earth and die so we can live together forever. Amen.” - Wend van Eyck, Contributor for Crosswalk.com

Christmas Poinsettias

Would you like to contribute toward the Christmas poinsettias? You may put your donation in an envelope marked “Christmas Flowers” and place in the collection basket or drop off at the Parish Office. If there are any questions, please call Pat Manders at 582-6591.

I just want to thank the community of St. Anthony for all your kindnesses, cards and well wishes as I departed from my Bookkeeper position. Now I am beginning my new journey to retirement. Let us pray for each other. ~ Linda Steuer ~

Through the waters of baptism, we welcome into the family of God:

Nashville Owen and Vincent Samuel, children of Eldon & Julita Schneider

May our faith community provide Christian witness and assist these children to grow in faith.
