"When you are invited by someone to a wedding banquet, do not recline at table in the place of honor. A more distinguished guest than you may have been invited by him." - Lk 14:8

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

From Father Steve's Desk

Scripture Reflection

In the Gospel today Jesus tells a parable in which the first part of the parable is directed toward the guests attending the banquet. Jesus noticed that many of the guests were trying to get the seats of honor. Jesus puts it this way, "Everyone who exalts themselves will be humbled, and he who humbles themselves will be exalted."

In the last section of the parable, Jesus talks about who should be invited to the banquet. He says that those who have no way to return the favor should be invited. Our motivation for doing good should be based on the Lord's call to serve. God will reward our good works. Our lives and our hope of eternal life are gifts of a merciful God.

SACRAMENTS

Baptisms

This week’s episode: God’s Love Poured Out

We continue our parish’s watch of The Wild Goose series. This week will be episode 2: The Breath of God. As a reminder, you can watch the series through the St. Anthony’s subscription to FORMED. You can access this through www.stanthony-dubuque.formed.org

Question to think about this week as you watch: Our faith life is not supposed to be lived in fear and in a locked room. Describe encounters with the Holy Spirit you have had that moved you out of the locked room.
