Scripture Reflection

“Jesus took Peter, James, and John and went up the mountain to pray. While he was praying his face changed in appearance and his clothes became dazzling white.” (Lk 9:28-29)

This episode from Luke is referred to as the Transfiguration. The literal meaning of the word is “to change in appearance,” or “to be transformed.” The transfiguration is a glimpse into the divinity of Jesus. It helped prepare the disciples for Jesus’ resurrection. Their experience enabled them to believe when confronted with the empty tomb. The transfiguration strengthened the faith of the disciples and gave them encouragement.

All of us need encouragement on our spiritual journey. Prayer and Eucharist are the help we need.

SACRAMENTS
