GOSPEL MEDITATION

August 1, 2021—18th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“You cannot see the forest for the trees” is a widely known saying that can bring wisdom to our understanding of our journey. Often, our sight becomes limited to what is immediately before us. We lose touch with lessons and experiences from the past and promises and hope for the future. As human beings, we have the privilege of being able to choose things. What I like and don’t like, want, and don’t want can be major preoccupations of our minds and hearts. Our preferences and desires begin to define us more than the simple fact of our being. Who we are matters more than what we are or what we have. If we don’t move beyond the external and superficial stuff to what really is of essence, we risk becoming very unsettled, disorientated, angry, and unhappy. We fail to see the bigger picture of hope and promise that lies ahead and the Divine Presence that has sustained and carried us before.

We like it when the “now” time of our lives satisfy us. Even the people who witnessed Jesus feed the five thousand got confused and distracted. It felt good when thousands of people were able to eat. They wanted to know what they could do to get this to happen again! But Jesus quickly reminds them that this is not the point of this sign. As much as the now time of our lives is of concern, it is not what is ultimately important. We need to learn the difference between being and doing, drawing more strength from who we are and who God is rather than what is happening around us and the choices we can make. Jesus is the true bread that came down from heaven. Jesus is the very incarnate presence of God who sustains life and assures us that we will not perish. This is not easy to understand and feel. We have to practice being in the presence of ourselves, others, creation, and God. We are brought to a holy place when we encounter the sacredness of being. This is real prayer.

SIMPLE LIVING

If environmental decline results when people have either too little or too much, we must ask ourselves: How much is enough? When does consumption cease to add appreciably to human satisfaction? - Evy Mc Donald

HAITI CONNECTION

As we are aware, Haitian President Moïse was assassinated on July 7 in Port au Prince. On July 12 Fr. Rebert sent a message in which he described the feeling of the people saying the people were scared and times were so uncertain. His phrase was “We are like animals at the butcher’s shop.” Two days later he sent an email asking for prayers as the gangs had kidnapped 8 people on a highway near Port de Paix. One of them was Fr. Carl Henry Lucien, a diocesan priest from the area. Our latest message was from July 18 when he wrote that the gangs released Fr. Lucien. Fr. Rebert says all are still worried as nothing is clear. Please continue to pray for our brothers and sisters of St. Montfort Parish.

We extend our prayers and sympathy to the family and friends of

May God grant him eternal life.

Parish Garden

The St. Anthony's vegetable garden is planted and harvested to provide fresh produce for those who lack the ability to obtain fresh vegetables. When that happens we will make the extra vegetables available on a table in the gathering space. Feel free to "pick" a vegetable or two.
